In Memory Of

Nancy Elizabeth Galloway

A wave of sadness dimmed the festive mirth in many hearts on Christmas Eve because of the tragic death of Nancy Elizabeth, lovely little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fulton Galloway of Durham, N. C.

Nancy was being brought by her parents and uncle to Brevard to spend the holidays with her grandparents when a serious car accident on the way ended her sweet young life almost immediately.

Having attended the Brevard school for a brief period during last year's term, Nancy was much beloved by teachers and school mates, as well as others who were attracted by her winsomeness of manner and childish grace.

We deeply sympathize with the parents and grandparents in their sorrow, yet 'tis a sweet thought that she joined her Savior as a precious birthday gift.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Hartsell, pastor of the Brevard Baptist church.

Pall bearers were Roy Nelson, Knox DeLong, Carl Bosse and W. L. Smith.

The flower bearers were Nancy's little class mates, Kathleen Simpson, Virginia Aiken, Paula May Smathers Mary Price, Harold Hartsell and Fred Glazener.

A beautiful memory of Nancy will long live in the hearts of her Brevard friends.

Dear child, we miss your sunny face,

Your laughter, gay and sweet, But this rare thought subdues the sting..... Again some day we'll meet.

Mary H. Mills.

W. H. ORGAM, Jr. District Manager

The outstanding meeting this week will be held Tuesday night, January 16th at Asheville with Camp No. 1. State Manager E. B. Lewis of Kinston and Chas. A. Hines, Head Council of North Carolina will be the speakers. Other prominent Woodmen that will attend this meeting are: Hugh Montiehl, Sylva; Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Keever, Hickory; Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Royster, Rutherfordton and Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Goforth, Kings Mountain.

After program and refreshments an old time square dance will be held. The meeting will be in Odd Fellows Hall.

Rosman Camp No. 295 elected and installed officers on Tuesday night the 9th. A. M. White and the McLean brothers told us that they thought many of the former members would be able to reinstate this spring, provided work in the plants continues.

Down at Marshall the members are going to have an oyster supper soon and take steps to reorganize their camp for this year's work.

We attended meeting at Hendersonville Thursday night and found the new officers there making plans for this year's work.

Friday night at Waynesville a few faithful members came through rain and snow to attend a called meeting. F. H. Leatherwood, the new secretary will do his part to get this Camp on its feet again.

Saturday night the 13th Cashiers Camp held their social meeting which was ladies night. After talking and other features including fixing the banjo strings an old time square dance was enjoyed by all, and that includes both young and old.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe L. Wright know how to entertain their friends and guests. Mr. Wright is secretary of Camp and Mrs. Wright is a member of Grove at Brevard and all their children are members of Juvenile Camp.

AT THE CLEMSON THEATRE

"Lucky Larrigan," featuring Rex Bell will be shown at Clemson Theatre Friday and Saturday of this week. The picture is brimful of action, thrills and comedy, depicting the western rustlers outwitted by the hard-riding easterner.

The adventures of a fugitive hunted from city to city in a thrilling man hunt offers Robert Montgomery one of his most exciting screen roles in "Fugitive Lovers," which will appear Monday and Tuesday of next week. Lovely Madge Evans plays opposite the popular star. Most of the action of this picture occurs aboard a transcontinental bus. In addition to authentic scenes shot from a great Greyhound bus as it actually sped from New York to Hollywood, the audience will also see what is said to be the most daring prison break and thrilling man-hunt ever screened.
