EDENTON, June 30th, 1893.

There are in the present Congress twenty seven citizens of foreign birth. Ireland leads with eight.

That Nebraska farmer who has 100 acres sown in mustard can make it hot for the people who fool with him.

Gov. Altgeld has pardoned the Chicago Haymarket tragedy anarchists Fielden, Schwab and Nesbe. No previous intimation was given of his intended action.

A farmer who has a quarter section of land should set five or ten acres of orchard trees. They will get him out of debt if he is in and help him to keep out, if he is out.

The negro residents of James City, near Newbern, issued an address to the people of the State asking for aid in buying lands on which to locate a new town, as they propose to remove in a body from James City, the land in which Mr. Bryan, the owner, refuses to sell.

The first news of the appearance of the cotton louse came to the Department of Agricultural from Northampton county. The Commissioner says that dry hot weather will kill out these pests, which are a new infestation in North Carolina.

Gov. Stone, of Missouri, who was on a train which was recently robbed by one lone man, with a toy pistol, must have been badly rattled when he saw seven big robbers in that one man. The Missouri editors (who were not on the train) are having a rattling time poking fun at him.

In the Midway plaisance at the fair it is not uncommon to see a Dahomey man sitting in front of a hut engaged in needlework, while his wife or other female member of the family sits by smoking a cigar. It is question whether there is much further need for missionary effort in Dahomey.

It is believed that the worst of the money stringency is over and with the exception of here and there a stray failure resulting from over speculation, booming or kindred sport, the commercial community is in a fair way of holding its perpendicular. Still there is vital need of sound legislation.

Go away from home. Be off for the woods, the mountains, the shore, or seek some secluded spot where no fiends torment, nor misers thirst for gold, where no collector of bills can find you, where entirely freed from all work and care, you have nothing to do but sleep, fish, play, read, enjoy your friends, and do as you please, so you please to do right.

It is said, that savings banks in New York City are carrying at least $10,000 of idle money, which they have withdrawn from the national banks in order to protect themselves against sudden and senseless panic among their depositors. The withdrawal of this money from active use is one of the causes of the present stringency.

The Editor of the FISHMAN & FARMER has been very sick this week.

Here is something new under the sun. Congress appropriated $350,000 to defray the expenses of the recent Naval Review. Yet while there were no cheese paring, the total expenditure footed up $76,800. But this may be accounted for by the fact that a Democratic administration had the management and the handling of the cash.—Ex.

Thousands of young men are drawn into society whose salaries and incomes are very far under $10,000, and if they keep up with the procession somebody must foot the bill. It is to be feared that in many instances the wrong parties foot the bill. Employers find to their surprise that they have unconsciously furnished the funds needed by the society young men in their establishments. Banks are victimized in the same way. People who have trusted their money to others suffer in order that some young man may spend $3,500 a year for clothes.—Ex.

THE MUSICAL.

The Musicales given Tuesday night by Miss Moore's Music School, at Rea's Opera House, we are told, was very good. The singing and instrumental music were all of a high grade, furnishing a treat to the audience while it advertised to the public the fact of the teachers ability and the scholars' attainments. The audience was large and appreciative. We regret very much not being present.

DIED.

Mrs. Mary Byrum daughter of W. L. Nixon, and wife of R. H. Byrum died at her home in this county. She was a consistent member of Evans M. E. Church, a zealous worker and devoted christian. Therefore we feel that earth has lost one of its brightest jewels. G. W. W.
