On motion, the proceedings be sent to the Enquirer and FISHERMAN & FARMER for publication.

Adjourned in order.

W. B. FELTON, Sect'y.

J. M. FOREHAND, Pres.

YOU THINK, DON'T YOU?

When you want newspaper favors you strike for your "home paper," don't you? If you want your town boomed and your property increased in value, you expect your home paper to go in for it "teeth and toe nail," don't you? Yet you kick like a steer when the editor does anything that would not be noticed in anybody else and you object to his paper because it hasn't as much reading matter in it as a "city paper," don't you? Still, on the whole, dear reader, you think your home paper a mighty good thing for the town, and yet by your actions you preclude the home paper from thinking the town is a good thing for it by not giving it sufficient patronage, don't you? You would not expect the home paper only circulating in hundreds to give you as much reading matter as a city paper circulating thousands, would you? You would not expect the price of the former to be as low as as the latter to give you the local dots and the thousand and one little newsy things and nothings that you get in the former, would you? Do you think that a newspaper publisher can live on wind? And do you think that he can forever digest the consoling fact that his paper is "a good thing for the town," when he receives nothing in return? He can't do it, can he?—Ex.

BOOKS, THREE CENTS EACH!

The following books are published in neat pamphlet form, printed from good readable type on good paper, and many of them handsomely illustrated. They are without exception the cheapest books ever published in any land or language, and furnish to the masses of the people an opportunity to secure the best literature of the day at the most trifling expense. In any other series these great works would cost many times the price at which they are here offered. Each one is complete in itself.

- Wonders of the World, NATURAL AND OTHER. Contains descriptions and illustrations of the most wonderful works of nature and of man. Very interesting and instructive.
- Wonders of the Sea. A description of the many wonderful and beautiful things found at the bottom of the ocean, with picture illustrations.
- "A Pleasure Excursion," and Other Sketches. By "JOSHUA ALLEN'S WIFE." A collection of irresistibly funny sketches by the most popular humorous writer of the day.
- The Aunt Keelah Papers, by CLARA AUGUSTA, author of "The Buggy Documents." A most ridiculously funny book—in every way equal to "Widow Bedott."
- Christmas Stories, by CHARLES DICKENS. Contains a number of the most charming Christmas stories ever written by the greatest writer who ever lived. Machine reprinted.
- Round the Evening Lamp. A book of stories, pictures, puzzles and games, for the little folks at home.
- Popular Recitations and Dialogues, humorous, dramatic and pathetic, including all the latest, best and most popular.
- The Self-made Men of Modern Times. Contains portraits and biographies of famous self-made Americans, from the time of Franklin to the present.
- Familiar Quotations. Containing the origin and authorship of many phrases frequently met in reading and conversation. A valuable work of reference.
- Low Life in New York. A series of vivid pen pictures showing the dark side of life in the great city. Illustrated.
- The Road to Wealth. Not an advertising circular, but a thoroughly practical work, pointing out a way by which all may make money, easily, rapidly and honestly.
- One Hundred Popular Songs, sentimental, pathetic and comic, including most of the favorites, new and old.
- Mr. Noel's Heir. A Novel, by Mrs. MAY ANNE PLUMING.
- A Bartered Life. A Novel, by MARION HARLAND.
