An interesting program was conducted by Mabel Gillespie, entitled, "The Women That Were Come Together." She was assisted by Elizabeth Price, Stella McCall Anita Galloway, Mary Aiken, Mary Hamrick, Mrs. Hollifield and Kathryn Fulton.

During the social hour delightful refreshments were served by the young hostess.

DELEGATES GIVE REPORTS AT AUXILIARY MEETING

Reports from the three delegates to the convention of the Episcopal church, convening two days last week at Lenoir, were given by Mrs. Frank Jenkins, Mrs. H. N. Carrier and Mrs. Harry Perry at the meeting of the Auxiliary of St. Philips church held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. O. L. Erwin.

Mrs. David Ward, Auxiliary president, was in charge of the meeting. Final plans were discussed for the World Day of Prayer meeting which will be held at St. Philips Episcopal church Friday afternoon from 4 to 5 o'clock, which members of all churches of the town will attend.

Mrs. Eric Rawls, president of the Guild, presided over this meeting which was held following the Auxiliary. It was decided to hold a Book Tea some time in the near future.

The hostess served refreshments following both meetings.

D. A. R. HAS GEORGE WASHINGTON PROGRAM

An interesting program in observance of the George Washington anniversary occasion was presented at the regular meeting of the Waightstill Avery chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution held Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. M. Allison.

An article from the D. A. R. magazine, entitled, "Some Bi-centennial Errors," was read by Mrs. Allison, which proved interesting and instructive. The president's general message for February was read by the chaplain, Mrs. Laura Miller.

The meeting was presided over by the regent, Mrs. Ralph Ramsey, who also read letters regarding various phases of the chapter work. Mrs. T. E. Patton Jr. read a letter concerning the correct use of the flag, and a letter was read by PWA Florence Kern asking for PWA funds for maintaining old trails, old buildings and old cemeteries of Revolutionary times.

The registrar, Mrs. T. E. Patton Jr., reported that papers had been accepted for one new member into the chapter, Miss Adelaide Silversteen. The meeting opened with the flag salute and the reading of one of George Washington's prayers by Mrs. Laura Miller.

Mrs. T. G. Moody was appointed chairman of approved schools project. A card of thanks was read from the Crossnore school thanking the chapter for their $10 gift sent to this school. A box was sent to Ellis Island for use of the immigrants. The treasurer, Mrs. Coleman Galloway, reported a balance of $29.60 on hand.

Plans were perfected for the benefit bridge which the chapter will sponsor on the night of George Washington's birthday, February 22, at the Pierce-Moore hotel. The following committees were appointed for this benefit feature: Prizes, Mrs. Ralph Ramsey, Mrs. Coleman Galloway, Mrs. J. M. Allison; decoration, Mrs. J. S. Silversteen; Mrs. J. M.
