DRYS TO MEET HERE, FORCES TO ORGANIZE

Meeting Will Be Held Sunday Afternoon At Brevard Baptist Church

Call is issued by the Rev. J. K. Henderson, well known Baptist minister of the county, to all people who are interested in fighting for retention of the eighteenth amendment, and for the strict enforcement of the dry laws, to meet at the Brevard Baptist church on Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

A special invitation is issued by Mr. Henderson and other leaders in the county for temperance, to all ministers, Sunday School workers and others interested, to attend the meeting and assist in formulating plans to combat the wet elements of the community.

It was pointed out by the Rev. Mr. Henderson, that if people here are to really show their colors in the fight against legalizing whiskey now is the time to make a start, a perfect working organization being necessary.

No State or County fishing license is required.

Remittance should be secured in the form of money order made payable to the Treasurer of the United States.

Permits may be secured from Forest Supervisor's office in the Federal building at Asheville, or from game wardens in the field.

FORD C. COX DIES AT HOME OF DAUGHTER

Ford C. Cox, 85, died Thursday afternoon at 4:45 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. R. P. Kilpatrick. He died suddenly after an illness of several months.

Mr. Cox was born in Greenville county, South Carolina. He was a son of the late William and Susan Cox, and was well known throughout North and South Carolina. His wife, the late Mrs. Emily LaMance Cox, died 23 years ago.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at Middle River church in Greenville county (of which he was a member.) Rev. Paul Hartsell, pastor of the Brevard Baptist church, and Rev. W. S. Price officiated. Interment was in the church cemetery.

Surviving are four daughters and three sons, as follows: Mrs. R. P. Kilpatrick, Brevard, Mrs. T. M. Jameson, Easley, S. C., Mrs. S. H. Morgan, Seattle, Wash., Mrs. J. C. Mixson, Charleston, S. C., Elzie B. Cox and Frank W. Cox, Seattle, Wash., and Billie Cox, Charleston, South Carolina.

Serving as pallbearers were his grandsons: Robert Kilpatrick, Edward Kilpatrick, Harold Kilpatrick, Carl Jameson, Randolph Jameson and M. D. Cox. Kilpatrick and Sons were in charge of funeral arrangements.

BAPTIST MEETING TO BE HELD THIS MONTH

The Rev. Paul Hartsell, moderator of the Transylvania Baptist Association, wishes to announce through The Times that the Association will meet at Little River Baptist church on Wednesday and Thursday, August 16 and 17.

Mr. Hartsell notified all clerks early this week that the association would meet on the 17 and 18, and wishes to correct this statement to read August 16 and 17.

PATTON ORCHESTRA HEARD OVER WFBC

Tom Patton and his "Florida Collegians" orchestra were heard in a thirty minute broadcast from WFBC Greenville, S. C., Saturday evening, beginning at 7:15.

Tom and his orchestra are winning prominence in various sections of Western North Carolina and upper South Carolina, playing three to five dance engagements each week.

The orchestra is playing each Friday night at Caesar's Head lodge for dances that are increasing in popularity, and each Tuesday night at the Recreation Center in Brevard, where great throngs of young people from this and adjoining sections are enjoying themselves to the fullest. Young folks from Hendersonville, Asheville and Greenville are attending the dances at the Recreation Center.

N R A Receiving Fine Support; Many Firms Are Cooperating

Several Transylvania county firms are now displaying the blue eagle, denoting that they are cooperating with President Roosevelt's National Recovery Administration, while others have signed the pledge and are expecting their banners at once.

The Gloucester Lumber company store at Rosman was the first in the county to have the NRA signs displayed, theirs being on the windows early Tuesday morning. R. H. Plummer & Company, Brevard, was second, with Sam Allison at the City Market, third. While the A. & P. Tea company stores in Brevard did not have their blue and red signs ready for Tuesday morning, they opened their doors at eight o'clock, hand-painted signs being placed on the windows late Monday afternoon to the effect that they were complying with the code. The Variety Store and the two beauty shops, the Harper Method shop and Jeanne's Beauty shop, H. R. Walker Ins., The Fashion, Long's Drug store, R. F. Tharp, Old Plummer Co. were also under the voluntary agreement Tuesday. Others listed during Wednesday day includes B. & B. Feed & Seed company, Austin's Studio, and Bradley's. A complete check-up of business places in the county was not made Wednesday, but is believed that several others than those listed here are operating under the code.

Reports from all sections of the United States are to the effect that business people in general are cooperating and that already more than a million workers have been placed on jobs through the workings of the NRA, with other millions having received increased wages.

It is expected that a meeting of garage men and filling station operators will be held within a few days, along with other lines that have not worked out their codes.

Several consumers in Brevard, that is, those people who buy, have signed the pledge to buy only from concerns displaying the banners, and a concerted drive is expected to be made at an early date to procure more pledges from housewives and others to the effect that they will trade only with NRA members.

The agreement that is being signed by thousands of concerns over the nation is given below:

During the period of the President's emergency reemployment drive

OVERCHARGING HURT TO THIS COMMUNITY

Ohio Man Says 25 Cents More Than Conestee Should Charge Sightseers

The Times is in receipt of a letter from Norman W. Reed, of Toledo, Ohio, who spent several weeks in this section this summer with his family, in his letter to The Times, Mr. Reed calling attention to the fact that he deems charges for seeing Conestee Falls excessive.

Mr. Reed, secretary of the Toledo, Ohio, Kiwanis club, brought a party of friends with him from his home in the North and stopped at the Mt. Toxaway Lodge. He was very fond of sight-seeing and stated that among the great attractions here are the waterfalls.

In his letter Mr. Reed points out that excessive rates charged for viewing the falls are hurtful to the entire community. One paragraph from the Reed letter follows:

"The only discordant note in our whole lot was the fact that Conestee Falls was practically shut off to the vacationing public inasmuch as a fee of 25 cents apiece is, to my mind, entirely unwarranted. It is regrettable that so many of our fine views are being closed to the public for strictly mercenary considerations."

BAND CONCERT WILL BE HELD THURSDAY

Band concert will be held again Thursday night on the court house lawn, the program to start at eight o'clock. No concert was held last Thursday night due to the rain, but a number of people were present, it having been announced that a concert would be held.

Orderly crowds attend the concert, this phase of the entertainment being very noticeable, especially so with the large numbers attending.

SHERIFF WOOD IMPROVED FOLLOWING OPERATION

Sheriff Tom Wood was reported to be resting well at Biltmore hospital, Asheville, Wednesday afternoon. He underwent an operation Wednesday morning at the Asheville hospital, where he has been receiving treatment for several days. Former Sheriff T. E. Patton is in the office during the absence of Mr. Wood.

LOCAL PEOPLE WILL ENTER DANCE FETE

Transylvania county will be represented in the annual folk fete on Thursday and Friday nights of this week, a dance team and string band to take part in the contests which will be entered by teams from all sections of Western North Carolina.

Dancers, singers and artists with the banjo, the fiddle, the guitar, the mandolin and other instruments will journey to Asheville to take part in the event, from practically every part of Western North Carolina. Every county west of the Blue Ridge Mountains will be represented in the annual fete, by dancing groups and other performers.

Teams of eight couples each will dance the dances of pioneer days, dances which have been preserved through centuries in the history of America, by the mountain people. Mountain musicians will render the tunes of equal antiquity, which have been in the repertoire of every mountain minstrel since the settlement of the mountain country by white immigrants.

REGULATIONS SLACK FOR C. C. C. CAMPERS

J. Wade Dickson, farmer and community leader of Route 3, is of the opinion that the C. C. C. camps should be put under more strict regulations insofar as leave of absence is concerned.

Mr. Dickson, who, in the first place is a foe to strong drink, says that some of the boys, and this number increasing from week to week, are "parading" up and down the highways in cars of more or less decrepit state, and are a menace to traffic, and to say the least are not truly representative of the government in their "carry-ins" on.

Contrary to reports that have been in circulation from various unreliable sources, the government will start work immediately on building a large dam at Cove Creek in Tennessee, the project to be government-built instead of by contract as was at first contemplated.

Reports to the effect that the Cove Creek dam could not be built on account of faulty earth formations were shown automatically with announcement on Monday to the effect that the project was to be started at once. There are faulty formations, the government engineers report, but not of sufficient nature to cause serious trouble.

Approximately $35,000,000 is to be expended on the project, this to include material, labor, acquisition of land, etc.

DOG LICENSE MUST BE PAID IN BREVARD

Woe unto the little doggie in Brevard that is caught without a license tag adorning its neck ten days hence—for his life will soon be over.

Order was made by the board of aldermen in their meeting on Monday night to the effect that Chief Bert Freeman shoot such "strays," or dogs without license, on and after ten days notice for failure of their masters to buy tags, which cost one dollar each for male and two dollars for female dogs.

PRISON CAMP TO BE BUILT IN COMMUNITY

A prison camp to cost between $18,000 and $20,000 will be erected in Transylvania county within the next thirty days, according to announcement made Tuesday by George Ross Pou, of Raleigh, executive director of the state highway and public works commission.

The camp to be erected in Transylvania, along with six other camps of like nature in western counties, will house from 75 to 100 men and will include sufficient acreage to raise truck crops for the prisoners.

Director Pou, accompanied by Frank Miller of Waynesville, member of the highway commission from this district, J. C. Walker, Asheville division highway engineer, and Oscar Pitts, of the Prison department, were in the county Monday and inspected several locations, but made no announcement as to their recommendations.

It is the intention of the highway department to bring state prisoners here and use them in constructing and maintaining highways.

ORR FAMILY WILL MEET IN HENDERSONVILLE 27TH

Annual Orr reunion will be held at Sapphire, two miles east of Hendersonville, on the fourth Sunday in August.

A cordial invitation is extended to all Orrs and Orr connections to attend this gathering, August 27, and to bring with them dinner baskets. A good program is being arranged for this all-day reunion.

FLOWER SHOW DATE SET FOR AUGUST 18

Annual Event Draws Many Entries—Valuable Prizes Are Being Offered

Final arrangements are being made for the annual flower show, to be held here Friday, August 18, Brevard's outstanding summer event sponsored by the Women's Civic club.

A large number of valuable prizes have been donated by various firms and individuals for winners in the different entries. These prizes will be on display at an early date in the Woman's Exchange rooms, and a list of the prizes for the different classifications will be published soon.

The garden committee, of which Mrs. John Maxwell is chairman, is directly responsible for the flower show, and it is requested by this committee that all ladies of the town and county make preparations now for entering any home grown flowers, potted plants, wild flowers or such other exhibits as they are able to secure for the show.

The prize committee, of which Mrs. T. Coleman Galloway is chairman, states that a few more prizes are needed and would be glad of donations of bulbs, plants or shrubbery to be used for this purpose.

Final plans for the flower show will be made Monday afternoon at the regular meeting of the Women's Civic club, and it is urged that as many members as possible attend this meeting.

MONEY SAVING SALE BY R. H. PLUMMER

R. H. Plummer and Company on Broad street announce a "money saving sale" in this issue of The Times, and are making exceptional offers on staple merchandise during their special event.

Bob Plummer, manager, sets out some facts that ought to appeal to folks in his advertisement when he says that he cannot replace the goods he is offering at the price he is now selling them.

Cotton goods, and cotton content materials are necessarily advancing with the more than doubled price of cotton within the past few months and added to this after August 31 will also be a process tax of a little over four cents per pound. Other materials are climbing with cotton, so it is an apt time for bargain buying from a stock that was purchased before the high prices went into effect.

CIVIL COURT SESSION CONVENES MONDAY

Civil term Superior court, which convened here Monday morning for a two weeks' term, will probably adjourn Thursday and will reconvene next Monday morning, a number of cases, set for trial this week having been continued or otherwise disposed of.

Judge Michael Schenk of Hendersonville, is presiding, with several out of town lawyers present the first three days. Jury for the second week includes:

G. W. Whitmore, W. S. Lanford, G. D. Shuford, H. Hedrick, James W. Dickson, F. G. Norton, Wallis Bryant, W. J. Ray, J. D. Bryson, C. E. Wike, H. C. Baynard, S. L. Barnett, Elbert J. Owen, C. B. Mitchell, J. R. Wright, T. E. Patton, Jr., Freeman Hayes, W. W. Gillespie.

LOCAL BOY WINS IN TENNIS TOURNAMENT

HENDERSONVILLE, Aug. 2.—Duncan MacDougald, of Brevard, Princeton University sophomore, won the Hendersonville city tennis tournament Monday morning by defeating George Fain in the finals, 6-3, 6-3, 8-6.

MacDougald had advanced thru the semi-final round by defeating Ernest Ewbank, defeating champion on Saturday afternoon, 5-7, 6-4, 8-6, 6-1, and by virtue of his play against Ewbank he entered the finals this morning as favorite. He was seeded No. 3 in the tournament.

MacDougald was staidier than his opponent this morning and breezed through the first two sets. In the third, however, he found the going harder and finally pulled the set out after being down at 4-5, and 5-6. He squared the match at 6-all and broke service on the 13th game.

In the consolation this morning, Pete Stokes, of Hendersonville, defeated Arnold Rubin of Miami.

T. J. LUPTON VICTIM OF APPENDICITIS; IS BURIED ON TUESDAY

Transylvania County Home Owner Had Many Friends In This Section

Transylvania county lost a valuable friend in the death of T. J. Lupton who died Monday morning at Lyday Memorial hospital, Brevard, following an operation for appendicitis and peritonitis on last Thursday.

Stricken while at his summer home at Sapphire, Mr. Lupton was brought to Brevard in an ambulance, accompanied by his physician, Dr. Raymond Wallace of Chattanooga, Tennessee, home of Mr. Lupton. An operation was immediately performed by Dr. Wallace, but from the beginning no hope was held out for the recovery of Mr. Lupton. Again on Sunday an operation was performed by Dr. Wallace and Dr. Griffith of Asheville in an effort to relieve intestinal obstruction, but the aged man was unable to overcome the poison that had been sapping his strength for some time and death came Monday morning at 5:20.

The body was carried to Asheville Monday morning, and taken from there to the winter home of the deceased in Chattanooga where funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon by the Rev. Dr. T. S. McCollie and the Rev. Dr. James Fowler, both of Chattanooga. Interment was made in the Forest Hill cemetery near the home.

Surviving are the wife, and one son, Carter Lupton, both of Chattanooga, and both of whom were at the bedside of Mr. Lupton when he passed away.

The deceased was an outstanding business man and capitalist of the South, interested in various lines of manufacturing and other business enterprises. He has been coming to Transylvania county for years, maintaining a summer home here which he has occupied each summer together with his family and a large number of friends for several weeks duration.

A native of Virginia, he was one of Tennessee's wealthiest men. Mr. Lupton began his career as a lawyer, being admitted to the Tennessee bar in 1866. He was vice president of the Chattanooga Medicine company from 1891 to 1906 and had served as chairman of the board of the Dixie Mercantile company, chairman of the First National bank of Chattanooga and president of the Coca-Cola Bottling company of that city.

In addition to his contributions to Oglethorpe University he gave liberally to the University of Chattanooga, Baylor school, Sewanee University, Agnes Scott college, churches and charitable societies.

Mr. Lupton was a trustee of Fea-body college, Agnes Scott college, Oglethorpe University, and the University of Chattanooga.

Twelve hundred acres of mountain land comprise the beautiful Lupton estate in the Sapphire section, two fine lakes on the property being among the show places of the county. All-time caretakers were in charge of the estate, with Wattle Reid as supervisor. The entire section of Upper Transylvania has benefited from the residence of the Lupton family in the community and the deceased had numerous friends throughout the county.

APPROPRIATIONS SET FOR EXPENDITURES

Debt Service Fund Is Major Item in Operating Town of Brevard

After lengthy discussion by all members of the board, appropriation resolutions were adopted by the town aldermen in their meeting on Monday night calling for a general expense fund of $21,283.23, and a debt service requirement of $180,486.96, which will set the tax rate for the year 1933 in the neighborhood of $1.70 on the hundred.

After going over the budget requirements for general or current expenses the board adopted the budget as presented by City Clerk Harry Patton with no changes, all items appearing, having been cut to the minimum.

Debt service requirements came in for much discussion, with Aldermen Ralph Duckworth and R. E. Kilpatrick for making a drastic cut in the debt service budget, but were outvoted by Aldermen Harris, Trantham and Macfie.

The tax rate will be officially set within the next couple of weeks.

Y. T. H. F. MEMBERS TO MEET HERE SATURDAY

All members of the Brevard chapter Y. T. H. F. are urged to be present at a meeting to be held in the agriculture rooms of Brevard High school Saturday evening at eight o'clock.

Professor Julian Glazener, instructor, is especially anxious that all boys be present as plans for the annual trip will be made at this meeting.
