One day last week, on going into the bathroom, he found a cup standing on the that contained all his wife's jewels, together with some "jeweler's sawdust."

Now, he had continually warned his wife of the danger of such carelessness and decided to teach her a lesson. The jewels were transferred into his pocket and the sawdust was emptied into the sink. Then he left hurrie ly for a trip to New York.

Later on his wife went to the bathroom to finish cleaning her jewels and was horrified to find them gone. Seeing traces of sawdust in the sink she concludsues.
