A GOOD PICTURE.

Photographer Barnes has presented this office with a nice cabinet photograph of St. Paul's church, for which we return our thanks. Barnes takes a good picture.

SOME FUN AHEAD.

"Two Old Cronies," is the title of a play that will soon be presented by the young men of the Band, assisted by several of Edenton's young ladies, under the instruction of Mr. Lawrence Wilson of New York.

AN ENJOYABLE CONCERT.

The entertainment given at the Opera House last Monday night by the Torbett Concert company, was highly enjoyable. The renditions by the pretty Miss Ollie Torbett on the violin were superb. The audience was large.

FOUND DEAD.

Mr. Thomas Bass, a farmer and lumberman in Yeopim town, Va., was found dead Monday morning at his home in bed. He retired Sunday night in apparently good health. It is thought heart failure caused his death.

William Spewill, a farmer living near town, on going to his stables to feed his team on Tuesday morning last, found two of his horses dead.

SENT TO JAIL.

Jack Hoskins, the negro policeman, was sent to jail Monday by Mayor Rogerson for being drunk and disorderly and for smashing the glass door at the store of Mr. E. J. Bond.

THE I. O. O. F. ORPHANAGE.

There are twenty-seven orphans at the Odd Fellows' Orphanage at Goldsboro. The Superintendent, Dr. Whitfield, has resigned, and his successor will be elected March 1.

BITTEN BY A DOG.

Mrs. Ida T. Burton received quite a severe and painful bite by a dog on Friday last. It seems that she was out paying calls, and while at the home of Mrs. Tillery on Queen street she was admiring the large dog that was lying on the door-mat, and on reaching out her hand to pet him the dog knabbed her. The wound is painful but not serious.

SOME FUNNY ADVERTISEMENTS.

Below will be found some of the oddities of advertising: "Two young women want washing." "Teeth extracted with great pains." "Babies taken and furnished in ten minutes by a country photographer." "Wood and coal split."

ALL FREE.

Those who have used Dr. King's New Discovery know its value, and those who have not, have now the opportunity to try it free. Call on the advertised Druggist and get a Trial Bottle Free. You need not be hoodwinked by any one telling you that they can beat the FISHERMAN & FARMER office in price of Job Printing or good work. We defy any house in quality of work and price.

There are three more births than deaths a minute, and this slight percentage increases the world's population 1,900,000 annually.

Miss Gardner is in the city the guest of Miss Gertrude Shepard. Don't beat your newspaper and then spend the money for bad whiskey.

The weather no sooner begins to suit people than a change comes. Attend to your own business and have less to do with that of your neighbor.

Subscribe for the FISHERMAN AND FARMER and don't trouble your neighbor. Groceries bought for cash and sold for cash makes groceries low down at Bonner's.

Mr. John Baumgardner, accompanied by his wife, is in the city visiting his brothers. Mr. G. C. Haste is representing the Southern Oil and Supply Co., Baltimore, Md.

Patronize your local paper, and get the news that will interest your family and induce your children to read. The attendance at the churches last Sunday morning was very good, but at night the rain kept many at home.

Errors in newspapers, like "little unpleasantnesses" in the "best regulated families," will occur occasionally. There will be a musical entertainment at the Academy to-night by the pupils of Miss Deepkin's music class.

Snow visited our town Sunday night, and the early risers on Monday morning were surprised when they saw the hoar-frosts. The new year is slipping off rapidly. January is gone, February is here, and in less than a week St. Valentine's day will be at hand.

Mr. J. H. Hooton, of Roper, has rented the Wrighton residence on Broad street for the purpose of opening a boarding house. Why do girls kiss each other and men do not? asked a young miss. "Why, because girls have nothing better to kiss and men have."

There were several social events at Raleigh Tuesday, among them was a tea by the Misses McVea to Mrs. Hal G. Wood of this city. Some of those who owe us for the paper, and who have promised to pay, have very bad memories. In fact, some have deliberately lied about it.

The members of the I. O. O. F. Degree team are requested to meet at the hall to-night at 8:30. Business of importance demands attention. Don't borrow your neighbor's paper and force him to say "it's all right"—for it isn't—often he would rather pay for a copy for you than to have his annoyance.

Mr. W. J. Morris, of this county, who has been in feeble health for some time, returned home Saturday from Buffalo Lithia Springs, N. C., much improved. Nearly all women have good hair, though many are gray, and few are bald. Hall's Hair Restorer restores the natural color, and thickens the growth of the hair.

The person who will send us five new subscribers ($1.00 each) gets a large and handsome Oil Painting in Gilt Frame (worth $2.50) and the FISHERMAN & FARMER free. Don't slight the man who wears plain clothes for the nobly dressed idiot who parts his hair in the middle, for you may be taking in washing some day to support your nice young man.

The farmer should sow his P's, keep his U's warm, live his B's, kill off the J's, remember what he C's, take care of the V's, pay all he O's, teach his wife not to T's, and take his E's. Mr. Clarence Branning has rented the residence of W. O. Elliott on Broad street which is being repaired. As soon as the house can be made ready Mr. Branning and his wife will go to housekeeping.

It is said that a certain farmer living in this county is in the habit of moving so rapidly that the chickens, on hearing him say "move," immediately lie down and crossing their feet await to be tied, while the hogs all fall in line to be driven to their new quarters. Ayer's Hair Vigor keeps the scalp free from dandruff, prevents the hair from becoming dry and harsh, and makes it flexible and glossy. All the elements that nature requires, to make the hair abundant and beautiful, are supplied by this admirable preparation.

A WIFE WANTED.

[The following, written for the benefit of a certain young man in the neighborhood of the Creecy farm, was handed us for publication.] I want a wife, a first-rate wife, A girl that is all my own, To cook my meals and cheer my life With smiling words and tone.

I want a well accomplished girl, Industrious, kind and true; Smart enough to foot my socks And mend my clothes like new.

A girl that never pledged a vow With no other chap but me, That's been brought up to milk a cow And have warm cakes for tea.

I want a kind, benevolent girl, With rosy cheeks and sound With such such butter as will sell For thirty cents a pound.

Like sparkling drops her eyes must be As meeting and as bright, Will do to work by you, see, And save another light.
