 Plymouth has a Dramatic Club. They play "Among the Breakers" and "Little Rebel." Rats!
 Travel, on our public carriers, last week, was good. Our hotel registers shows up well.
 The Missionary exercises at the Baptist school last Sunday were interesting. The children did well.
 New enterprises will soon be started in Edenton. We printed letter heads and cards for a new firm last week.
 The Weldon Fair opened last week. Sorry we could not attend. Had to stay home and attend to our paper.
 Edenton people are anxious to see a passenger depot built at the N. S. Rail Road. A tool house is now being used.
 We enjoy visiting, occasionally, the clever officers on Str. Chowan. A better crew has never walked the decks of any ship.
 Scholars at our schools number well. The High School has 40 and the Graded School 63. Edenton has long needed good Schools.
 Mrs. Lucy Dowdy came home last night. Mrs. J. C. Finch left for Murreboro and G. F. Wright, Esq., for Petersburg.
 Quite a number of Edenton people propose to attend the Franklin Fair next week if the weather permits. The Fair opens on Tuesday next.
 Mrs. L. A. Williams, wife of Prof. Williams, principal of the Edenton Graded School, arrived in Edenton on Friday night last. Welcome!
 The columns of the FISHERMAN & FARMER are open to any suggestion that might be made for the building up of Edenton or the good of our people.
 It is said a negro boy while assorting a junk lot in a Raleigh junk store found a money belt with $316.55 in it. We wonder if it was at the store of H. J. Dowell.
 A large number of ladies, who have been cooped up for near two weeks on account of bad weather, were out in full force on Sunday, making the hearts of many glad.
 You can't be too careful with fire. No longer than Friday last a servant of Mr. W. O. Elliott's came very near having an accident with a kerosene oil can, at his residence, while kindling a fire.
 Messrs. A. L. White, J. K. Rea and Jno. S. Jones returned from Windsor, where they have been attending Court, Friday night last. They say Windsor is as lively as ever and "No. 1" is O. K.
 We were glad to see so much interest manifested in the Singing School at the Baptist church on Sunday last. With Prof. L. A. Williams and wife at its head success is sure to come. The music and singing were excellent at the last meeting.
 Read "Castle Engine" ad in this issue. It is the simplest piece of machinery in the world, having only eight moving attachments. Mr. W. V. Elliott, of our town, is Agent for the manufacture. Mr. Elliott is a master machinist and is prepared to do any kind of work in his line. Give him a trial.
 Trade with our merchants on Saturday was good. In fact it continues on the increase. This is the natural result that might be expected to follow from the fact that no market sells goods closer than Edenton. You can not only find goods of every class and variety here, but you can buy them at lower prices. It is greatly to your interest to come to Edenton whether you want to buy or sell. Our merchants all keep large stock.
 Read, in our columns, the advertisements of some of our business men.
 The good people of our town are in deep sympathy for their venerable friend, Dr. R. Dillard, Sr., who is again confined to his home on account of another and very recent attack. He was taken on Friday just after a ride which he is accustomed to take as often as the weather permits. Next to Ministers of the Gospel, the family physician occupies the strongest hold upon the affections of the people, and when they are sick the entire community is moved to sorrow and to regret. We hope to be able to record the Doctor's early recovery.

Services in all the churches on Sunday last. Rev. J. Wm. Lee preached both morning and evening in the Methodist church to large and appreciative congregations; his sermons were fine. In the morning we attended the service at St Paul's, where we listened, with interest, to an excellent discourse by Rev. R. B. Druce. At night it was our pleasure to hear Rev. C. P. Bogart, who filled the pulpit at the Baptist church—the regular pastor being indisposed. Dr. Bogart is a fine preacher and his sermon on Sunday night was strong and impressive. Edenton can boast of having good ministers.
