A Beautiful Marriage at Berkley Ave. Baptist Church. Berkley Va., Wednesday evening Nov. 22nd 1899.

Mr. Charles H. Culpepper, of Portsmouth, Va., and Miss Florence E. Cox daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Cox, of Berkley, were married by Rev. T. C. Skinner pastor of the church. Miss Mamie E. Cox sister of the bride was maid of honor and Mr. Claude E. Culpepper Jr., cousin of the groom was best man. Messrs. E. L. Cox, W. J. Heard, J. B. Morgan, R. L. Cox, W. C. Culpepper and David Cox Jr., were the ushers.

The wedding march was delightfully rendered by Miss Mamie West. The bride wore a lovely traveling suit of brown cloth trimmed in fur, the church was beautifully decorated with flowers, evergreens and potted plants, and although the church is quite large there was not room for all the people. The bride received a large number of handsome, costly and useful presents; they left immediately via Bay Line steamer on a bridal tour to the northern cities. Happy may they ever be is the wish of the writer.

No Right To Ugliness. The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate the stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at Griggs & Son drug store.

At The Home Bakery this week, mince, apple, lemon and pumpkin pies. Large and small cakes always on hand or your favorite made to order. Saturday we will have besides our usual display, Boston brown bread, fruit cakes, nut cake and Saratoga chips. Leave orders with us for Ice Cream for Thanksgiving dinner, delivered to any part of the city in large or small quantities 163 Road street, phone 109.
