A DREAM.

How Strange it seems—our meeting to-night,

How much we crowded in that moments space;

I caught one glimpse of a beloved face—

And you were lost to sight.

You left upon my lips a hasty kiss—

I felt the pressure of your dear, white hand;

When suddenly my clouded life seemed spanned

With a most perfect bliss.

But I was proud, and so I turned away

From lips, that I would give my life to touch.

Oh! why is it, when loving you so much

I did not bid you stay?

I could not see you darling, for the dark;

But when I felt the touch of your dear face,

I knew that in your love's safe resting place

My soul had found its ark.

God sends me now and then a gleam of light,

To brighten up the path I did not choose;

And for my hope of heaven I would not loose

This memory of to-night.

NOTICE TO TEACHERS!

Edenton Fair Notes.

The premium list of the Edenton Agricultural and Fish Fair, is before us. The book contains 60 pages and is well gotten up.

The fair will be formally opened by T. C. Badham, Esq., and Dr. W. R. Capehart, President of the society.

There will be an excursion run on Wednesday and Thursday during the fair, by the N.S. & R.R.

The fair will be opened next Tuesday and close Friday following.

The programme for each day will be very interesting and exciting.

SAM JONESISMS.

I'm currying you Bud.

Dancing hurts society and damns the immortal soul.

If newspapers get the drop on you, you had better git.

I enjoy making stingy devils turn loose their nickels.

If you preachers will hold while I skin, hides will go down.

Methodists are like patent medicines—have to shake 'em before using.

A man that votes for liquor license was not fit to be the father of a litter of pups.

The Jury system is a farce. Can't convict one rascal in ten before a Jury in this country.

When you see a member of the church go into a saloon he belongs to the devil from snout to tail.

What you preachers been doing to let this bar-room curse remain? Shoot Luke or give up the gun.

People get the best seats and don't pay a cent. If he were that way he would roost farther back.

If a man has money he is a gentleman, if none, he is a vagabond. Even the churches look at it that way.

Money makes everything go that has hair. Even the bald-headed man will move pretty lively for it sometimes.

Importation of Shoes.

The Progressive Farmer gives figures showing that 33,168 pairs of shoes have been shipped into North Carolina in the last four weeks from Boston. This is at the rate of 8,292 pairs for each week, and 1,382 per day for each working day in those weeks.

Such a showing as this should put men with money to thinking. Why should North Carolina continue to export hides as is now done and then buy back shoes and other needful articles made from the leather? Why not tan the leather at home and then work it up into articles of utility that are an absolute necessity. The freight on the leather when shipped away would be saved, the returning freight after being manufactured would be saved, and numbers of men at home who want employment would receive it through this means.

An average shoe factory, it is said turns out 300 pairs per day—hence the shipments from Boston alone at this time, into our State equals more than the product of four average factories. Money leaves the State for these shoes which might be kept at home to our advantage.

BABY BURNED.

Gentlemen—I am pleased to speak a word for Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil. My baby was burned a few months ago, and after trying all other remedies I applied your "Oil" and the first application gave relief, and in a few days the sore was well. I also used the oil on my stock and find that it is the best remedy for this purpose that I have ever used.
Yours,
C. T. LEWIS.
