LOCAL AND OTHER NEWS.

See notice to shippers in this column.

We are glad to see Mr. Casey out again.

Mr. T. D. Saunders has been quite ill, for the past few days.

The mail leaves here now at 2 o'clock, making it fifteen minutes later.

For want of space, several important articles are crowded out this week.

Mr. T. C. Raleigh was in town Monday. He says he will be back again next week.

Work on the new brick stores has been commenced. The ground was broken Monday last.

The mill of Messrs. Fleetwood & Jackson was shut down on Monday to repair her boilers.

Invitations for the commencement exercises of the Greensboro State Normal school are out.

The engine for the new boat of Messrs. Thatch & Major has arrived. The boiler is expected in a few days.

Our colored citizens will lay the corner stone at their Academy today. They anticipate a grand time.

The town officials met last Friday night and transacted some very important business, which will be seen at an early day.

We hear that Mrs. J. W. Hayes, who resided in this town a few years ago, died last week at her home in Washington, N. C.

The three tramps that were in town last Wednesday are supposed to have taken "a sleeper" on the North bound freight, that night.

Mr. T. J. Jackson, of Edenton, a first-class brickmason, has taken the contract to do the brick work on the new stores, which are now in progress.

While playing a game of base ball at E. City, last week, the first basemen, of the juniors, Mr. Cranford, broke one of his legs in sliding to third base. Both teams belonged to E. City.

The following are the votes as cast for all parties that ran for Mayor and Commissioners, for the town of Hertford, at the last election: For Mayor T. F. Winslow,

106. For Commissioners, W. S. Blanchard, 104; J. J. Fleetwood, 104; I. N. White, 104. For Mayor J. L. Whedbee, 82. For Commissioners, U. W. Speight, 86; W. H. Ward, 85; J. C. White, col., 87.

A young men's prayer meeting has been organized in the M. E. church. Their first meeting will be held next Friday night. These meetings are intended to help the young men to speak in public and do other church work that they may be called upon to perform. Let the good work go on, until all young men of Hertford are into the fold of the church, and into active work for the Master.
