T. A. PICNIC HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR

Generally pronounced the most successful picnic ever given by the Parent-Teacher association, was that of Friday afternoon and evening, when the parents entertained the teachers of the Brevard schools at Camp Wabbe. Around 100 parents and teachers and children were present to enjoy the annual event.

A bountiful supper was served in the camp dining room cafeteria style, after which the group reassembled near the banks of the beautiful camp lake, where coffee and cocoa was served on tables by members of the Girl Scout troops.

Mrs. J. E. Loftis and Mrs. J. M. Allison were members of the entertainment committee, and Mrs. M. M. Feaster, Mrs. J. B. Jones and Mrs. T. D. Grinshaw served on the transportation committee. Mrs. J. B. Pickelsimer, president of the P. T. A., was general chairman in charge of the delightful affair.

Boating and swimming was enjoyed on the lake during the afternoon, and other forms of recreation pleasantly occupied the time.

Officials of the Parent-Teacher association expressed themselves as being particularly grateful to Mr. and Mrs. Hinton McLeod for their generous offer in the use of the camp for this occasion, and for their gracious hospitality.

CLASS OF '29 HAS ENJOYABLE REUNION

(By Tom Mitchell, Secretary)
First reunion of the Brevard high school class of '29 was held last Friday at White Pine camp, Pisgah National Forest.

A large crowd foregathered at the high school steps soon after the close of the day's classes, and after a hubbub of kissing, handshaking, backslapping and comparisons of husbands, wives and children, all removed to the appointed place, one of the most beautiful and popular camps in the Forest.

Here the first clamor of greetings and congratulations was resumed, interspersed with loud cries of "When we eat?" Lunches were brought out and the most important business of the evening was attended to with great gusto and fervor. Large piles of pickles, cake, bananas and sandwiches melted like asperin in the d.w.

Jack Trantham, member of the sister class of '27, was popularly acclaimed champion. Mr. Trantham's showing was based on the consumption of twenty-two of Miss Alberta Jenkins' Goggleslockers homemade graham sandwiches, seventeen each of all others, and twelve bananas. I maintain, however, if Walter Glazener had the two extra inches of reach which Mr. Trantham possessed, Jack would have run a bad second. I was pretty close to the cake, myself.

After these proceedings were over, the meeting was called to order, and secretary Tom Mitchell called the roll which, except for a few gaps here and there by the missing was entirely complete. No new members were added.

This important detail was followed with speeches by some of the married ladies present. Mrs. Mitchell Fortune was very interesting on "A guaranteed recipe for indigestible biscuits." This fell somewhat flat however, as all other ladies present declared that each was a ready infallible in that line. Mrs. W. J. Jones made a highly instructive talk on "How two can live as cheaply as one," but admitted that the knowledge was no longer of value to her as her two had already become Three. Mrs. Edgerton Fletcher, on being called upon, declared that she could not make a speech in public, and recalling other and former attempts of amateur speechmakers, the gathering did not insist.

Comparative statistics disclosed that fourteen of the girls had made an equal number of men happy (?), while only two boys had committed themselves. (Secret marriages not counted). We concluded that the girls must have taken advantage of the last leap year, while the boys have leaped for years.

Tardy members arriving at intervals through the evening were made welcome and led to the banquet table which incidentally, had not been entirely deserted through the whole time.

Guests of the evening included: Mrs. W. W. Brittain, one of the favorite teachers of the class in '29, who unfortunately could not stay for the proceedings but very kindly wished us a most happy reunion. Other guests were Carl Bryson, Garland Sledge, Mitchell King, a former member of the class who, unavoidably detained at some former stage of the class history, automatically became members of '30, '32, '33 or future years. However, I will not direct too much attention in that direction lest some of it be diverted to the somewhat shady (and better so) scholastic achievements of the author.

Miss Grace Duckworth was along to chaperone Elizabeth; the aforementioned Jack Trantham was also among those present. However, some of the guests brought their own lunch.

We deeply regretted that more of our former teachers could not be present, but a previous engagement detained some of them, while others were out of the city.

All of those present enjoyed the outing hugely, and all are looking forward to the next meeting to be held in 1937.

Why Liquid Laxatives are Back in Favor

The public is fast returning to the use of liquid laxatives. People have learned that the properly prepared liquid laxative will bring a perfect movement without any discomfort at the time, or after.

The dose of a liquid laxative can be varied to suit the needs of the individual. The action can thus be regulated. A child is easily given the right dose. And mild liquid laxatives do not irritate the kidneys.

Doctors are generally agreed that senna is the best laxative for everybody. Senna is a natural laxative. It does not drain the system like the cathartics that leave you so thirsty. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a liquid laxative which relies on senna for its laxative action. It has the average person's bowels as regular as clockwork in a few weeks' time.

* You can always get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at any drugstore, ready for use. Member N. H. A.
