

EVERY SHORE BATTERY REDUCED.

Twenty-One Americans Killed And Eight Wounded.

Spanish Losses Are Thirty-Nine And A Number Wounded.

Off Santiago, June 26. A decisive battle is expected at any moment. Wheeler's division was within ten miles of the city Friday night and was joined by Shafter this morning, while Sampson has reduced every shore battery defense within twenty miles on either side of Santiago.

Chaffee's wing of Wheeler's command captured and took possession of Sevi a, seven miles from the city, after a sharp battle. Official reports place the American loss at twenty-one killed and eighty wounded. The Spaniards left thirty nine dead on the field. From the position occupied by the troops they can plainly see the streets and inhabitants of Santiago. It is also reported that a large number of wounded are entering the city at intervals.

See You Weaken
A man who manifests himself in the loss of energy and volition. The blood is weak, the nervous system is debilitated, the brain is languid, the memory is impaired. A bottle of Brown's Iron Pills taken in time will restore your strength, soothe your nerves, make your blood rich and red. Do you more good than any expensive special course of medicine. Brown's Iron Pills is sold by all dealers.

Worked the Paralyzed Gme.

Among the recruits sent from Portsmouth Thursday to Jacksonville to join the Fourth Virginia Regiment were three hoboes, one from West Virginia, one from Ohio, and the other from South Carolina, who had been quartered at the station house. Lieutenant Onley clipped their heads and the hobos took a bath—the first one in years—in the river. Late yesterday afternoon one of the men, who had been foraging, returned to the Armory and reported to his chum that he had just had a fine dinner. The chap from Ohio was hungry, and, binding one elbow back, went out, and, claiming to be paralyzed, soon succeeded in getting a meal.

See You for Fifty Cents
A guaranteed cure for all cases of constipation, biliousness, headache, neuralgia, indigestion, etc. All druggists.

Two Special Messages.

Washington, June 27. The President today sent two special messages to the Senate, providing for the recognition of the services of Hobson and his crew, of Commander Newcomb and the crew of the Revenue Cutter Hudson which went to the rescue of the Winslow at Carlinas, and Captain Hodgson of the dispatch boat McCulloch which figured in the battle of Manila and to Cadet Powell for his bravery under fire.

Authority is also asked from the Senate for the transfer to Hobson from the Construction Corps to a line in the Navy. The message in mentioning Hobson cites the fact that his crew had already been promoted.

Appeals to the Pope.

Rome, June 27. The Papal Nuncio, of Madrid, telegraphs the Pope that the Queen Regent desires the mediation of His Holiness when the opportune moment arrives with the object of concluding peace with the United States. Nuncio declares, however, that at present the Queen is convinced that Spain is bound to continue the war.

Miles Plan Worked Well.

General Miles expressed himself Saturday at Washington as delighted with the successful execution of the strategic policy he adopted for the landing of Shafter's army at Santiago.

It was a plan, he said that required a month to work it out, and it was eminently successful. Especially pleasing is the work performed by the Cuban forces in co-operating in landing. The harassment of the enemy in the rear is always demoralizing, and it contributes no small amount in the fruition of the project. Their work seems to have been well planned and fluently carried out.

General Miles referred in terms of praise to the work of getting a large quantity of supplies into the Cuban camps and the placing of a million cartridges in the hands of the insurgents. He paid high tribute to the way in which the plan was executed.

SPAIN'S FLEET STOPPED.

Being Without Coal Camara's Fleet Is Unable to Proceed Further.

London, June 27. Camara's fleet has been reported passing through the Suez canal.

Port Said, June 27. Camara's fleet is here, but is unable to proceed further on account of being unable to procure coal. Camara was requested to purchase ten thousand tons, but the Government refuses to allow him to coal in Egyptian waters. Shore liberty has been denied the seamen of his fleet.

Rome, June 27. The Spanish Ambassador says that Camara's trip is only a ruse, and says the fleet will remain at Port Said for some days, then sail, not through the Suez canal but to Cadiz.

Gibraltar, June 27. It is reported that the third Spanish squadron will leave Cadiz on the fifteenth of July.

Don't Let Your Blood Get Weak
Three leading physicians in various countries have analyzed the blood of a man who has taken a bottle of Brown's Iron Pills. They found that the blood was rich and red, and that the man was in perfect health. If your blood is weak, if you are nervous, if you are pale, if you are thin, if you are tired, if you are listless, if you are unable to do your work, if you are unable to enjoy life, if you are unable to live, take a bottle of Brown's Iron Pills. It will cure you. It is sold by all dealers.

Pushing Towards Santiago.

Off Baquiri, June 27.—The Third and Ninth Cavalry alone remains here guarding material. All the other regiments are being pushed towards Santiago as rapidly as possible and active operations are expected to begin next Wednesday.

Interruption of the communication between the fleets and army by storms is possible at any time.

Jurugia and Baquiri are both open roadsteads with no protection, but General Shafter expresses perfect satisfaction in landing of the troops.

Not a Quorum Present.

Washington, June 27.—The Senate convened at 11 o'clock. There was no quorum and the opponents of annexation demanded that a roll call be taken whereupon, Sergeant at-Arms was requested to bring in the absent Senators and in an hour a quorum was obtained. Senator Clay is speaking against annexation.

BETTER LOOK OUT.

A Strong Fleet Will Be Sent Out to Hunt Camara

Washington, June 27. The official announcement that a strong fleet was to be sent off the coast of Spain has aroused an intense feeling of satisfaction in official circles.

It sets at rest all talk of peace negotiations and shows a clear purpose of the Administration to follow an aggressive campaign.

This bold announcement seems to have for its purpose the recalling of Camara's fleet from Port Said, which is said to be on their way to the Philippines.

It is said that while the Government has no fear but that Dewey is safe, it would much prefer to engage the Spanish fleet off the Spanish coast and let matters rest quietly at Manila.

Commodore Watson will probably include in his fleet the Oregon, Iowa, Brooklyn, New York, St. Paul and St. Louis.

A partial list given out by the Navy Department names as a part of the Eastern Squadron, the battleships Oregon and Iowa, the auxiliary cruisers Yosemite, Dixie and Yankee, and colliers Linda, Abunde and Alexander. Flagship Newark.

CALLED MILES PARTNER.

A Private of the Fifth Maryland Asked That Magnate for a Match.

[Tampa Fla., Dispatch.]

He was only a private of the Fifth Maryland, a tall slight Baltimore boy and a recruit at that. He sauntered into the Tampa Bay Hotel last Sunday night, and gazed with wonder on the grave and gay officers.

He put a cigarette between his lips and then looked around to see someone who could supply him with fire for the coffin stick.

Lots of officers in full dress uniform were puffing fine Havana, but he trembled at the thought of asking any of these for fire. Hope soon swelled in bosom, however, as he saw approaching him an elderly man dressed in a plain black business suit, who had just lighted a cigar.

"Say, partner, give us a light," said the Marylander.

The plain elderly gentleman ran his hand into his vest pocket and handing a match to the soldier, said: "With pleasure, sir." Then he passed on his way with head dropped in pondering pose.

Chief Porter O'Connor of the hotel, quick witted Kerry Irishman, approached the private and asked:

"Do you know who that man was who gave you the match?"

"No," replied the youthful private. "Who was it?"

"General Miles," replied O'Connor.

The private had an incredulous smile on his face for an instant, but when the porter convinced him that it was really the major general commanding the United States army, he said:

"Well, he ought to wear something to let us know who he is. Any one is liable to ask him for a favor, he looks so obliging."

The private stood there until he saw the general pass again. Then he summoned up all his soldierly energies and gave the general a salute that would have done credit to any one of Napoleon's household guards.

"Don't tell any of the boys about the break I made," said the private to the porter; they would kid me to death."

When Spain is thoroughly exhausted she will come down—and not before. That her resources are considerable, in spite of her civil and military officers, is shown by the elaborate fashion of the new defences, at Havana, Santiago and other ports on the Cuban coast. She is certainly putting her best foot foremost, and she will make a protracted fight, unless some accident intervenes to stop her short, like the precipitation of Don Carlos into the situation; and that blatant creature is liable to show himself in Spain any day.
