AT THE CLEMSON THEATRE

A love story "Midshipman Jack" filmed at Annapolis is scheduled for Friday and Saturday at the Clemson Theatre with Bruce Cabot and Betty Furness taking leading roles. Disgrace faced the pair, expulsion for the boy and disownment for the fair daughter of the commandant. Love at any cost... even disgrace and dismissal meant nothing to him... until the traditions of Annapolis burned in his blood. Plenty of action, with thrills and romance thrown in.

"Stage Mother" on Monday and Tuesday of next week portrays a grasping mother who will stop at nothing to gain her end... fame, fortune, popularity. She was willing even to sell the soul of her daughter to attain her goal. What happened back-stage is told in a way that causes a heart throb for the little girl who was born into a family of "hard knocks," rose to fame overnight, but was unhappy because of the money-lusting mother. Alice Brady, Maureen O'Sullivan, Franchot Tone, Phillips Holmes and Ted Healy appear in the cast.

Christmas Shopping IN OCTOBER?

YES, INDEED. With prices acting the way they are many wise men and women are "doing their Christmas shopping early." It's especially smart to do with jewelry and silverware because, from all indications, December prices will be radically higher. All prices will no doubt rise proportionately. The thrifty men and women will take advantage of prevailing low prices and "buy while you can save."

BUY AT BEFORE-THE-RISE PRICES

Almost every day we are told of price increases in the markets. These increases are not confined to any one line but are general. These increases range from 5% to 35% and are still rising. In the jewelry line, for instance, Diamonds have gone up 35%. The wholesale prices on silverware have advanced 25%. Watches are up 10% to 20%. The cost of birthstones rings has risen 25% and more.

Your merchants have signed up under the President's code and are co-operating 100% in an effort to speed national recovery.

Buy Now! Prices will NOT GO DOWNWARD. They will rise and the wise buyer will BUY NOW!
