We are no alarmist, but we desire to warn the Democrats at the witset against over-confidence and again t the enemy. Statements and we will carry the State for the 20000, more or less, are quite sale by W A. Leggett, Druggist. c menon, and there is an air of supreme confidence in ous succe s prevading the Democratic hosts that is quite encourging. But we should remember the Scripture which saith: "Let not him boast that putteth on his armor like him that taketh it off." We verily believe-and we say it not for publication merely, but we sincerely will belive it—that the amendment and our State ticket will win. But this confidence includes work-work without ceasing on the part of Democrats and all friends of good of election. Without that we canno. win.—Statesville Landmark.
