

He Who Wishes

To prosper must watch well the outgo, for if he buys goods that are not what they pretend to be, he will be the loser in the long run. Better go where you are sure than to take any chances. We guarantee our goods and make them good if they do not turn out as we represent them. Give us a trial, and if you have never bought of us before, we know you will come again.

It Is A Little Thing

That accomplishes big results sometimes. In this instance it is a little price that is turning our big stock out of doors, and we find that the smaller the price, the greater the execution. Our initial sale of wash goods is a practical demonstration of what a little price will do. It is economy to buy now, and make up at your leisure.
