CURE OF CONSUMPTION, NEURAL GIA, PAIN IN THE SIDE &c. BALTIMORE, May 1, 1852. MORTIMER & MOWBRAY; Gentleon-It is with pleasure I can testify to the Treat healing powers of Hampron's VEGETABLE TINCTURE. My wife had been afflicted for three are laboring under a constant hacking Cough, with a most violent Pain in the right Side, Neurelgia of the head, and Dimness of sight; very little rest day or night, and much emaciation, and to all appearances a rapid Consumption inevita-ble. We had the most eminent physician in Annapelis, but his medicine did not give her any relief at all, but growing worse if any change in the least: and after having read one of your pamphiets, in July last, she concluded to try Hameon's VEGETABLE TINETURE, and after taking hat two bettles of which (under a kind Providense) we perceived a great change for the better; her appetite improved, her skin became quite clear, coughs, pains, neuralgia, &c., extirely lett her, and by the time she had taken a few bettles more she was completely cured, and is now in the Impotency—Impulsance.

One of the most frequent penalties paid by those who give unrestrained license to their pastendance. One of my physicians frankly told me sions, is a loss of vivile power. The young, unaware of the fearful results that may enoue, are but too spt to commit excesses. Impetency may and does oceur from stricture, gravel, deposites in the urine, and from many other causes; but by far, the most frequent source of it is abuse of the sexual organs, by excessive venery or self-polintion-particularly the last. Too great excitement of the genital organs is, however, productive of other effects besides premature impotency; it tends to derange the digestive functions and weaken the physical and mental powers.
