BATTLE TO THE DEATH

Negro Murderer Dies Rather Than Surrender.

He shot at Everything in Sight, Killing One Man and Desperately Wounding Two Others.

Macon, Ga., Jan. 22.—Two negroes shot to death and two white men desperately wounded were the casualties in an attempt to arrest a negro murderer here today.

J. H. Butler, colored, is the man who did the most of the shooting and who was himself shot to death. His victims were Armstead Bryant, colored, shot through the heart and instantly killed; B. Zellman, white, shot through the stomach and will probably die and John Reed, white, shot in the neck in a precarious condition.

Butler threatened to kill a negro woman, and when Policeman Pearce attempted to arrest him, began to shoot. The negro ran up Fourth street, one of the busiest streets in Macon, pistol in hand, shooting at everything in sight. His victim was Zellman, then Bryant, and last Reed fell beneath his deadly aim.

In the meantime the sound of the shooting attracted a number of policemen and citizens. When Butler fell mortally wounded, five policemen and fifteen citizens were shooting at him. When examined it was found that five pistol balls had gone completely through his body and there were other wounds.

An ambulance was summoned and the wounded men were taken to the city hospital, while the bodies of the dead men were taken to an undertaking establishment, where the coroner held an inquest.

Butler came to Georgia from North Carolina eight years ago, and was employed on a South Georgia turpentine farm. It is said that about a year ago he killed two negroes at Pinchurst Ga.

The Paper Trust.

The robber Paper trust, which controls nearly all the output of the paper mills of this country, has steadily advanced the price of paper for the past three months until we are now paying about 40 per cent more for the newspaper upon which the Baptist is printed, than we did September 1st. This trust has as a chief cause, a tariff law which lays a heavy import upon all paper material imported from Canada into this country. And we are the sufferers. This unjust tariff and its robber offspring, the Paper Trust, is taking from the pockets of publishers all over America a tax which has reached the point of a heavy burden. This tariff law is a tax on intelligence. Papers and books cost more than ever before. On every newspaper, Bible, Hymn Book, tract and almanac there is an extra cost. The note paper and envelopes of courtship, the invitation for the wedding and the black-bordered announcement of death all pay tribute to this robber tariff, which instead of enriching the government only makes it possible for the paper magnates of America to charge more for their paper. How long will we suffer? There are those who count a word against the trusts as a stone cast against the innocent. Let these defenders of iniquity feel the heavy hand of corporate greed and their tune will change.

Divorced Couple Make Up.

Baltimore, January 20.—After five years of contest in the divorce courts Thomas C. Chappell, a well-known lawyer, and his wife have become reconciled and the husband's suit for divorce was dismissed in the Baltimore County Court today.

Mrs. Chappell is now in Boston, where she has been for the past few years, but will go to New York within the next few days to rejoin her husband, who has taken up his residence in that city. The case has been an extraordinary one. The bill for divorce was filed in March, 1895 by Mrs. Chappell, asking for an absolute separation and divorce. The bill contained about thirty absolute and distinct sections. One of the main allegations being that his wife was laboring under mental difficulties, and that this existed at the time of their marriage. The case has never been tried upon its merits but has been to the Maryland Court of Appeals at Annapolis four times upon questions of alimony, counsel fees, and many complex questions of law.

Transferring Electricity.

The Norfolk Railway and Light Company is having made a special wire and cable to conduct voltage from its enlarged plant, on Cove street, now being erected, to Berkley for electric lighting purposes. The cable will be laid under the eastern branch of Elizabeth river, and the large wire conductor will be protected from contact with the water by a suitable encasement. It will carry at least 2,000 volts of electricity. The transferring of electric power by cables under water for lighting purposes, etc., is not a new thing, but at the same time it is by no means common. The old receiving ship Franklin, lying in the Elizabeth river off the navy-yard, is lighted by electricity transferred from the yard by a cable, with the capacity of 100 volts.

At The Old Year's Grave.

By the grave of the old year stood a little child, with an armful of flowers. The light of the Morning was on his brow, the faith of the Future in his radiant eyes. One by one the flowers fell upon the grave, till it was hidden beneath a crimson canopy. Some were flowers of joy, and some were flowers of tears; some were the roses of sweet song, and some were memories of sighs. But over all there fell the lilies of Love, and that fair flower whose sweeter name is Hope. And gloriously streamed the light from the far, eastern hills. Glad voices floated heavenward. There was a sound of silver trumpets—a melody of bells. And the child still faced the Future, and if a teardrop trembled in his eyes it was kissed away of Light. And he passed, singing, into the hearts and homes of men, heralded by Hope, and welcomed by the music of the rejoicing bells.—Frank Stanton, in Atlanta Constitution.

Consumption

is robbed of its terrors by the fact that the best medical authorities state that it is a curable disease; and one of the happy things about it is, that its victims rarely ever lose hope.

You know there are all sorts of secret nostrums advertised to cure consumption. Some make absurd claims. We only say that if taken in time and the laws of health are properly observed, SCOTT'S EMULSION will heal the inflammation of the throat and lungs and nourish and strengthen the body so that it can throw off the disease.

We have thousands of testimonials where people claim they have been permanently cured of this malady.

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. F. J. Cheney & Co., Props., Toledo, O. Mr. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by their firm.

Murder Out Years Too Late.

Sioux Falls, S. D., January 20.—Information has reached here that Mrs. Van Horn, who recently died in the State of Washington, confessed on her death bed that she murdered her mother, Mrs. Thomas Egan, near this city, September 12th, 1880. For this crime Thomas Egan, the woman's husband, was hanged, protesting his innocence.

The Man to Help.

So many of us forget that it is the weak fellow who is in the ditch, rather than the strong man who is on the throne of partial or pronounced prosperity, who most needs the helping hand of the influential and powerful. So many of us are ready to help the fellow whose pathway is easy, while we will pass by the unfortunate who really needs a helping hand. So many of us are prone to sneer at, if not crush, the man who has been in error and who is trying to do better—to make a new man of himself—while we will throw more sunshine and more material help into the lap of the stalwart citizen.—Augusta Herald.

Best Place for a Married Man.

A Grand, old Mirror, Through Which Both Sides of us are Seen.

The golden setting in which the brightest jewel is "mother." A world of strife shut out, a world of love shut in.

An arbor which shades when the sunshine of prosperity becomes too dazzling; a harbor where the human bark finds shelter in the time of adversity.

Home is the blossom of which heaven is the fruit.

Home is a person's estate obtained without injustice, kept without disquietude; a place where time is spent without repentance and which is ruled by Justice, mercy and love.

A grand, old mirror, through which both sides of us are seen. That source of comfort which youth does not fully appreciate, which the young men and maidens lovingly desire, which the middle-aged generally possess, which the old rightly value.

A hive in which, like the industrious bee, youth gardens the sweets and memories of life for age to meditate and feed upon.

The best place for a married man after business hours. Home is the coziest, kindest, sweetest place in all the world, the scene of our purest earthly joys and our deepest sorrows.

The only spot on earth where the faults and failings of fallen humanity are hidden under the mantle of charity.

An abode in which the inmate, the "superior being called man," can pay back at night with fifty per cent interest every annoyance that has met him in business during the day.

The place where the great are sometimes small and the small often great.

The father's kingdom, the children's paradise, the mother's world.

The jewel casket containing the most precious of all jewels, domestic happiness.

Where you are treated best and you grumble most.

Home is a central telegraph office of human love, into which run innumerable wires of affection, many of which though extending thousands of miles are never disconnected from the one great terminus.

The center of our affections, around which our hearts' best wishes twine.

Home, Sweet Home.

Put Money In Thy Purse.

Many suffering from want of energy, or "that old failing" who put money in his pocket, but get little money come from it, should use Hood's Sarsaparilla, which cleans the blood and gives it life, vigor and power.

Cold Steel Or Death.

There is but one small chance to save your life and that is through an operation," was the awful prospect set before Mrs. I. B. Hunt, of Lime Ridge, Wis., by her doctor after vainly trying to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. He didn't count on the marvellous power of Electric Bitters to cure Stomach and Liver troubles, but she heard of it, took seven bottles, was wholly cured, avoided surgeon's knife, now weighs more and feels better than ever. It's positively guaranteed to cure Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles and never disappoints. Price 50c at Standard Pharmacy.
