Announcement

This is to announce to the public that Mr. W. S. Price is not connected in any way with us, in our Undertaking and Funeral Directing business.

Since the Fall of 1932, Mr. Walter Stepp, who has the reputation of doing very high class embalming, has been with us in this capacity. He is assisted by Donald Lee Moore, younger son of D. F. Moore. Young Moore is a graduate of The Gup-ton Jones College of Embalming, Nashville, Tenn., receiving his diploma from this recognized institution on Dec. 22, 1932. He has the distinction of making the highest grade ever to be recorded in the college, his final grade being 99.7.

Gup-ton Jones College is rated as the best in the U. S. and Young Mr. Moore made the best scholastic record in the history of the school. The examination included full treatise of the following subjects, all of which are necessary in First Class Embalming—Embalming, Plastic Surgery, Anatomy, Pathology, Chemistry, Bacteriology, Sanitary Science, Mortuary Law, Funeral Directing, Business Ethics and Histology.

Donald Lee Moore was selected from a group of 47 as president of the class, and is an addition to the funeral directory of

NEGRO SCHOOLS IN COUNTY FIELD DAY

First Event of Kind Is Staged At Rosenwald School With Hundreds Attending

Between four and five hundred people witnessed the first Field Day of all the negro schools in the county, which was held at Rosenwald school Friday, March 3rd. Rosenwald, Everett, and Glade Creek schools participated in the events, which began at 9:30.

The exercises opened with holy devotion led by Rev. Hartsell, who gave a beautiful and inspiring exposition on the life of Moses. Mr. J. E. Jones, superintendent of the county schools, spoke in high terms of the first Field Day.

After the devotionals the literary battle took place among the contestants of the various schools. The following are the winners in the literary contests: Word recognition, Waile Camp of Glade Creek; sentence recognition, Alyce Benjamin of Rosenwald; 4th grade spelling, Esther Darity of Rosenwald; 5th grade spelling, Ruby Mills of Rosenwald; 7th grade arithmetic, Cornelius Hunt of Rosenwald; 8th grade composition, Edna Bailey of Rosenwald; Dramatization, Margaret Benjamin, Martha Price, Herbert Benjamin, Helen Johnson, Louvenia Johnson, Charles Allen, James Smith, Carl Moezy, and Mary Benjamin, all of Rosenwald school.

In the gymnastic and athletic events the following won the prizes: 50 yd. dash, Booker T. Gash of Glade Creek; Broad jump, B. Gash of Glade Creek; High Jump B. Gash; potato race, E. Mills, E. Hawkins, F. Hawkins, Nellie L. Smith, all of Rosenwald. In the relay races F. Hawkins M. Kilgore, J. Ballard, D. Pierce, all of Rosenwald, came out ahead. In the sack race Herman Kilgore of Rosenwald won first place. In another series of 50 yd. dashes, the following won: Fannie Hawkins, Jannie Ballard, and Elliott Benjamin, all of Rosenwald.

In the afternoon Mayor Ramsey of Brevard delivered an address on the subject, "The Value of a High School Education." It was a timely and thoughtful speech.

C. E. Burney, principal of Rosenwald school and general manager of the Field Day, wishes to express his appreciation to the several white men who acted as judges of the miscellaneous contests. The judges were Rev. R. L. Alexander, Rev. Paul Hartsell, and Mr. Harry Clayton.

CONNESTEE NOTES

One of the most enjoyable events of the season was a birthday dinner given in honor of Mrs. Ed Hamilton by her children and in-laws, namely, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Dean, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Shipman, Mr. and Mrs. Gertha Shipman, Mr. and Mrs. Win-fred Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hamilton, Grace and Margie Hamilton. Mrs. Hamilton's three beautiful granddaughters must not be omitted from the list, for they attracted much attention and played a big part in the amusement of the day. When Mrs. Hamilton returned from Sunday school the children had gathered in, bringing with them boxes of good eats and birthday presents. Other visitors of the Hamiltons were Mrs. Denn, Miss Hybernia Shipman and two escorts, and Mrs. F. Henderson and daughter Edna Mae.

Mrs. Ethel Burns is improving after being critically ill for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Tinsley are moving with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Tinsley, and will be with them until their home is built.

Misses Florence and Florida Holden spent Sunday with their sister, Mrs. Mynerva Hogsed.

Mrs. G. W. Whitmore's finger is considerably better. She has been under the doctor's care for nine weeks, but says she will not have to go to the office any more. Mrs. Whitmore was a caller at the Henderson home Monday.

Mitchell Holden has been sick, but is much better now.

Miss Marion Henderson was a Brevard visitor Saturday.

It seems Sunday was a great day for visiting, but no wonder it was such a lovely day. Mr. and Mrs. Gillespie and family had a number of visitors. They were as follows: Mrs. Sam Gillespie, Misses Evelyn and Mildred McIntosh, Edna Mae Henderson, Ella Mae Scruggs, and Mrs. Kate Lypsey Henderson. Nola is improving rapidly after her operation.
