Politics are getting hot in Virginia. Brady in his turn is knifing Mahone. From all reports, prospects seems to be fair for the democracy. North Carolina will have it next year.

As the cold weather approaches, we again urge you to examine your flues, pipes, chimneys, fire-places and stoves and see that they are in perfect order. Carelessness causes so many disastrous fires.

THANKSGIVING DAY AND THE ORPHANS.

A brother whose heart is in every good work suggests that the exercises in all our churches on Thanksgiving Day be closed with an offering for the orphans at Thomasville. The suggestion is a good one and timely. For the blessings of the year, for abundant crops and general good health, for peace and quietness within our borders, for all the blessings of providence and of grace, it is meet that grateful acknowledgements be publicly made in every neighborhood. Worship without an offering is incomplete. When, therefore, the people are come together, whether in the church or in the family circle, let them remember the orphans at Thomasville. Make the whole year brighter for them by the gifts of a grateful people on this day.—Biblical Recorder.
