INTERESTING PROGRAM AT MATHATASIAN CLUB

An interesting program on music composers of the 16th to the 19th century featured the regular meeting of the Mathatasian club held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harold Norwood, who was hostess and program leader also.

Mrs. Norwood gave sketches of the life and works of outstanding composers of that time. Adding to the enjoyment and enlightenment of the program was the playing of several musical selections by Miss Lillian Jenkins and Prof. Alvin Moore, illustrating Mrs. Norwood's discussion.

In addition to the members present was one guest, Mrs. T. A. Berg.

Routine business was in charge of the president, Mrs. Pat Kimzey.

The meeting adjourned until the second Thursday in January after delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

MRS. KING HOSTESS TO FORTNIGHTLY CLUB

Mrs. Cordia King was hostess to the Fortnightly club Thursday afternoon at the regular meeting, and also presided over the routine business, as president of the club.

Arrangements were made for the sale of Christmas seals by the different members. It was voted to purchase a book, "Birds of the South," which the club members would read and study during the year and donate the book at the end of the year to the Brevard high school library.

The program of the afternoon was in charge of Mrs. L. K. Ratchford, who gave an interesting discussion of travels in France, emphasizing in particular the annual carnival in Nice.

Refreshments and decorations were suggestive of the Christmas season. Mrs. King was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Z. W. Nichols.

WEDDING DRESS REVIEW IS UNIQUE AFFAIR

A wedding dress review, sponsored by the Eastern Star and held in connection with the recent Tom Thumb wedding proved a highly enjoyable and unique affair, featuring wedding dresses of long ago as well as those of more recent years.

Six young matrons of the town and two young girls formed the review, wearing their own wedding gowns or those of family connections of former generations.

Those taking part in the review and the gown worn were:

Mrs. J. M. Allison, wearing the wedding dress of her grandmother in 1854, hand embroidered by a French nun of Charleston, S. C., and the wedding veil of her great grandmother in 1829.

Mrs. Harry Clarke, wearing the wedding gown of P. T. Barnum's daughter in 1834.

Elizabeth Allison, wearing a dress worn by Mrs. W. E. Breese before the latter was 15 years old.

Mrs. Ashe Macfie, wearing the wedding dress of Mrs. S. M. Macfie.

Mrs. Goode Loftis, wearing the wedding gown of her mother and also her own wedding dress.

Miss Mabel McNeely, the wedding dress of Mrs. J. B. Pickelsimer.

Mrs. Harry Sellers, wearing the wedding dress of her mother, Mrs. R. S. Pearce, and also her own wedding dress.

Mrs. Anthony Trantham, wearing her own wedding dress when married at her home in Oklahoma City in 1932

ERROR IS CORRECTED

An error in last week's paper, is herewith corrected.

Directors of the Tom Thumb Wedding were Miss Bill Aiken, Mrs. J. E. Ruffy and Mrs. George Simpson. The music was in charge of Miss Eva Call.

LUKE RILEY SAYS THE RATS DIE BEFORE REACHING THE RIVER.

Since moving near the river several years ago we've always used BEST-YET. We watched the vicious water rats nibbling at BEST-YET, outside the house. About 15 minutes later they darted off for the river to cool their burning stomachs, but died before reaching it. Kills rats and mice only. Will not hurt cats, dogs or chickens, and there is no smell from the dog rat. BEST-YET comes in two sizes, 4 oz. size 50c; 6 oz. size 75c. Sold and guaranteed by
