Fishermen, read the card of the Gloucester Net & Twine Co., a firm well known to this Section. Mr. Wm. Stowe, president of this Company, has sold nets to Albemarle Sound 46 years, and is well acquainted with the wants of the fishermen.

The Elizabeth City Fair will be held October 16th, 17th, and 18th. We have the premium list before us, which is nicely gotten up and well printed. The Fair promises to be one of the best ever held at E. City and we hope all who can attend will so do.

The following families, who have been spending the heated term at Nag's Head—a delightful resort—have returned: The families of Messrs. J. A. Woodard, M. F. Bond, W. J. Leary, Jr., T. B. Bland, C. W. Rea, W. H. Butt, W. D. Rea, Edward Wood and Mrs. Pattie Gilbert.

Good for you, friend Gregory. Through the Enquirer we learn he has purchased the store, corner King and Main streets, now occupied by A. T. Bush, Esq., and will soon occupy it as a wholesale and retail liquor establishment. Mr. Gregory is a go-ahead young man, and is destined to share the sweets of business fortune if he continues as now, "in the middle of the road."

The Edenton High School, Prof. F. P. Hall, principal, will begin its next term Oct. 1st. This school gave perfect satisfaction to its patrons last year and won for itself a reputation. Those wishing to enter their children had better apply to Mr. J. R. B. Hathaway at once, as it will be limited this year to 36.

The Edenton Graded School, Prof. L. A. Williams, principal assisted by an excellent corps of teachers, opened its Fall term Monday last with 46 scholars. At this writing some 55 have entered—a great many from a distance. This is very encouraging, and we wish for it the support of every parent in this county.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Dora D. Shaw, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of our former townsman, Mr. N. L. Shaw, to Rev. L. R. Pruett, to take place at Harrellsville, N. C., Monday, Oct. 1st. Miss Dara was in our city this week having her wedding outfit made up. The FISH-ERMAN AND FARMER wishes for them a long, and uninterrupted life.

Look-out for the grand display of new Fall goods at the Bee Hive, Mr. R. J. Mitchell, who has been North making extensive purchases, has returned. He says he has bought the largest and best stock of fall and winter goods ever brought to Edenton. Goods are being received and opened daily. Look-out for his big advertisement in our next issue. He has the largest and finest line of ladies goods ever on sale.

The State Fair will begin October 16th and last four days. The list of entries will be fuller than ever. There will be the largest show of fine horses ever made in the State. The finest herds of cattle ever on exhibition will be there. There will be more pens of fine hogs of more breeds than ever before. The poultry will be sight in itself. It will surprise professional breeders. This has been a good fruit year and the exhibits will be in keeping with it. The crop displays will equal anything ever seen. The races will be standard. The Great Indian Ball Game will be played by a band of Cherokees music. Distinguished Speakers, Meetings of Farmers, merry time and fun for all. Rail Road fare only one cent a mile. The FISH-ERMAN AND FARMER extends thanks for a complimentary ticket.

Tell everybody that G. H. Brown, Jr., and G. A. Sparrow will speak in Edenton, Oct. 1st.

CURES OR NO PAY-

We absolutely guarantee one package of CELORE to cure any case of MALARIA, CHILLS and FEVER, Intermittent, Remittent and Bilious Fevers in ten days or MONEY REFUNDED. PRICE $2.00.

GATESVILLE, N. C., July 31, '88.

THE CELORE CO. Gentlemen:—I have been having chills for about three (3) years, and have tried several remedies but to no avail. About three months ago, I was prevailed upon to try Celore. I used one Package of that never failing remedy for chills and to-day I feel no symptoms of their return. Yours Resp.—WILLIS HOFER.

WHITE MAPSH, MD., August 1, '88.

THE CELORE CO. Sirs:—I have had rather a hard time to introduce Celore, as the people here thought that nothing would stop the chills but quinine. But since they have tried Celore they say it not only stops the chill but makes a complete cure. It is well started now, however, and as I am out of goods, please ship immediately. Yours Truly, J. L. ROBINSON.

Enclose a 2 cent stamp to these parties and they will vouch for the above letters
