CORBETT WILL NOT RETIRE.

James J. Corbett has finished his professional engagement in Cleveland, O. Before leaving he expressed himself as confident of winning the fight with Fitzsimmons, and d clared that he would enter the ring on that occasion Speeches Were Made by Pritin just as good condition as he was when he knocked out John L. Sulivan.

"I have been dieting myself and training moderately ever since I signed to fight Fitz,' said Corbett, "and my condition is tiptop now. I am just as fast as when I fought Sullivan, and much stronger and a harder hit ter. I have not outlined my plan of battle with the lanky fellow yet. In fact, I never know just how I am going to fight a man until I face him in the ring.

"I realize that Fitzsimmons is Elizabeth City, N. C .. a dangerous hitter, but I have met hard hitters before. It not my intention to hold my jaw out, and let Robert smash it at will. I think I can hit some myself, and, if I don't miss my guess. Fitz will feel my glove a few times. I honestly believe that the fight will not last more than lifteen rounds.'

"There has been some talk to the effect that you would retire from the ring after this fight. Is that your intention?"

"No, I don't expect to retire I will retain the championship if I beat Fitz, and give some of those other aspiring ducks a chance. I am still a young man, and reports circulated by certain vise people to the contrary notto hold the title for some years

LITTLE THINGS.

Little things are often the harddaring that will startle everybody; it is not so easy to do little deeds of quiet courage from day to day, unheeded by all and uns heeding all. Perhaps you are not called to do the great deed. But you are called every day to do the little deeds, which more surely wear out life and strength in the long run. Be glad that you are called to this; for this is the of your patronage. Stencils harder task, and he who is faithful here, will not be unfaithful fers with the brain fever.

Birthday Gitt to Moody.

A determined effort is being made to secure a fund of $25,000 to build a chapel for the summer school at Northfield, Mass, to be presented to Dwight L. Moody on his sixtieth birthday, Feb. 5. The i lea is to have half the money given in this country and half in Englan I, and there is every indication of success.

The chapel, when built, will practically complete the chain of Northfield School buildings which has been evolved during the past fifteen years.

For more than twenty years we have been telling how Scott's Emulsion overcomes the excessive waste of the system, puts on flesh, nourishes and builds up the body, making it the remedy for all wasting diseases of adults and children, but it isn't possible for us to tell the story in a mere stickful of newspaper type.

We have had prepared for us by a physician a little book, telling in easy words how and why Scott's Emulsion benefits, and a postal card request will be enough to have it sent to you free. To-day would be a good time to send for it.
