N. C. NEGRO IN TROUBLE.

He Kills Two Unoffending White Men in Ohio and is Now in Jail.

Special from Cleveland Ohio says: An intoxicated negro, after insulting several women and girls on a commercial street here, stopped in front of a house occupied by John Fedorec. Fedorec and his brother-in-law, John Stefancic, were sitting in the yard in the rear of the house drinking and eating.

The negro demanded a drink. The white men refused, and ordered him out. Stefancic attempted to put the intruder out, when the negro drew a revolver and shot both men.

Both men fell to the ground and the negro ran to the Erie railroad and jumped on to a passing fast freight train, east bound. He was overtaken and arrested a few stations away. The men who were shot both died in the hospital soon after.

The negro gave his name as Samuel Carr, and said his home was in Cleveland, N. C. He is 23 years old. He said he arrived here from North Carolina yesterday.

Will Get PRIZE MONEY.

Clerk Hutchinson will Receive $275

AS A PREMIUM FROM UNCLE SAM.

He Was a Yeoman on the United States Steamship St. Paul Which Captured a British Blockade Runner.

P. A. Hutchinson, the genial night clerk at the Clayton House, Wilmington, Delaware, is a warmer friend of Uncle Sam's at the present time than he perhaps has ever been. Love for his nation's defence caused him to fight under her flag, and now he is to receive $275 for his part in the conflict.

On May 4 he enlisted aboard the United States Steamship St. Paul, Captain Siegbec, as yeoman, and immediately saw service in Cuban waters. On June 16th, while off Santiago, the St. Paul captured the British steamship Restarwell, which attempted to run the blockade, and one week later sunk the Spanish torpedo boat Terror. From the sale of the Restarwell, and because of the destruction of the torpedo boat, the St. Paul's crew of fifty-two men obtained $13,000 from the government, or about $275 apiece, the early receipt of which money has caused Mr. Hutchinson's pleasantness.

Friday morning Mr. Hutchinson received from the auditor for the Navy Department, blanks which he will fill out and forward to Washington as soon as he can obtain the signature of Ensign Powelson, who is now recovering from injuries incident to the war in the Episcopal Hospital, Philadelphia. Mr. Hutchinson will go to Philadelphia to-morrow.

The award of prize money was larger than Mr. Hutchinson expected, and he feels that Uncle Sam has paid him very well for his four months' service.

NEGROES TERRORIZE ANNSITON.

White Soldiers Shot and a Serious Riot Narrowly Averted.

A Birmingham special says: Two negro soldiers dead, several others wounded, four, white soldiers injured and two members of the provost guard missing resulted from a race riot at Anniston Thursday night between whites and negroes of the Fourth Army Corps.

Soon after dark Private Gildheart, Second Arkansas, while going from the city, was shot in the head and stabbed by a negro soldier of the Third Alabama. Soon afterward a member of the Fourth Kentucky was shot by negro soldiers from ambush. Further firing was heard, and the provost guard was sent to quell the disorders. At the approach 100 negro soldiers opened fire without warning. The guard returned the fire, but had to return to camp. Reinforcements were hurried forward, but the negroes had fled by that time.

News of the riot provoked intense excitement in camp. A crowd of citizens and white soldiers were preparing to march upon the negro troops, when General Frank ordered out several companies of troops and dispersed the gathering mob. In the night two negro soldiers were shot by white citizens and badly wounded.

A rumor prevailing here Saturday says that while the guard was trying to round up some disorderly negro soldiers in Anniston just before daylight, about two dozen negroes were shot. This story, as yet, lacks confirmation. Anniston spent the night in terror, and more trouble is feared, as the feeling between whites and negro troops is very bitter.

SPAIN ACCEPTS. CONDITIONS OF PEACE

At the Opening of the Joint Session Monday Her Commissioners at once Announced the Acceptance of Our Terms.

Paris, November 28.—The joint Peace Commissioners met promptly at 2 o'clock. The Spanish Commissioners immediately announced the acceptance of the American demand. The two commissions were in separate session all the morning.

There is no denying that the whole European continent will bitterly resent the American acquisition of the Philippines. This sentiment is not confined to diplomats, but here in Paris that opinion is constantly expressed in the highest French society.

Paris, November 28.—The Spanish acceptance was made verbally, and the written acceptance will be presented later. The Spanish Commissioners, it is said, were authorized by the Government to reply that the American propositions are inadmissible on legal principles, but on the Spanish part all diplomatic resources have been exhausted, and the Spanish Commission are now asked to accept or reject the propositions. Spain, inspired by reasons of patriotism and humanity, and to avoid the horrors of war, resigns herself to the power of the victor. She accepts the offered conditions in order to conclude a treaty of peace.

Paris, November 28.—The American demands included the acquisition of the Philippines and the Sulu group for $20,000,000. It is understood that America will purchase the Caroline group. The question of the debt of Cuba is left unsettled until the next meeting on Wednesday.

Washington, November 28.—The German Charge d'Affairs spent an hour with Secretary Hay early this morning. There is great reticence. It is believed that the visit related to Germany's interest in the Sulu Islands. It is understood that they claim a prior right to them, and contend that Spain is under obligations to let Germany have them, if she ever let them go.

ALWAYS SICK AT SEA.

"It is now nearly twenty-seven years since I first went to sea on a man-of-war," said a well known officer of the United States navy, to a Washington Star man, "and I've been getting sea sick right along ever since. I not only get violently and helplessly seasick every time I start off on a cruise, after having been on shore duty for a number of years, but I always get more or less seasick every time the ship to which I am attached weighs anchor and puts to sea after having been in port for ten days or so. Of course, I don't get quite as sick on these occasions, in the midst of a cruise as I do when just starting out on a cruise after long shore duty, but I get sick enough. I don't think I exaggerate when I say that since I've been in the navy I have been desperately seasick at least a hundred times, and just terribly seasick about a thousand times. And I am not the only one. I can name you off hand twenty high-ranking officers of our naval outfit who invariably get seasick when they start off on a cruise, and who never fall about of a choppy sea that they don't long for some lodge in the wilderness. And, by the way, a peculiar thing connected with the sickness of these officers I speak of is that they are all huge men. I'm a pretty big man myself. I have therefore evolved the idea based upon a great deal more liable to seasickness than small men. I've seen small shipmates get seasick at the outset of their cruises, but once they get over this initial siege of mal de mer the small men very rarely suffer from seasickness for the remainder of their cruises. I don't just know how to account for this, but simply state it as one of the results of my observations of seasickness. I've also observed that men with comparatively hollow or not well developed chests are practically immune from seasickness. I mentioned this to the surgeon of the last ship to which I was attached, and he told me that people who are consumptive, or who have anything the matter with their lungs, very rarely suffer from seasickness. He told me the physiological reason for this, but I've forgotten it.

GEORGIA WHITE WOMAN ELOPES WITH A NEGRO.

Robbed Her Husband First— Captured in Barnwell County—An Ugly Case.

Barnwell, Nov. 27.—On Thursday, November 24th, George Owens, a negro employed by S. W. Mead, a white farmer of Mollie Pond, Schriener county, Ga., eloped with the wife of Mr. Mead, carrying with them $212.75 belonging to Mr. Mead, making their way to Barnwell, the former home of the negro. The eloping couple were pursued by the enraged husband who was determined to find the elopers.

A posse was formed here by an officer of the peace, which found the couple to-day about 10 miles from town and brought them back here, where they are now safely lodged in the county jail.

There have been some threats but no demonstration is expected.

Died While Killing Hogs.

Milford, November 26.—Philip Willey went out with a helper to kill his hogs yesterday afternoon, little knowing that he would die with the swine. He had some difficulty in felling the first hog and, after a lively chase brought it down with a death blow. As the animal lay struggling, Willey uttered an exclamation and dropping the blood-stained knife, and fell backward, dead. Physicians made an examination and found that an attack of heart disease, superinduced by the excitement among the noisy animals, had caused his death.

THE HORNET COMING.

The Most Serious Engagement in Which the Hornet Took Part Was at Manzanillo Where it Was Struck Many Times.

Special from Washington under date of Nov. 28th says: The Secretary of the Navy has consented to loan to the State of North Carolina, the auxiliary cruiser Hornet for the use of the State Naval Militia. The vessel has been at Norfolk undergoing repairs, and will proceed to Wilmington at the date designated by the Governor of North Carolina. A word about the Hornet before she reaches North Carolina waters will be of interest and from Secretary Long's report on the work of the navy during the war with Spain official information is easily obtained.

Before the war the Hornet was the property of the noted railroad magnate, Henry M. Flagler, and was used as his private yacht, then named Alica. She was purchased by the United States on April 6th for $1,170,000, and within less than two months had engaged in two active contests with the Spaniards. The Hornet's record is one of the best made by the converted-yacht style cruiser.

The most serious engagement in which the Hornet took part was at Manzanillo on June 30. The Hist, Wampatuck and Hornet, while making reconnaissance between Cape Cruz and Manzanillo. The Hornet was struck many times and had her main pipe cut. The Wampatuck gallantly towed the Hornet out of danger. Many scars were left on the Hornet by the Spanish shells fired during this engagement.

On July 12, the Hornet having been repaired at Key West, the little vessel took part in another engagement off Manzanillo, and as a result several Spanish gunboats were destroyed.

Pains in the chest when a person has a cold indicate a tendency toward pneumonia. A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on to the chest over the seat of pain will promptly relieve the pain and prevent the threatened attack of pneumonia. Advice to Consumptives

There are three great remedies that every person with weak lungs, or with consumption itself, should understand. These remedies will cure about every case in its first stages; and many of those more advanced. It is only the most advanced that are hopeless. Even these are wonderfully relieved and life itself greatly prolonged.

What are these remedies? Fresh air, proper food and Scott's Emulsion of Cod-Liver Oil with Hypophosphites. Be afraid of draughts but not of fresh air. Eat nutritious food and drink plenty of milk. Do not forget that Scott's Emulsion is the oldest, the most thoroughly tested and the highest endorsed of all remedies for weak throats, weak lungs and consumption in all its stages. Sold by all druggists. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York.

The Story of Home, Sweet Home.

A new story is told of the first time Home Sweet Home was sung in public. When the government attempted to harmonize the contending factions in the dispute on the Georgia-Tennessee boundary line, by establishing a trading post there, John Howard Payne was accused of inciting the dissatisfied Indians and half-breeds and was arrested and carried to the council-house.

An Indian who committed suicide on the grave of his wife and child was buried in the presence of a number of men, among whom was Payne. As the body of the Indian was lowered into the grave, Payne hummed to himself the song that has become so famous.

General Bishop called the young man to him and said sternly: "Where did you learn that song?" "I wrote it myself," answered Payne. "Where did you get the tune?" "I composed that also." "Will you give me a copy of it?" "Certainly." "Well," said the old Indian fighter, "appearance may be against you, but a man who can write a song like that is no incendiary, and I'm going to set you free."

Payne had been living in the house of a neighboring family, and on his return he related the circumstance, and showed the pass that General Bishop had given him. That was the first time that Home, Sweet Home was ever heard in public.

As an emergency medicine, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral takes the lead of all other remedies. For the relief and cure of croup, whooping-cough, sore throat, and the dangerous pulmonary troubles to which the young are so liable, it is invaluable, being prompt to act, sure to cure.

SOLDIERS MUTINOUS.

NEGRO SOLDIERS INTENDED TO PILLAGE MACON AFTER KILLING WHITE CITIZENS.

REGIMENT UNDER ARREST.

Officers of 10th Immunes say the Mutiny is More Serious Than Reported.

Trouble Due to the Failure of Negro Officers to Pass Examinations for Commissions—To Wreak Vengeance on Tenth Immunes—Timely Discovery Prevented the Carrying Out of Plans, and Arrests Followed.

Special from Macon, Ga., says: The people of this city are greatly incensed at the infamous conduct of the negro troops here. The results of their mutiny would have been terribly barbarous had it not been discovered in time.

General Wilson has declared that he will not ask that the Sixth Virginia negro regiment be mustered out as he is satisfied that their misconduct has been partly for the purpose of getting out of the service.

The cause of the trouble is the failure of the officers chosen by the negroes from among their own number to pass examinations for commissions. White officers were then placed in charge, and this aroused a mutinous spirit, which caused the white captains to resign.

The entire regiment is still under arrest, guarded by a battalion of the Tenth Immunes, who have orders to shoot any man who attempts to escape.

Officers of the Tenth Immunes say the mutiny was more serious than has yet been reported; more than a hundred men left camp in small squads, all armed with rifles.

They intended to meet and kill the white provost guard and all white people with whom they came in contact and then pillage the town.

They had also sworn to wreak vengeance on the Tenth Immunes, who would not join the outbreak. Timely discovery prevented the carrying out of these plans and arrests followed.

DONT WANT JIM YOUNG'S REGIMENT.

Macon, Nov. 22.—When the information reached here last night that another negro regiment officered by negroes (the Third North Carolina) was to be sent here from Knoxville, there was great dissatisfaction expressed and the universal decision is that they will have to behave themselves after they arrive in Macon.

From the reports here today, giving an account of the mutiny among them and the killing and wounding of several of the so-called "soldiers" at Knoxville yesterday and other actions of the North Carolina regiment it is not thought that they are any better than the Virginia negroes, the whole regiment of whom are still under arrest and at hard labor, and from them trouble is feared as a result of their coming to Macon.

It is agreed on all hands that the greatest trouble arises from the fact that these two regiments are officered by negroes, negro officers invariably having proved a failure in this war, the first in which they ever participated in the service of the U. S.

With white officers the negro troops are not so bad, but with negroes to command them they are worse than bandits in some respects. They refused to obey orders of their own color, the latter state, but the incompetency of the negro officers is at the bottom of the whole matter.
