THE fishing at Nag's Head now is excellent and early every morning the trim little sailing crafts may be seen skimming over the water carrying a jolly party to their favorite fishing spot. Fish stories galore are the natural result of these delightful trips. Every one makes splendid catches of trout, hog-fish, spots, croakers and other species of the finny tribe, but the biggest of course, all got away. In fact, the ones brought ashore were so long-----, while the ones that nearly capsized the boat, you know, were so long-------

Nevertheless the hours are spent delightful and the pleasant sail to and from the fishing ground is enjoyed by all.
