There are in North and South Carolina thousands of looms making cloth, every yard of which is ex ported to China. While such conditions exists let the good work go on. Nothing could please us more than to see two mills where there is not but one; and let us all hope that such a condition is not far in the future.—Raleigh Christian Advocate. I have been afflicted with rheumatism for fourteen years and nothing seemed to give any relief. I was able to be around all the time, but constantly suf- fering. I had tried everything I could bear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did, and was im mediately relieved and in a short time cured. I am happy to say that it has not since returned.— JosH EDGAR, Germartown, Cal. For sale by W. W. Griggs &	A statement of the receipts and disbursements of the Shell- fish Commission has been pre- pared for the first time in five years by Chief Clerk Denmark of the State Treasury Depart- ment. From March 12, 1895, to Feb- ruary 20, 1900, the receipts have been $28,890.21, while the dis- bursements during that time have been $24,145.63, leaving a balance of $4,120.25. The following are the amounts received from the counties that have contributed to the commis- sion since 1895 : Carteret	step. The old time negroes know who their friends are. The young ones had better learn the lesson also. Crawled Ninety Miles. Jonathan Graves, of Burling- ton Junction, Mo., who has ap- plied for a pension, has a uni- que record, says an exchange. He was a private in the 112th Illinois Volunteer Infantry, and contracted scurvy in Anderson- ville Prison, losing the use of his legs. While being removed in an ambulance he managed to slip to the ground unnoticed, and crawled on his hands and knees from Goldsboro, N. C., to Newberne, N. C., where there was a Union camp. He covered the ninety miles in seventeen days. When captured he tipped the scales at 175 pounds, but after his long crawl he weighed only ninety pounds. We notice that J. W. Lee, a fellow who called himself the "Irish Evangelist" and who abused and vilified the best peo- ple of every town he polluted by his presence, has left his wife and children destitute in Greens- boro and is now living in aduls tery in Washington City with a Georgia girl he seduced from her home. It is generally this breed of cattle who have so much to say about the wrong doing of their betters and who disgrace every pulpit they preach in by vile tirades of slander, filth and billingsgate.
