EDENTON, N. C. August 17th 1894.

The Democratic State Convention has renominated all the old justices of the Supreme Court.

The Populists are everywhere fighting for nominations just as though there was some chance for them to be elected.

Every county that has acted so far has passed resolutions favoring electing Senators by primaries, and most of them have endorsed Jarvis.

If the Republicans and Populists should control the next Legislature of North Carolina, the present system of county government would be abolished.

So long as the constitution does not provide for the election of United States Senators by the people, the senatorial primaries are the next best things.

The Raleigh News & Observer comes to us this week much improved. Capt. S. A. Ashe, for the past fifteen years the editor, has retired.

The FISHERMAN & FARMER wishes it success.

Governor Flower, of New York, is quoted as saying that if he can have his way a plank will be inserted in the Democratic platform of that State next Fall giving a solemn pledge of the Democratic party that it will not pass another tariff bill in twenty years.

The House on Monday decided to accept the Senate amendments to the Tariff bill and immediately passed four bills which had been reported under an order of the Committee on Rules, placing sugar, iron ore, coal and fence wire on the free list.

The Chowan county Democrats are talking very little about politics just now. There does not seem to be the usual quota of candidates for the various offices, though a full county and legislative ticket is this year to be elected.

Whose fault will it be if Chowan county goes back to the benighted days of the past? It ought to give our people the nightmare to think of taking a step backward.

White men, don't forget where you live. Lookout for home government first. The Democratic party is the only party that promises you good government at home, more than that, it has given it to you for years and years.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion & Debility.

SENATOR RANSOM ON THE TARIFF BILL.

Senator Ransom, of North Carolina, says: "The tariff bill is far better than no bill at all. It might still be improved, but we should not forget that it reduces taxation and raises sufficient revenue to meet the needs of the Government."

MR. M. MAKELY,

We have heard the name of Mr. M. Makely mentioned as a suitable candidate for the Legislature, and it gives us pleasure in saying we know of no one who would better represent us than this gentleman.

NOMINATIONS.

Congressman Henderson has been renominated in the seventh district. This will be his sixth term in congress.

Judge Battle has been renominated for Judge of the third district, with John E. Woodard for Solicitor.

W. N. Mebane gets the nomination for Judge in the ninth district, defeating Judge Graves.

B. F. Long has been nominated for Judge of the eighth district in place of Armfield, with E. E. Raper for Solicitor.

W. B. Council nominated for Judge of the tenth district in place of Judge Bynum, with W. C. Newland for Solicitor.

H. B. Carter has been nominated for Judge in the twelfth district in place of Judge Shuford.

A. W. Graham is nominated for Congress in the fifth district, E. S. Parker for Solicitor.

Oliver Allen, of Kinston, and E. W. Pou, of Johnson county, have been renominated for Solicitors.

W. R. Allen has been nominated for Judge in the Raleigh district.

The eleventh Judicial district nominated James L. Webb for Solicitor.

W. M. Bond for Solicitor in this, the first district.

BRANCH RENOMINATED.

We learn that the Democratic Congressional Convention, held Wednesday at Greenville, renominated Hon. W. A. B. Branch, for Congress.

STAMPING OUT ANARCHY.

THE ITALIAN GOVERNMENT WILL DEPORT TWO THOUSAND ANARCHISTS.

ROME, August 6.—Six anarchists were arrested at a secret session of the anarchists' meeting at Rome last night.

These were put under a strong guard at once. The Italian government has established a bureau of anarchy with the intention of ferreting out every anarchist in the country and deporting him.

LATE NEWS

The life saving crews will go on duty Aug. 20th.

The latest from Kentucky is that Breckinridge will be defeated.

Marion Butler says that the Alliance has positively made its last appearance in politics.

Many of the Pullman strikers are asking to be taken back. There are now 1,788 men at work.

The Democratic convention of Pitt county adopted a resolution favoring Senatorial primaries.

It is said that the corn crop of the eastern part of the State is much earlier and finer than for many years.

Santo, the murderer of President Carnot, was guillotined yesterday. He refused to ask for any delay.

Hon. J. H. Pou, of Smithfield, succeeds Simmons as Chairman of the Democratic State Executive committee.

Corbett and Jackson met in New York, and, after abusing each other, decide that they cannot come to terms on a fight.

At Norfolk on Monday last a young negro shoots a colored woman, then himself. Both are dangerously wounded.

The prohibitionists of Norfolk held an indignation meeting on Monday night for the purpose of denouncing the course pursued by the Democratic press of Norfolk.

Eighty-eight Coxeyites were captured near Bladensburg, Md., and sent to prison for three months under sentence of hard labor. Charge vagrancy. Three were for one year.

Four young white men of good families in Buncombe county are charged with the terrible crime of assaulting Miss Canada, a sick girl, 18 years of age. Her death is expected.

Gov. Tillman, of South Carolina, proposes to run all competitors out of the business by reducing whiskey to 25 cents a pint. This, with high license, he thinks, will do the business.

Miss Luck Harper was killed by lightning Monday afternoon at Pinner's Point, Va., on the N. & C. Railroad. She was standing near a window while the storm was raging, which was quite severe there.

Prof. Edward Graham Daves, the well known North Carolina, and a man greatly interested in North Carolina history, being the leader in the movement to resurrect the historical memories of Roanoke Island, is dead.

The gang of men who tarred and feathered Adjutant-General Tarsney in Colorado some time ago, are not in such high feather now, for they have all been arrested and Tarsney proposes to stick it to 'em. Contrary to expectation they turn out to be sheriffs, deputy sheriffs, etc., who had a spite against him for an alleged remark that he hoped that the "sheriff's posse would come back in coffins."—Ex.

Marion Butler, chairman of the State Executive committee of the Farmers' Alliance, says the strength of that organization in this State is about 1,200 greater than a year ago. It now numbers about 27,500. The finances are just large enough to operate it, the fees being no larger than when there were 100,000 members.

The State business agency did a business for the year of $375,000. It has reached $500,000. W. A. Graham, trustee of the business fund, reports up wards of $31,000. Only $2,000 has been drawn out under the act of the last Legislature. Almost $1,000 was spent in fighting the Jute trust.

Jno. Joyner, a colored wretch living near Lewiston, Bertie county, broke into the residence of Jos. Pugh Esq., one night last week and went into the bed room of Mrs. Pugh. Whatever his intentions were, were checked by Mrs. Pugh awakening and raising up. As she did so he caught her in his arms. She screamed and awoke others in the house.

The ruffian ran but was recognized by two or three. He was caught and carried before a J. P., and committed to jail. Joyner is a mean man, a heartless villain, having killed one man, and having been cut to pieces by one while doing some his dirty acts. This is the third time he has attempted this unlawful act and in the same house, but sufficient evidence could not be obtained.
