OUR ZEP.

THE NEW YORK WORLD CORRESPONDENT HAS A PLEASANT WORD TO SAY OF SENATOR VANCE.

Senator Vance, of North Carolina, has been under the weather and has been cautioned by his physician to be extremely prudent. He is troubled with facial paralysis and with sinking spells that make breathing difficult. He has been similarly affected before. While he was Governor of North Carolina a few years ago his life for a time was despaired of.

There is probably no member of the Senate whose absence from the Chamber is more readily noted by his associates. Mr. Vance is a wit, a philosopher, an inimitable story teller and the jolliest of companions. He is the one member of that solemn and impressive body who refuses to succumb to the heavy atmosphere of his station. He insists, though a Senator, on taking life naturally and pleasantly and his running and racy comments on the debates are about the richest things heard in the Senate. Mr. Vance does not speak often, but he always commands attention. Neither does he attempt to lay down the law when he does take the floor. His speeches illustrate the unconventional type of the man, being full of homely phrases in vogue in rural communities and of apt and breezy references to every day affairs. The Senator enjoys a neatly turned parody and has more than once shocked the Senate but delighted his friends by quoting a bit of doggerel.

Mr. Vance is sixty-two but he is heavy, and like the majority of large men, he neglects to take sufficient exercise, and the results is some serious disorder of the system. His trip to Europe last year did not permanently benefit him.

DONT TAKE OUR WORD,

But call your druggist to one side and ask him privately which of all the remedies advertised to cure Rheumatism he would recommend. If he is posted, and conscientious, he will tell you that Dr. Drummond's Lightning Remedy is the only one that offers a reward of $500 for a case it will not cure, and for ordinary cases the money is returned when one bottle does not cure. With sensible people this is the strongest recommendation. Price $5 per bottle. Sent to any address prepaid on receipt of price. Drummond Medicine Co., 48 to 50 Maiden Lane, New York.

The only way to get a hen out of the garden is to go slow but shoo'er.

O MOON, DON'T TELL.

O moon, did you see
My lover and me
In the valley beneath the sycamore tree?
Whatever befell,
O moon! don't tell,
'Twas nothing amiss, know very well.

O moon! you know,
Long years ago,
You left the sky and descended below.
Of a summer night,
By your own sweet light
You met your Endymion on Patmos height.

And then, O moon!
You gave him a boon
You wouldn't, I'm sure, have granted at noon.
'Twas nothing amiss,
Being only the bliss
Of giving—and taking—an innocent kiss

Some churlish lout
Who was spying about
Went off and babbled, and so it got out,
But for all the gold
The sea would hold,
O moon! I wouldn't have gone and told.

So, moon, don't tell
Whatever befell
My lover and me in the leafy dell.
He is honest and true,
And remember, too
We only behaved like your lover and you.

KANSAS DELUGED.

Kansas is again deluged for the third time in ten days, and the last is the worst of all.

On Thursday (May 12th) the rain was descending in torrents and the flood was at its greatest height. One-third of the capital city of Topeka is under water and the low suburbs are submerged and made unfit for habitation, and the police and fire departments of the city are busy in aiding the unfortunate residents. The Kansas river which flows through the city is at the top of its banks and there is a prospect of a disastrous overflow.—Ex.

THE MISSISSIPPI FLOOD.

GREENVILLE, Miss, May 16.—The crevasse near Gaines' Landing, on the Arkansas side of the river is 650 feet wide and the water is flowing through at a depth of about fifteen feet. No attempt will be made to raise a crop of cotton in the flooded territory. So far the efforts to tie the end of the break have proven futile.

AND THEN FORGET IT FOREVER.

When a friend is in trouble, don't annoy him by asking him if there is anything you can do; think up something appropriate, and do it.—Atchison Globe.

Men and women prematurely gray and whose hair was falling, are enthusiastic in praising Hall's Hair Renewer for restoring the color and preventing baldness.

The Southern Baptist Convention, lately in session at Atlanta, adjourned on the 10th inst. The next meeting will be held at Nashville, Tenn., on Friday before the second Sunday in May 1893.

LATE NEWS.

DASHED OUT TO FISHERMAN AND FARMER READERS IN SMALL BITES.

The eighth annual meeting of the North Carolina Dental Society will be held at Winston, May 24, 25th and 26th.

The Pittsboro Record hears that a white girl only twelve years old was married in Chatham county a few days ago. The law of North Carolina expressly declares that the marriage of a female under fourteen years of age is void.—Ex.

Col. Julien S. Carr was interviewed last Saturday at Durham and said that while he was not a candidate for the nomination for Governor, yet he thought no man should decline the nomination of his party to so high a position.

The Richmond State reports the delegates chosen in Virginia to stand: For Cleveland, 627; for Hill, 311; unknown, 271. So Cleveland has a clear majority. Richmond is to be added as follows: Cleveland 64 and Hill 34. Norfolk, 31 for Hill and 4 anti-Cleveland. This will give Cleveland 691—Hill 376.

Winston is a North Carolina town to be proud of and it is still pressing on in many lines of development. It has twenty-five churches, 4,500 members enrolled, with 4,500 Sunday-school scholars. There are fifteen white churches with over 3,000 members, and 3,500 teachers and scholars in the Sunday-schools. Value of church property $150,000.

The last of the newspapers published in the interest of the Grange in North Carolina has ceased to exist. It was the Roanoke Patron, published at Potocasi, Northampton county. This bit of news carries the mind back, say to 1883, when the Grange was flourishing and powerful all over North Carolina. The last volley fired by the Patron was at the Third party and its ideas and plans.

While coming down the river on Thursday morning of last week the steamer Plymouth was met by the steamer Hamilton. It was very dark, and the men at the wheels did not see each other until too late, and with a fearful crash they collided. No serious damage was done, however, but the bow of the Plymouth was smashed so badly it was necessary to take her from the route a few days for repairs.—Roanoke Beacon.

The Wilson Advance says: Col. Elias Carr, of Edgecombe, writes a letter refusing to allow his name to go before the State Convention for the gubernatorial nomination. There's no mistaking the tenor of his letter. The Tarboro Southerner still urges him as the strongest and most available man, but the Southerner is not in it.

At the University Commencement, from May 29, to June 1, '92, the usive the following is the Programme: Sunday May 29th Baccalaureate Sermon by Rev. J. W. Carter, D. D. Monday Annual meeting of the Dialectic and Philanthropic Societies. Tuesday, May 31st. Meeting of the trustees; Alumni Association; Address by Chas. D. McIver; Oration by Hon. A. M. Waddell, on Life and Character of W. L. Saunders; Oration by Di. and Phi. Representatives; University Reception. Wednesday June 1st. Trustees Meeting; Graduating Class Orations; Addresses by Hon. J. G. Carhale. Reports; Degrees; Sports; Glee Club Concert.

A CURE FOR TWENTY CENTS.

Any remedy sold at one dollar a bottle which claims to cure Rheumatism, is simply an imposition, for when all expenses are deducted it leaves not more than twenty cents to represent the medicine. Dr. Drummond's Lightning Remedy which is performing such wonderful cures that it is being prescribed by the medical faculty everywhere, is compounded at great expense from rare drugs, and cannot be sold for less than five dollars a bottle. But it always cures. Sent prepaid to any address on receipt of price. Drummond Medicine Co., 48 50 Maiden Lane, New York.

There will be a building at the World's fair where a woman can leave her baby and get a check for it while she sees the show.
