Owing to the rough weather Monday and Tuesday, the Steamer Roper did not make her trips to Mackey's Ferry with the transfer barge.

Fishermen should patronize the Edenton net, twine and rope establishment. This is something Edenton has long needed and our fisherman have wished for.

Edenton is still on a boom. Two new brick law offices are now to be built on the Shepard lot, in front of the Bay View Hotel. Mr. Theo. Ralph, Edenton's contractor, has taken the contract to erect them. He began laying the foundation for same this week. Office buildings is something Edenton has long been in need of.

The rains last week and a part of this, prevented many persons from coming to Edenton to do their trading; but with the return of the bright sunshine and dry dirt again, everybody will make up for lost time. Indeed, there is no better market anywhere to patronize, whether you want to buy or sell anything, than Edenton. Consult your interests by consulting our advertising columns. Our merchants have all bought large stocks this fall. Their goods are pretty, attractive and cheap.

We regret to learn that Postal Clerk Riddick, of the Steamer Chowan, is quite sick at his home in Gatesville. Mr. Jno. M. Burfoot, Postal Clerk on the Norfolk Southern Railroad, is filling the position during Mr. R. O. Riddick's absence.

The street leading to the Str. Chowan wharf is in very bad order. It is a shame to allow the street to get in such a condition. Street committee, see to it at once. Don't allow strangers to wade in town. Such things are so soon liable to damage our place. Turn your attention to other streets as well as Main. If its not soon attended to we'll have no street there.

Died, on the 22nd of October, at her home at Rocky Hook, in the 69th year of her age, Mrs. Susan A. M. Morgan, mother of Mrs. Capt. Samuel Franklin, of this city.
