NATIONAL TICKET.

For President, WILLIAM J. BRYAN.

For Vice President, ADLAI E. STEVENSON

For Elector, C. T. ABERNATHY.

For Congress, JOHN H. SMALL.

BRYAN'S LETTER.

Is direct, forceful, elegant. It is entirely free from sophistry. It bears no marks of the demagogue. There is no dodging on special pleading. It meets all the issues squarely. It presents them in a plain, straight forward manner that impresses the untrained intellect as well as the highly cultured. It is broad, comprehensive, statesman-like the product of a master spirit. It is candid itself. While it seizes the paramount issues and burns them upon the public mind in letters of living fire, it does not retreat from the position of "96" It is a striking evidence of the sincerity and honesty of the writer. It shows that Mr. Bryan has nothing to hide from the people. He is ever ready to disclose to them his aims, his purposes, his political tenets. He can and does trust the people. This letter together with his acceptance speech, forms a masterful presentation of the issues of 1900 and a graphic patronage of the present imperiled condition of our country.

Hon. C. L. Abernethy Democratic Presidential Elector, Will Address The People Of The First Congressional DISTRICT,

- At the following times and places:
- Edenton, Chowan Co., Monday October 1st, 1 p. m.

What Not to Say.

Do not say, "I can't eat." Take Hood's Sarsaparilla and say, "I am hungry all the time, and food never hurts me." Never say to your friends that you are as tired in the morning as at night. If they happen to be sharp they will tell you Hood's Sarsaparilla cures that tired feeling. Do not say, "My face is full of pimples." You are quite likely to be told by some one, "There's no need of that, for Hood's Sarsaparilla cures pimples." It is improper and unnecessary to say, "My health is poor and my blood is bad." Hood's Sarsaparilla will give you good blood, and good health will follow as a natural consequence

Bold Robbery at South Mills.

Wednesday morning sometime between six and ten o'clock the money drawer in the desk of Messrs Brothers & Co. at South Mills was broken open and between two and three hundred dollars stolen. Ed. Wooten a young negro man who had been at work at the mill was seen near the office early in the morning and as he had disappeared, suspicion was directed towards him. His tracts were followed to this city where he was found about one o'clock P. M. in company with another negro, Albert Everitt. Both were arrested and searched but no money found on either. The negro Wooten was "toting" a gun however and he will be held for Court on charge of carrying concealed weapons. We hope the right culprit will be found and the money recovered. The Messrs Brothers, are among our most industrious and energetic men and the loss of so much money by theft would be a great hardship to them.

A Sad Sight.

On last Thursday evening as we were returning home an old lady boarded the train at Greensboro, who was very much distressed. She had lost her pocket book, containing all her money, railroad ticket, trunk check, and was in a distressing situation. She claimed to be from Raleigh and had been up to Asheville to visit her relatives. The conductor passed her, on condition that she pay her fare after she got to Raleigh. This old lady told us in a distressed tone of voice that this was her second trip on the train and each time she lost her ticket and that she did not intend to get on another train as long as she lived.—Burlington N.Ws.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a Great Favorite.

The soothing and healing properties of this remedy, its pleasant taste and prompt and permanent cures have made it a great favorite with people everywhere. It is especially prized by mothers of small children for colds, croup and whooping cough, as it always affords quick relief, and as it contains no opium or other harmful drug, it may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by Dr. J. E. Wood.

EDENTON.

- Superior Court convenes here next Monday.

- Miss Mary Bond has gone to Greensboro Female College

"Delays are Dangerous."

A small pimple on your face may seem of little consequence, but it shows your blood is impure, and impure blood is what causes most of the diseases from which people suffer. Better heed the warning given by the pimple and purify your blood at once by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. This medicine cures all diseases due to bad blood, including scrofula and salt rheum.

Eating and Sleeping.

Food supplies the substance for repairing the wastes of the body, and gives strength. Sleep affords the opportunity for these repairs to be made. Both are necessary to health. If you can't eat and sleep, take Hood's Sarsaparilla. It creates a good appetite and tones the digestive organs, and it gives the sweet, restful sleep of childhood. Be sure to get Hood's. Billiousness is cured by Hood's Pills. 25c.
