ELIZABETH CITY, May 21, 1897.

STAND BY YOUR TOWN.

To stand by your town means more than to simply build up your own individual business interests and beautify and improve your residence.

Every industry in the place, it makes no difference how small, should be given careful consideration.

Encourage every one, especially new men, to come in and settle among you, particularly those who are worthy and active.

The Westfield (Ind.) News prints the following in regard to an old remedy of that place: "Frank McAvoy, for many years in the employ of the L., N. A. & C. Ry. here, says: 'I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for ten years or longer and never without it in my family.'

NOTICE!

To my patrons and friends: Owing to my continued ill health I am forced to abandon my dental practice in Elizabeth City.

CASTORIA

New songs and a large supply of that very rare article—new jokes, will be very much in evidence throughout the evening.

Secure your seats in advance at Thos. Old's.

Early closing among the mercantile establishments is being agitated, and should be adopted by every merchant during the summer months.

A prompt closing of their places of business at 7 p. m., will give the merchants and clerks a much needed few hours of rest or recreation to fit them for the duties of the coming day.

Don't hesitate to place your signature to the petition for early closing, and after signing it, adhere to the same to the very dot.

Never before have we beheld such great interest shown toward the question of religion, as is exhibited nightly at the Schoolfield meeting at the Broad street M. E. church.

At every night service the building is filled to its utmost capacity with people earnestly seeking the truths, earnestly seeking the plan of salvation and everlasting life and, through the eloquent, yet practical preaching of Mr. Schoolfield are finding that which they earnestly seek.

Large numbers go forward at every service and profess their repentance and belief in the Saviour.

The meeting will close to-day. It has been a delightful series. The people have been benefitted, the churches will receive many additions to membership.

Our town from a moral standpoint has received a reorganization which will be of lasting good.
