AYOUTHFULPARRICIDE.

A SEVENTEEN-YEAR-OLD BOY IN PASQUOTANK COUNTY SHOOTS HIS FATHER.

Seventeen-year-old Lee Sawyer, of Rosedale, Pasquotank county, N. C., was arrested in Norfolk, last week and carried back to E. City upon the charge of parricide. He gives an account of the killing of his father as follows:

"Father (Geo. Sawyer) gave me a kicking Sunday because I did not get up early enough to cut wood to cook breakfast with. When I went out to cut the wood father gave me the kicking, whereupon I struck him with the axe I was cutting wood with, which cut a gash in his right breast, which, however, was very slight. Father ran into the house after the gun and I ran for a nearby neighbor's house, and while there one of his sisters came to borrow a gun cap from the neighbor in whose house I had taken refuge. She told me that father was coming over to kill me, and in a few minutes after she returned home with the cap I saw father come out of the front door with a gun in his hands. I gathered up the neighbor's gun, for I could not escape, and when he was in a distance of twenty steps I fired, the load taking effect in his groin. Then thinking I would also be shot, I threw down the gun and ran, not knowing that I had killed father until arrested. I am willing to return without requisition papers, for I am not afraid now."

Young Sawyer is strong, robust, well dressed and genteel looking. He also claims that his father often treated him harshly, and that recently had been taking out spite against him for buying a pair of shoes without his consent and had been whipping and cuffing him daily until the fatal ending.

To be Buried Alive.

A dispatch from Santa Barbara, Cal., says: Alexander McIver Tyndall, professional mind-reader, proposes to be buried alive for ten days, at the expiration of which time he promises to rise from the grave. He will be placed in a hermetically sealed casket, having been first covered with clarified butter, called by East Indians "gee," sealing all pores of the body, eyes, mouth, ears and nostrils. The work is to be performed under the eyes of prominent physicians. The casket is then to be placed six feet under ground on the Arlington Hotel lawn. Grass seed will be planted and permitted to grow about it. Trusty men are to keep guard over it day and night, when at the expiration of the tenth day, it shall be disinterred and opened in the presence of physicians who had witnessed the interment.

No Pops in Theirs.

"Thursday afternoon," says the Concord Standard, "several ladies of the city were making calls in a certain portion of town, and after entering the home of a friend, one of the callers remarked they were out making "Pop" calls, whereupon the hostess put a wrong construction on the term, and said: "Well, I don't see why you should come here, for my husband is as good a Democrat as yours, so if it is Pop calls you are making you had better study the politics of your community. When the lady had concluded she left the room highly indignant leaving the two callers in a very much embarrassed state."

There is a grocery merchant down in Georgia who is a poet and knows how to dun his customers when occasion requires. The following unique advertising card appears in one of the papers:

Don't sneak around the corner,
"Pray don't refuse to pay your dues,
"But help this humble poet,
"Since you did eat my bread and meat,
"You know quite well you owe it.
"Last spring you said you wanted bread,
"I thought your head was level,
"So keep your vow and pay me now,
"Or you will catch the d—!"

SURRENDERED HIMSELF

A MURDERER WHO HAD BEEN TWENTY-FIVE YEARS A FUGITIVE.

William J. Urganhart, accused of murdering John E. Gay on November 8th, 1870, at Suffolk, Va., and who has been a fugitive from justice since that time, has voluntarily surrendered to the authorities and had a preliminary hearing before Mayor Brewer. The mayor after hearing evidence and strong pleas by counsel, sent Urganhart on to grand jury and committed him without bail.

Gay was found murdered near his home on the above date, with a pistol shot wound in his breast. Urganhart immediately left the community, and notwithstanding the efforts of the detectives towards his capture he always eluded them, and after wandering for nearly a quarter of a century he voluntarily returned and asks for a trial. He claims self-defense. The alleged murderer and the murdered man are well connected. The accused is 57 years of age. His form is bent with travel and hardships, and his beard is long and white.

Anointed With Oil.

Everette Strouse, a well-known young man of Salem, Va., was considered critically ill last week with Bright's disease. A few days ago he dismissed the three doctors attending him, summoned some religious friends, and at a family prayer meeting was anointed with oil by elder J. M. Gambill, a prominent business man of Roanoke, in the manner suggested by the literal interpretation of James, 5th chapter, 13 verse. He is now going about his duties, apparently in a fair state of health.

STRICKEN IN A CHURCH.

TWENTY PERSONS PROSTRATED BY A STROKE OF LIGHTNING.

At Quakertown, Pa., the Methodist Church was struck by lightning last Sunday, and twenty persons were prostrated.

Dr. Bowman had just pronounced the benediction at the morning's service when the bolt struck the belfry, running around the edifice under the weatherboards and down under the floors.

The services having been all but concluded, many persons were in the vestibule and aisles of the church. Besides those named, fourteen persons were maimed and scarred. The houses of the town were turned into emergency hospitals, and the victims are there being cared for.

Sexton Bauman had his coat torn from his back and into shreds, and one of his shoes was ripped as by a knife. Minnie France was in her pew when the bolt tore through the floor. Both shoes were torn from her feet, the crown of her hat was wrenched away, and her watch chain was melted into liquid. James Hoff was prostrated in his pew, and most of his clothing was literally torn from his body.

Horses broke from their tie-posts outside the church, and many of them ran away. A veritable panic followed the stroke. After the excitement had subsided, it was found that the six hundred pound bell in the cupola was hanging almost by a thread, while fully one hundred persons were directly under it. The church edifice is almost a wreck, as the lightning penetrated from all sides.

PUBLICATIONS REQUIRED BY LAW.

The following extract taken from the annual report of the North Carolina Press Association will doubtless be of benefit to some publishers as well as county officials who may not be familiar with or comply strictly with the law in every case:

U. S. FLAG AGAIN FIRED UPON.

BY A SPANISH GUN BOAT—SCHOONER MADE TO HEAVE TO AND GIVE ACCOUNT OF HERSELF.

Capt. Quick, of the American schooner Carrie E. Lane, reports at Breakwater, Delaware, that he was fired upon twice in Cuban waters on the 4th instant, by a Spanish gunboat which flew no colors until the first shot was fired.

The steamer was sighted following the schooner. No attention was paid to her at first, but at last it was noticed she was signalling the schooner to stop. Directly after the signal was observed, before the captain made up his mind what course to pursue, the first shot was fired, commencing uncomfortably to the schooner's mainmast.

The captain gave orders to haul in sail and hoist the American flag. This was done and while the flag was flying the second shot came, passing so close that one of the men says he felt the wind of the ball.

A boat was lowered from the gun boat and four Spanish marines under command of a Lieutenant in the Spanish navy came aboard fully armed but no search was made except to examine clearance papers.

The schooner was evidently taken to be a filibustering craft but the captain says there was nothing in her appearance to justify the belief, and besides this the vessel is well known in West Indian waters.

Capt. Quick tried to get the name of the gun boat but failed to do so.

Swam Half a Mile Handcuffed.

Martin Sullivan, a white sailor on the cruiser Minneapolis, now at the Norfolk Navy Yard, was ironed Saturday night for desertion. He escaped from his cell last night and while handcuffed leaped overboard and swam a mile away. He hid under a raft while the cruiser swept the water with her search lights.

When they were turned off he made his way to Berkeley, where some negroes filed his handcuffs off. He then exchanged his uniform for citizen's clothes and engaged to work his passage to New York on a barge. When a launch from the yard passed the barge he hid in a boiler but was subsequently captured.

FUSION FOR NEXT YEAR.

DECIDED UPON BY REPUBLICANS AND POPULISTS.

The following news comes to us from Raleigh:

It is a long time until the next election, but nevertheless the Republicans and Populists have practically arranged their affairs, that is, the basis of fusion of those parties in 1896. This news comes straight. Of course there is a division of the offices. W. A. Guthrie, Populist, is to be the nominee for Governor, and Jeter Pritchard, Republican, is to be re-elected to the Senate. These are the keynotes. There is to be an equal division of all the other State offices and also of the electoral ticket. As to the latter the Populists will take five or five as may be decided. Here is the band which the Democrats will have to beat. Two Supreme court judges are also to be elected. Montgomery will be re-nominated, and a Republican, most probably D. L. Russell, will be nominated to succeed A. C. Avery.

Dr. Mott has had an interview with Guthrie and is said to have left satisfied. Whether he is to get the collectorship of the Western district of whether his son, Marshal Mott, is to be nominated for Attorney General, or whether some other bonus is promised him, is not yet definitely known. H. L. Grant, of Goldsboro, is to be made Secretary of the United States Senate.

It there were to be a decision now as to the exact personnel of the complete ticket there would be a scramble, and this both the Republicans and the Populists want to avoid, so that matter will be kept in the background until next summer. Meanwhile the men who are to be put on will be quietly selected. There will be, it is positively asserted, two conventions, one of each party, just as was the case last year. The silver question will cut quite a figure and the belief is that the Republican convention will straddle it in adroit way.

Five Girls at a Birth.

A dispatch from Charlotte-town, Prince Edward Island, says Mrs. Alexander Campbell, of Montague, gave birth to five daughters on Sunday. Her husband is a tailor, in his 84th year.

A Colonizing Scheme.

A scheme of great magnitude looking to the colonization of 5,000 families, or about 30,000 people from Iowa, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Nebraska and other Western States to settle in Georgia is said to be about consummated, and sometime in September, the movement of these people, it is expected, will be begun to their new homes.

The land selected for the new colony is in Irwin and Wilcox counties of "the Empire State of the South." The stockholders comprising the colonizing company are 7,000 in number, the majority of whom are well-known citizens of Georgia, and many of them are to settle in the colony themselves.

The people who will settle in the new colony include farmers, fruit growers, artisans and others, and in time it is contemplated to build a town with school houses, churches and factories. The land selected is among the most productive in the Southern country, and the projectors have great hope in the success of their scheme.

Nervous debility is a common complaint, especially among women. The best medical treatment for this disorder is a persistent course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla to cleanse and invigorate the blood. This being accomplished, nature will do the rest.

Changing Names.

The State printers in publishing the lists of magistrates changed the names in 269 cases and added 85 names not shown on the certified list. The terms of office of magistrates have been changed in 89 cases. Six names on the certified list have been dropped by the State printers. If all these 449 changes were errors the State printers are very incompetent; if the changes were intentional the State printers acted unlawfully. How is it?—Kinston Free Press.
