THE BUSINESS MAN'S ALPHABET.

Attend carefully to the details of your business. Be prompt in all things. Consider well, then decide positively. Dare to do right. Fear to do wrong. Endure trials patiently. Fight life's battles bravely, manfully. Go not in the society of the vicious. Hold integrity sacred. Injure not another's reputation or business. Join hands only with the virtuous. Keep your mind from evil thoughts. Lie not for any consideration. Make few acquaintances. Never try to appear what you are not. Observe good manners. Pay your debts promptly. Question not the veracity of a friend. Respect the counsel of your parents. Sacrifice money rather than principle. Touch not, taste not, handle not intoxicating drinks. Use your leisure time for improvement. Venture not upon the threshold of wrong. Watch carefully over your passions. Extend to every one a kindly salutation. Yield not to discouragements. Zealously labor for the right; & success is certain.

CENTENNIAL REUNION

OF THE ALUMNI AND MATRICULATES OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

One hundred years ago the charter of the University was granted by the General Assembly of North Carolina. The long, useful and honorable career of the University makes it a loyal duty and a proud privilege for her sons to celebrate the Centennial Anniversary of her birth. For this Celebration the Trustees and Faculty of the institution have set apart Wednesday of Commencement week, June 5th, 1889.

The program for the day will include a reunion of all the living alumni and matriculates in Memorial Hall, at 10:00 A. M. The members of each class will sit together. An address of permanent historical value will be delivered by an eminent alumnus, at the conclusion of which the roll of alumni will be called by classes and a few moments may be occupied by speakers representing each class present. Where it is desired for special reasons a longer time will be allotted. The class of 1879, for example, the first to enter the University on its revival in 1875 has requested and been granted special time to celebrate the decennial of its graduation.

It is proposed also that the members of each class dine together on this day and that the class dinners be occasions for friendly reunion and reminiscence. At night another address by an eminent alumnus will be delivered, and the special class exercises will be continued, unless completed in the morning.

On Thursday night, after the Commencement exercises, there will be a social reunion of all the alumni in the Library and a reunion of the young people in the Gymnasium in costumes of the last century.

A catalogue of all the students of the University since the beginning and a complete history of the University will be published for the celebration. It is important to know, as soon as possible, who will attend the reunion, which classes desire special time on the program and which will provide for class dinners. In arranging for class dinners the undersigned committee will gladly assist the special class committees, if their help be desired. The social reunion of all the alumni in the Library will be arranged by the local committee. Special time on the program may be secured by correspondence between the class committees and the undersigned.

LETTER FROM SCHOOL DISTRICT, NO. 9.

MR. EDITOR:—By invitation, we were present at the closing exercises of Gallberry School, 9th District. Having but a short distance to go before reaching the school building we were there in time to see the crowd assemble. At least four hundred and fifty persons, intent upon pleasure, as well as profit, doubtless, were present.

Messrs. Parker, Holloman and Byrum favored us with music the harmonies of which delightfully blended with the exercises and made the program lively and inspiring.

At the sound of a favorite march, the school, in procession, headed by Misses Hollowell and Eason, marched on the rostrum. When each pupil had taken his seat as assigned, these gentlemen lead the school in singing.

Through request Mr. R. Bunch took charge as Master of Ceremonies and performed his duties most admirably and, perhaps, as but few could under the circumstances.

The programme, which is before us, was well selected and, but for its length, would be made a part of this letter. Too much cannot be said in behalf of the participants, all of whom acquitted themselves with surprising excellence almost worthy a perfect familiarity with the stage.

Much and lasting credit should be given to Miss Mary D. Jones who has successfully, for three years, taught the school making it a credit to Choan county which no man fails to recognize.

We hoped to see our worthy County Superintendent present, knowing that he had been specially invited, but, learned to our regret, that ill health prevented his accepting. Hope his health will improve and his life be prolonged.

I am with Respect, JONQUILLE.

EPOCH.

The transition from long, lingering and painful sickness to robust health marks an epoch in the life of the individual. Such a remarkable event is treasured in the memory and the agency whereby the good health has been attained is gratefully blessed. Hence it is that so much is heard in praise of Electric Bitters. So many feel they owe their restoration to health to the use of the Great Alterative and Tonic. If you are troubled with any disease of Kidneys, Liver or Stomach, of long or short standing you will surely find relief by use of Electric Bitters. Sold at 50c and $1 per bottle at Dr. W. J. Leary's Drugstore.

You may hive the stars in a nail keg, hang the ocean on a rail fence to dry, put the sky to soak in a gourd and unbuckle the bellyband of eternity and let the sun and moon out, but don't think you can escape the place that lies on the other side of purgatory if you don't pay for your paper.—Georgia Enterprise.

LITTLE RUNAWAYS.

[Durham Plant.]

About ten days ago, two little boys, aged 11 and 13 years, ran away from the Thomasville Orphanage and walked to East Durham, where they stopped at the home of Mr. J. L. Bridgers and asked permission to stay there until they could hear from their mother. Mrs. Lassiter, who lives in Bertie county and who would send them money to pay their fare home. The names of the boys are Lewter and Owen Rea. Mr. Bridgers very kindly assented to their request and took care of the boys until the money was sent to them from home, through Rev. G. P. Bostick. It seems that it was home sickness that induced the boys to leave the Orphanage. Mr. Bridgers has received from the anxious mother of the little fellows a most grateful letter, which, he says, amply repays him for everything he did for the boys. The mother, however, offered to reimburse him for any expense he had incurred. Mr. Bridgers' gratification at having ministered unto these little strangers exemplifies the Christian doctrine that it is more blessed to give than to receive.

BILL SIGNED.

[News and Observer.]

The President has signed the bill providing for the admission into the Union of the territories of North and South Dakota, Washington and Montana, so that four new stars are to be added to our galaxy of States. New Mexico was excluded from the provisions of the bill because it would probably be democratic. The republican Senate would never have passed the bill with New Mexico included. So much for the broad statesmanship of the majority of that body. It is expected that all the four new States will be republican, but it is probable that one at least of them will be of the opposite way of thinking. They will take their places in time to be duly represented at the session of Congress that meets in December.

HIS BUSINESS BOOMING.

Probably no one thing has caused such a general revival of trade at Dr. W. J. Leary's Drugstore as his giving away to his customers of so many free trial bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. His trade is simply enormous in this very valuable article from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints. Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, and all throat and lung diseases quickly cured. You can test it before buying by getting a trial bottle free, large size, $1.00. Every bottle warranted.
