Complaints come to us from reliable people to this effect, and unless some folks attend to their official duties better we shall notify the Department at Washington. They can probably find out who is tampering with our mail.

A PRETTY MARRIAGE.
Two Young People Enter Into The Realm of Matrimonial Bliss.

Of late, evidences of Cupid's craftiness have not been particularly numerous; but as it is a matter upon which the budding springtime and the balmy summer seem to have a nourishing effect, we may expect an increase in the matrimonial line ere long.

Last night there was a very large assemblage at the Methodist church to witness the marriage of Mr. Will S. Dunton to Miss Lennie Rogers; in fact, the house was crowded and there was scarcely standing room.

Promptly at the hour named, as Mrs. E. G. Thompson put her fingers to the organ and began to fill the house with the rich tones of the instrument as it poured forth the inspiring strains of the wedding march, the Rev. Messrs. J. Scott, C. H. Balfour, W. J. Traflet, Marshall Gallop, marched down the aisle and took their positions at the altar.

Following these came the bridesmaid, Miss Minnie Sawyer upon the arm of the bride's brother, Mr. George Rogers, who acted as best man.

Then came the bride and groom, and as soon as they reached the altar that had been beautifully decorated in evergreens, potted plants, flowers, &c., Rev. J. H. Hall stepped forward and proceeded to complete the union they desired, which he did in an impressive and unusually happy manner.

The bride, who is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Rogers and quite popular, wore a beautiful suit of white silk with Liberty silk trimmings, carrying in her hand a handsome bouquet of flowers.

The bridesmaid, Miss Sawyer was dressed in a handsome costume of white organdy, trimmed in white silk, bunch of flowers in hand.

The gentlemen were all in full dress, and the groom is the popular book-keeper in the hardware store of Sharber & White and held in the very highest repute by all who know him.

After the ceremony, the bridal party proceeded to the splendid residence of Mr. Clarence Gallop, on Road street, to enjoy a reception and feast which none know better than the graceful hostess, Mrs. Gallop, how to prepare.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunton, were the recipients of quite a number of handsome presents; also many hearty congratulations from a large circle of friends, and in these felicitations the FISHERMAN & FARMER joins.

A JOLLY NIGHT.

Melick, will give a performance of "A Jolly Night," a musical comedy that Mr. Travers and his company have been playing this present season in the best theatres in the large cities.

Preceding the comedy Mr. Travers and Mr. Raymond will appear in a charming little one act play called "Forget me nots." There is no doubt that, taken as a whole, this will prove a most pleasing entertainment, composed as it is of comedy, pathos and music.

LOOK OUT FOR NEXT THURSDAY.

Nearly every body has heard of special sales in the big northern city stores and know what they mean. It is this: some store will advertise a great quantity of goods to be sold on a certain day for less than cost—a great many articles are nearly given away, yet the crowd comes and that store grows popular.

There never was a special sale given to the people of Elizabeth City by any merchant, but on next Thursday beginning at 10 o'clock, there will be held a special sale at The New Bee Hive Store. Mr. Mitchell says he is determined that everybody shall come and see the big store and get acquainted, and though he will lose considerable money on this day he will bring the people. You will get a list of goods to be sold on Thursday.

Look out! We are preparing the Feast. You'll regret it if you don't come on that day. The day after won't do. The prices are for Thursday and this day only. IF A CIRCUS were in Elizabeth City on Thursday, May 5th, you wouldn't expect to see the show on Wednesday or Friday, would you? So come on Thursday. The most interesting special sale ever before seen in this city will be conducted at The Bee Hive on Next Thursday. A regular John Wanamaker city sale. A list of goods and particulars will be sent you in time. It would pay you to come a hundred miles to be here on Thursday next.

Good Blood

It is essential to health. Every nook and corner of the system is reached by the blood, and on its quality the condition of every organ depends. Good blood means strong nerves, good digestion, robust health. Impure blood means scrofula, dyspepsia, rheumatism, catarrh or other diseases. The surest way to have good blood is to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. This medicine purifies, vitalizes, and enriches the blood, and sends the elements of health and strength to every nerve, organ and tissue. It creates a good appetite, gives refreshing sleep and cures that tired feeling. Remember.

Baxter, recorded in book 10, page 504, containing 88 acres more or less. 2nd, Tract of land in Providence township lying on the Pasquotank River, adjoining the Road known as the Lamb Ferry road, Pasquotank River, the lands of M. L. Davis and others. Terms of sale one fourth (1/4) cash. Balance in 6, 12 and 18 months with interest on deferred payments with privileges to pay all cash.

Will The Commissioners Do This.

To THE EDITOR:—A petition has been circulated by the owner of the draw bridge over Knobs Creek at Biades mill, asking the county to take the same off his hands, and put it upon the people of this county to keep up. The bridge was built about eighteen years ago by Mr. E. F. Lamb, the owner of the Ferry Road, and the merchants and the County of Pasquotank, we are reliably informed subscribed to assist Mr. Lamb to build the same, and it appears that sometime ago Mr. Lamb brought a suit in the Court here to compel the County of Pasquotank to take charge of this bridge and keep it at the Public expense. In this he was defeated.

Now he tries to shift the burden of this bridge upon the people by getting a petition signed to that effect, and the same to be presented to the Board of County Commissioners of this county at its next meeting. The only users of this bridge, and the only persons who cross and use the same are the patrons of his ferry and who pay him for the privilege. There is not a person living upon the road after you cross the bridge going to his ferry and over his own road. Why the people of this county should be asked to keep up an expensive bridge for the benefit of a toll road is beyond our comprehension. The bridge is now in very bad order, and it will be quite costly to put it in a proper condition to be safe for travel, let alone the never ending expense of keeping the same in repair, and the further cost of a bridge keeper, possible to be hereafter saddled upon this county.

Will the Board of County Commissioners do this? We think not.

"XX."
Hurrah for our boys! Wednesday Captain Old, of the Elizabeth City division of Naval Reserves, received an important telegraphic message, and hurriedly called his company together by tapping the city bell. The boys assembled promptly, and amid wild cheers and much enthusiasm they voted to volunteer their services to the government. When it appears that only five members of the Reserves refused to volunteer for service in Cuba, we are all the more proud. One of these men was over the age limit and had to be rejected, and it is probable that some of the others had good excuses. Five men in a Division is an exceptionally small per cent, and we propose a hearty cheer for the men who will protect our country and our honor. There is not a better nor a braver company of soldier boys bound for the war. Ours was the first Division to offer its services.
