THE WAR IN THE PHILIPPINES.

The American Troops Engage the Insurgents and Kill Many of Them.

Manila, May 29.-Major Henry T. Allen, of the Forty-third Infantry, while scouting from Catbalogam, island of Samar, May 9th, drove a party of insurgents from the valleys. Four Americans were killed, including Lieutenant W. H. Evans, who was slain while gallantly leading a charge against the entrenchments. Eleven of the enemy were killed and four were wounded. The town of Caterman, Island of Samar, was attacked at midnight April 30th by a thousand rebels, who entrenched themselves near the town over night. Captain John Cooke, of the Forty-third Regiment, fought the Filipinos for six hours, and afterwards buried 150 of the enemy. One American was killed and one was wounded. The hamlet of Pawin, in the province of Leguna, island of Luzon, the headquarters of General Cailles, was surrounded May 26th by three detachments of the Forty-second Regiment, Thirtyseventh Regiment and Eleventh Cavalry. Only a few of the enemy were encountered, Cailles having departed the day before. Pawin, which was manifestly a rebel stronghold, was burned to the ground. Captain Nordon's scouts and two companies of the Eighteenth Regiment, while scouting May 12th in Western Panay, surprised a number of the enemy near Vaiderama and killed thirtyamong the Americans, but some of them suffered from sunstroke.

London, May 29 .- Lord Roberts is now within a day's march of Johannesburg and General French and General Ian Hamilton fought the Boers from noon until evening on Monday, with what result is now known here.

H. H. J. Whigham, in a dispatch to the Daily Mail, dated May 28th, says: "The demoralization of the Transvaal is remarkable. Panic and confusion prevails everywhere. Every one is weary of the war and full of fear as to the coming of the British. Operations were being carried on for encircling Pretoria with telegraphic communications. Four points in the line of defences were connected with headquarters and with the Staats artillery, five of them. There were no casualties but this apparently was the only defensive measure adopted.
