REV. DR. TALMAGE, THE BROOKLYN DIVINE'S SUNDAY SERMON.

Subject: "The Royal Garden."

Text: "I have come into My garden,"—Solomon's Song, v.

The world has had a great many beautiful gardens. One of the most beautiful of these was the garden of the Lord.

And yet I am to tell you of a garden that has been spoken of in my text, the garden of the church, which belongs to Christ, for my text says, "I have come into My garden."

That would be a strange garden in which there were no flowers. If anywhere else, they would be the loveliest of the garden.

CARNOT LAID AT REST.

OBSEQUES OVER FRANCE'S MURDERED PRESIDENT.

A sad, imposing pageant—President Casimir-Perier Walks in the Procession—Beautiful Floral Tributes—Services at Washington—Germany's Graceful Tribute.

The body of the late President Sall-Carnot, the murdered Chief Magistrate of France, struck down by the hand of Santo Caserio, the assassin, at Lyons, was laid out in the Pantheon at Paris, just one week after the cruel deed was done.

Such was the anxiety of the masses to be present along the line of route followed by the procession that crowds of people began to gather along the Champs Elysees, the Rue de Rivoli and about the streets on the Boulevard des Capucines.

At 9 o'clock, a. m. the whole route of the procession was packed with a mass of people never before seen in Paris. The weather was gloriously bright, but the heat soon became almost intolerable.
