ADVERTISE. The editor of the Augusta (Ga.) Evening News sings a nice little song that is good for these dull days: "Advertise! Advertise! Art, in asking him who buys— There the merchant's secret lies. Advertise. "Advertise! Advertise! He succeeds is he who tries: Who is asked is he who buys. Advertise. "Advertise! Advertise! He is heard is he who cries, Waiting never won a prize. Advertise."

WANTS TO COME SOUTH. ASHTABULA HARBOR, O., Feb. 8, '93 Post Master, Edenton, N. C.: My DEAR SIR:—I am very tired of cold, long winters, and want to come South. Do you know of any one who has a farm or old plantation for sale reasonable? I want something desirable for peasant home and must have pleasant front on Sound—healthy location. Will you ask Editor to send me sample of paper? I can't arrange business before next fall to come, but hope not to winter here another winter.

Yours respectfully, M. L. Rice. [We send you the paper to-day. This is the place you are looking for. We have any amount of real estate here for sale at fair prices. There is several farms fronting Albemarle Sound that would suit you, and that could probably be purchased at a very reasonable price. Come down and see for yourself. I am satisfied you could be easily suited. Our climate favors work the entire year. Freight rates are very low. We are living in a section healthy as any in North Carolina. No overflow or storm tides to destroy business, property or life here. Come, our people are kind, congenial, and easy to get acquainted with, and, with extended hand, they are ready to welcome everybody, especially men of capital.—EDITOR F. & F.]

A BIG FAILURE. The town of Mocksville, in Davie county, has been in a state of excitement for several days over the failure of the Farmers Alliance store. A number of the best men belonging to the Alliance started the store some time ago. They refused to consult lawyers on the organization, but found it necessary to get legal advice when the business was closed up last Saturday. The stockholders, who are responsible for all the debts, say they will lose 75 cents on every dollar invested, but are glad to get out at that. Bring job printing to this office.

The Legislature of Maine wants to have the remains of Mr. Blaine removed from Washington and interred in that State. While attempting to board a schooner in the harbor at Beaufort, N. C. last Friday Wilson Sawyer, of Perquimans county, was drowned.

There are now over a million pensioners drawing money from this country. Is it any wonder that the people are robbed and groined with the robbery? A rich New Yorker was so anxious to get away from Saratoga the other day that he couldn't wait for the train which was a couple hour behind time and committed suicide.

Memphis is getting wild over the discovery of natural gas in an island in the Mississippi, near the city. A twenty foot flame is now burning from a pipe driven down a short while ago. In 1835, both January and February the weather was terribly cold in both North and South. I was the coldest weather known since 1779-80. Roanoke river was frozen over and six-horse wagons loaded crossed over the ferries in Warren county.

How many cotton pickers have been invented and tried and failed we do not know. The latest invented is one that promises to pick from 6,000 to 7,000 pounds daily. If true, good bye Sambo. It would do the work of thirty or forty human pickers.—Ex. FUNERAL OF MRS. WHITNEY. New York Feb. 7.—Mrs. W. C. Whitney's funeral at St. Bartholomew's church to-day was largely attended. Many prominent people and several politicians were present. The services were very impressive and the music elaborate. President-elect Cleveland was among the pallbearers.

GOT UP AND WALKED. AFTER BEING DEPRIVED OF THE USE OF LIMBS FOR YEARS.

A dispatch from Columbia S. C. says: What appears to be a case of faith cure was revealed here to day. For eighteen years Mrs. Ann Eliza Tutt has been a helpless paralytic. During this time she was attended by three of the leading local physicians, who pronounced her case incurable, and the advice of prominent specialists in various parts of the United States has been taken without any effect. Mrs. Tutt is the wife of a printer and is forty one years of age. She was paralyzed in October of 1875.

After the doctors announced that they could do nothing for her a mesmerist was brought in to try his skill but she said she had no faith in that and the idea was not put into effect. She was then told that she could never walk again. This did not depress her spirits. Mrs. Tutt says that she realized that "we walk by faith, not by sight," and she set her trust in the Almighty and prayed continually to the end that she might be spared for some wise purpose. She was one in whose faith had become a passionate intuition. Mrs. Tutt said that a well known mesmerist called on a day and told her that Christ could heal her right then and that she must get right up and walk at once.

"I have got to lie here and do nothing," said she, "and I am tired of it when his time comes he will either put me on my feet or take me to heaven. I can bring my friends to witness that I always felt that I was to be made whole again for some time. The bible has been my greatest comforter, and but for it I would have given up. In all my distress I tried to remember what the Psalmist said: "Let not your heart be troubled, we trust believe in God; believe also in my father."

"Monday night before last," said Mrs. Tutt, "I had a dream, I thought I was walking. Tuesday morning I was sitting before the fire in my rocking chair meditating and I thought I heard the good shepherd say to me: Arise, take your chair and walk. There was a chair close by me and I got up, caught hold of it and began to walk. By pushing the chair in front of me and steadying myself I managed to walk into the next room, since then I have suffered no pain, not even in my back. I walked about the house a title that day, and I have been getting stronger and stronger."

A reporter who interviewed Mrs. Tutt to day saw her get up out of her chair and walk from the front steps to the front door. She was slow and somewhat awkward, like one who was just learning to walk. She said that her faith was getting stronger and that when she got full control of her limbs, which she knew would come, she resolved to go out and work more faithfully.

IMPORTANT TO LADIES. Sir—I made use of your PHILOTOKEN with my last child, in order to procure a safe and easy travail. I used it about two months before my expected time, until I was taken sick, and I had a very quick and easy confinement. Nothing occurred to protract my convalescence, and I got about in less time than was usual for me. I think it a medicine that should be used by every expectant mother, for should they but try it as I have, they would never be without it at such times. I am yours respectfully, Mrs. ELIZABETH DIX. Any merchant or druggist can procure RISLEY'S PHILOTOKEN for $1 a bottle. CHARLES F. RISLEY, Wholesale Druggist, 62 Cordlandt St., New York.
