Little Shelton Woodard is very ill with pneumonia.

The fixtures for the new bank have arrived and are being put in place.

Don't forget "Mrs. Jolley's Wax Work's" at the skating rink, Friday night.

The shingle mill, belonging to the Messrs. Stong's is at work, turning out shingles.

A few more days and the Legislature of North Carolina will adjourn. The sooner the better for the tax payers.

The catch of frozen fish around Morehead City, during the freeze was very large, and also were the sales.

The fishermen around this section are not fully discouraged, they are mending up their nets, and will soon have plenty fish in the market.

Mrs. Mary Cox, wife of Thos. Cox, who at one time resided in this town, died last Friday, at her home near Winfall. We sympathize with the bereaved.

The bank and Hon. T. G. Skinner's law office which are under the same roof have had the paint brush applied, which makes the building present a very handsome appearance. Let others follow.

Cupid has aimed his arrow and some tender hearts have been pierced and ere many days shall have passed by, two fair maids will have changed their names, becoming the better half of two gallant gentlemen.

The planing mill we learn has orders for twenty-five car loads of lumber. This looks like we are having heavy shipments of dressed lumber from Hertford, and that some one is doing a lot of building.

Messrs. Bradham and Brock distributed Thursday according by the plans published in the Journal, five hundred loaves of bread and seven hundred and fifty pounds of meat. Five hundred applicants, nearly all colored, were the recipients of the charity.—Newbern Journal.

The services in the different churches in the town are growing more interesting, if we are to judge from the large number of our people that attend. We like the spirit of church work in Hertford, and we trust that the day is not far distant when all people, in the strength of the Lord will be up and doing what their hands find to do.

Read the advertisement of Davis, Hill & Co., in another column. This is a reliable firm and we hope that our readers may give them a share of their patronage, which they deserve.

Your attention is called to the three notices in another column. One for The Hertford Banking Company; the other two are land sales by Mr. W. S. Blanchard and Hon. T. G. Skinner.

A large number of Hertford people attended the Concert at Winfall, last Friday night. They say it was a success in every way, and that the audience was very large. Much praise is given the ladies and gentlemen who took a part in the Concert.

Mrs. P. M. White, of this county, passed away very quietly at her home, after a short illness, last week. Mrs. White was in her 56th year, and in this life she tried to exemplify her risen Lord and Saviour, and in her feeble way she endeavored to point others to the Lamb of God, that taketh away the sins of the world. She leaves three daughters, one of whom is Miss Clara White, of this town, and a host of friends to mourn their loss. May our Heavenly Father guard and protect these three daughters, and at last bring them to that rest that remains to the people of God.

We would like to give a lengthy notice on the Concert last night, in the Court House, but we go to press too early, to give such as we would like too. Suffice it to say that it was another evening of pleasure that our people know how to appreciate, judging from the large number present. The music by Miss Emily Skinner and poses plastique by Misses Nellie Davis, Edna Granbery, Isa Granbery, Lula Hayes, Ethel McMullan, Jennie Newby, Bessie Riddick, Nellie Riddick, Lucile Simpson, Maggie Skinner, Neppie Toms, Emma Trotman and Mae Winslow were superb. "Pussy Want's a Corner" was side splitting, every one acting their part well.

PERSONALS.

—Miss Maud Leigh is visiting friends, in town this week.

—Mr. Ned Skinner is home on a short visit to relatives.

—Mr. W. O. Speight and family leave this week for their new home, near Edenton.
