We do not sell

Gold Dollars

-FOR-

92 Cts.

And yet some people would believe such a thing possible. What we will do, however, is to give you full value for every dollar spent with us.

One Dollar spent at our store goes a long ways.

Read some of the prices and don't let them prejudice your mind, but come and see with your own two eyes and you will say, it pays to go down town to trade.

Examine our all wool flannel dress goods at 30 cents per yard.

All shades of double width Tricots, at 57¢ cts. We have marked down all of our 25¢ worsteds to 15 cents.
Double width flannel dress goods at 48¢

Just received 1000 yards of Hamburg Edgings—exquisite patterns, only 12¢ cts for any you may select. Finer than we ever sold.

Have you seen those lovely hats, straw and felt—New York style?

Examine our French kid button boot at $1.75. It beats the town.

Examine our Ladies' wool Vests at 50c and 98c—best quality.

Examine those Ladies' linen handkerchiefs 3 for 25c; a bargain.

Fine, regular made, Ladies' hose warranted fast black at 18c a pair. Best Balbriggan hose at 25c.

We have Ball's celebrated corset; the best in the world.

A new lot of decorated china and glass-ware on exhibition this week.

We would advise you to CALL EARLY.

THE LIVE,
LOW PRICE HOUSE OF EDENTON, N. C.

Entered at the Post Office at Edenton as Second-Class Matter.

Scales and Plants.

More rain this week. The leaves are falling fast. Mr. Whitfield is again with us. Stove pipe cheap at Bell's Tin Shop. Grapes, 10c a pound by F. C. Mitchell & Bro.

John S. Lee left for Rochester, N. Y., Tuesday last.

Latest—walking between Edenton and Hertford is good.

A marriage, we hear, will soon take place in Edenton.

Christmas is nearing. Toys will soon be on exhibition.

Monday night next the band will leave for Franklin, Va.

The Board of County Commissioners met Monday last.

J. W. Spruill, Esq., lost one of his fine colts (?) this week.

Chestnuts with no worms—Just received by F. C. Mitchell & Bro.

One case before the Justice this week. The parties were justly dealt with.

Don't forget to ask for a Milk Shake or a Milk Punch at the Bay View Bar.

Mrs. Page and children have returned from the Hills of Virginia looking well.

Miss M. E. Hollowell left Wednesday night last to attend school at Thomasville, N. C.

Just received a fine lot of Apples, Chestnuts and Grapes, cheap, at F. C. Mitchell & Bro.'s.

Mrs. W. M. Jewel, of Tunis, N. C., is visiting relatives in town—the family of Mr. W. V. Elliott.

The streets are in bad order. Especially the one leading to the Str. Chowan wharf. Let it be attended to.

The Murfreesboro Fair was in session this week. Regret we could not attend but circumstances would not permit.

Prof. (?) I. C. Palmer is again with us. He is looking well and reports things at Roper as being lively and on a boom.

A whistling buoy, painted black, is to be placed off the southwest point of Frying Pan Shoals, this State, about the 15th inst.

Fresh milk received daily from Dr. W. R. Capehart's fine stock farm. Milk Shakes and Milk Punches to be had at any hour in the day at the Bay View Bar.

Mr. Macon and wife and daughter of Warrenton, who have been visiting Mrs. H. A. Bond, Sr., for several weeks past, left for their home Wednesday night last.

Every business man in Edenton should be represented in the FISHMAN & FARMER. Give us your advertisement or card. Printer's ink pays anyone who uses it.

Oysters cheaper at Hayes' than any house in town.—Fried in cracker dust and butter for only 25c—best we ever ate.—Fresh milk and winter greens can be had daily at Hayes'.

Rev. R. A. Armstead left Tuesday morning for Richmond. He will not return to this charge next year, we are informed. Wheresoever he may be our best wishes will attend him.

By wire, we learn of another fire in E. City. On Wednesday, about midnight, the bakery and confectionary on Poindexter street, owned by H. C. Godfrey, was entirely consumed.

M. F. Bond, Esq., will soon move to his new residence. The new brick law office building, in front of Bay View, is rapidly going up. Rrof. L. A. Williams has rented the dwelling of Mrs. Agnes Warren.

We regret that we are compelled to apologize to several visitors this week for being out of our office when they called, but, owing to death in the family we suspended business two days. Call again, friends.

The John L. Roper Company, we hear, are circulating a petition to the United States Government asking aid to dredge Mackey's Creek. Let the work be done. Might as well spend it that way as any. The creek badly needs it.

The Albemarle & Pantego Rail Road commenced surveying Monday from Roper to Pantego and, we hear, will soon continue the work down to New Berne. A switch (or branch) is also being laid between Roper and Creswell.

The Edenton Cornet Band has a call to play at the Franklin Fair next week, which will open Tuesday and last four days. If the boys go we wish them success. The band is a good one and will doubtless satisfy the Franklin people in every way.

The Editor of the Philadelphia Times passed through Edenton last week and left on the sloop Madge for Nag's Head and other points in Dare. We hear his business South is to write up all of the historical points. He will return to Edenton next week.

The largest freshet for many years on the Tar. The Clyde and O. D. warehouses of Tarboro have floated down to Sparta. The R. R. bridge is considered unsafe for trains, and other bridges are impassable. The whole country seems to be inundated.—Washington Gazette.

Our business men we hope will not forget that Thanksgiving Day comes on the 24th inst. Close your places of business and go to church. The services at the different churches promise to be fine. Let our Mayor issue orders to have the day kept as the President and Governor desires it.

Miss Addie Johnston, of Lee's Mills, N. C., and Mr. S. L. Christie of Norfolk, Va., were married at Lee's Mills Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock. They passed through Edenton Wednesday on their way North. The waiters accompanied them as far as Edenton and returned the same day.

The somewhat chesnutty adage: Beauty is but skin deep while ugly is to the bone, is perfectly felt now by the Jersey Lily, Langtry whose star is trailing in the dust kicked up by Mrs. Potter. How hard for the ancient beauty to be eclipsed by a Potter! Too bad, too bad.—Southerner.

SCHOOL NOTICE.

EDENTON N. C., July 28, 1887.
To the Public:—We are glad to announce that Mr. F. P. Hall, a graduate of Davidson College, N. C., and a teacher of successful experience, will on the 1st Monday in October next, open a School in Edenton for boys and girls. The terms will be reasonable and will be published later.

Mr. Hall brings with him the very highest endorsements, as a gentleman and a teacher. He is employed by a number of citizens, who feel the need of increased educational advantages in Edenton and whose ONLY purpose is to promote that object. No means will be spared to make the school a success. We have been appointed to make the announcement and to ask the patronage and good will of our people for the School.
W. D. Pruden, T. B. Bland, Jno. C. Bond, J. R. B. Hathaway, Edward Wood, Committee.

THE EDENTON GRADED SCHOOL.
Fall Term Ending Dec. 3, 1887.

PROF. L. A. WILLIAMS, Principal.
MRS. R. F. CHESHIRE, (Assistant)
MISS M. A. THOMPSON, Teachers.

RATES:	ANNUAL:	QUARTERLY:
First Grade, -	$10.00, -	$3.00.
Second " -	$16.00, -	$4.50.
Third " -	$20.00, -	$6.00.
Fourth " -	$30.00, -	$8.00.

Charges are made from date of entrance. Proper deductions for protracted illness. The next term of this School will begin December 5th, 1887.
A special feature of the law incorporating our school is that every resident patron is credited with the Public funds apportioned to his children under the school law of the State.
Resident children who are dependent upon the Public School funds for education are received into the School at any time without charge.
This school and system offers the best educational advantages attainable in Edenton. By dividing pupils of several grades of advancement, among teachers employed for each grade, better and more efficient instruction is obtained at less cost than can be had otherwise.
Pupils from other districts are invited to enter the School at above rates of instruction, and they can obtain good board at moderate prices.
By order of the board of Trustees of the Edenton Graded School, Oct., 1887.
B. F. ELLIOTT, President.

AT LAST

O. Newman is ahead of all competitors.

That I have taken the lead, is proven by my increased business, which continues to increase daily and by visiting my store you will find that Low Prices do it. I am determined to sell goods regardless of their value.

Great Slaughter in Clothing, Dry Goods, Hats, Shoes, Notions, Etc.

My stock is the largest ever brought to Edenton, and will be sold at prices that will show my competitors that I accept any challenge as to championship, in Low Prices. I do not style myself Public Benefactor, but claim to treat everybody with justice.

Low Prices Must Rule!

Call to see my handsome line of dress goods also Ladies wraps, walking jackets, new markets, circulars and jersey jackets in every style and make. I still carry a full line of fine city made shoes, for men's, ladies and children wear.

My Clothing Department is complete in most any kind or style you may desire in men's, youth's and boy's suits.

Anything you are in need of in my line of goods, you are sure to find it here. All I have to say is

GIVE ME A CALL

And see that I mean strict business, and no humbug. Respectfully,
O. NEWMAN,
