Now is the time to lay in your winter's coal and wood. A severe winter is predicted. Snow is now eight inches deep at Gaylord, Mich., and the Red river is frozen solid from St. Vincent to Pembina. The river has not been frozen over at this season for thirty years.

Mr. R. B. Perkins, one of our former citizens, a man highly respected by a large number of people and who but a few years ago moved to Winston, N. C., has recently made his home in Anniston, Alabama. Wherever he chances to cast his lot the best wishes of our entire people will follow him.

The first transfer of cars from the Norfolk Southern to the Albemarle & Pantego Railroad was made yesterday. Messrs. M. K. King and Jno. L. Roper were present to witness the modus operandi. Thus Washington and Chowan counties are made almost one, opening up an invaluable source from which the supply of Norfolk will be greatly benefitted.

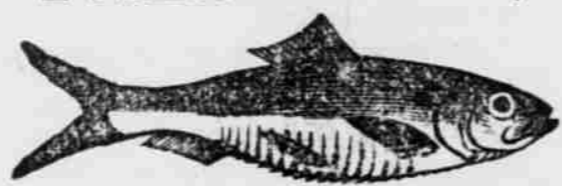

Mr. J. J. Burgess, representative of the old reliable firms of Etheridge Fulgham & Co., commission merchants, and Hamburger Bros., tobacconist, (Norfolk houses) was in town this week. He is a well known gentleman, so also are the parties he represents. We heartily endorse both him and them and commend them to our readers and the public generally as worthy of their most liberal patronage. They are straight-forward in all their dealings. Try them and learn the truth of our declaration.

The agent of the Kentucky Mutual Life Insurance Company has been in our midst for several days looking after the interest of his company and trying to affect a compromise with the widow of the late B. F. Hunter who some months previous to his death procured therefrom a life policy for $5,000. They offer only a thousand Dollars—saying the company is not able to pay more. Of course a suit at law will follow and the company's ability thereby thoroughly tested. Several other parties in our midst hold policies from the same company who will watch with interest the progress of the suit.

TO TAX PAYERS.

The town tax list for 1887, is in my hands for collection. Taxes are now due. I can be found at the Telegraph office on main street at all times ready to give receipts for same. Pay your taxes at once and save yourselves trouble and costs. A. L. WHITE, Collector.
