N BUYING PEAS.

You can make two very serious mistakes - you can put price first in consideration, or you can let you convenience decide the question as to where you get the seed upon which your crop depends

Don't make either of these mistakes, for they are really inexcusable Writing to us may be a little trouble, but it's the sort of trouble that saves trouble in the long run; and saving in the cost of seeds is often as everybody knows the poorest kind of economy.

You cannot afford not to have the best of early peas no matter if the cos is a little more, or it you have to take a little trouble o get them.

Tait's Extra EarlyNonpareil and Tait's Extra Early Depot are the two best peas in cultivation.
