

UPPER BOYLSTON

(By Lorena McCall)

We have had some nice weather for Easter this year.

Mrs. Harvey English is very ill at this writing. We hope for her a speedy recovery.

Miss Sallie Patton was the guest Thursday afternoon of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Simpson.

Mrs. W. S. Taylor called on her sister Miss Eulalia Orr Friday afternoon.

Miss Eulalia Orr has been on the sick list but has somewhat recovered. Little Gladys McCall has recovered from the measles.

Mrs. Louise Surcey of Asheville visited her husband and father recently.

J. M. Patton and grandson and Cleve Burgess called on Carl Orr Monday.

Mrs. Perry Fullbright called on Miss Eulalia Orr Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Patton's daughters and grandchildren visited them recently.

J. L. Ledbetter called on W. S. Taylor Monday of last week.

Furman Reece was visiting relatives in Weaverville, Tenn., recently.

Cleve Burgess and Lee English made a business trip to Brevard Tuesday.

J. M. Patton entertained a number of his friends and relatives Wednesday night of last week with phonograph music.

Mrs. Perry Fullbright visited Mrs. T. J. Hollingsworth Tuesday.

E. F. Alexander and E. F. Reece made a business trip to Blantyre Saturday.

It came as a surprise to many friends and relatives the wedding of Miss Estelle Moffit and Mr. Ralph Banning. They were married last August but it was not announced until Saturday night at the ending of the Etowah high school. Mrs. Banning is the daughter of Jesse Moffit of Etowah, and Mr. Banning is the son of Jasper Banning of Lower Boylston. The couple will make their home in Asheville where Mr. Banning is employed.

Cleve Burgess is moving his sawmill from Dog creek to Sutton creek.

Furman and Arlin Reece are making a great improvement on their farm.

W. A. Baynard recently exchanged cars and he now owns a big truck.

Rachel English is spending a few days with Mrs. Harvey English while she is ill.

Walter Cairnes recently bought a new truck.

Joe Ledbetter made a business trip to Hendersonville recently.

Lee English was a business visitor at Etowah Saturday.

This community was sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. Oscar Anderson of Cole Valley, Ill. She was before her marriage Miss Myrtle English, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Weldon English of Boylston. She is survived by her husband and five children, mother and eight brothers, Lee, Henry, Neal, Lester, Charlie and Harvey English, all of Boylston, Tom English of Mexico and John of Philadelphia, one sister Miss Rachel English and a number of friends and relatives on Boylston.

Lee English was the dinner guest Friday of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Taylor.

Dave Holiday of Blantyre visited Rick McCall Sunday.

Mrs. Rick McCall is ill with the flu at this writing.

Mrs. Thomas Duncan has returned to her home after spending a few weeks with her daughters in Asheville.

Sam Crook and family of Asheville called on Mrs. T. R. Duncan Sunday.

Jessie Simpson of South Carolina called on Mr. and Mrs. Jake Simpson over the week-end.

Ed Owenby and Clarence Brown of Turkey Creek called on Johnnie Alexander Sunday.

AT THE CLEMSON THEATRE

On Friday and Saturday of this week, the Clemson offers a sensational drama of the West featuring Rex Bell, the rugged cinema cowboy. "From Broadway to Cheyenne" is the title of this picture, which depicts the trail of a hair-trigger horse boy who quit the bright lights of Broadway for the blaze of a six-gun in the cactus country. Playing in this Monogram picture with Rex Bell are Marceline Day, Robert Ellis, Gwen Lee, Roy D'Arcy and others. "From Broadway to Cheyenne" promises a real thrill to Western enthusiasts.

Irene Dunne and Ralph Bellamy are co-starred in "This Man Is Mine" which is billed for Monday and Tuesday of next week. This is a delightful comedy-drama rich with effervescent laughs and a sophisticated plot. Those who enjoy sparkling humor, wit, and daring situations should see it. As an added attraction to "This Man Is Mine," a musical extravaganza including Dorothy Stone, Gus Shy, and a host of beautiful girls amid gorgeous settings will be shown. "Look for the Silver Lining" is the optimistic title of this added musical feature.

Outstanding pictures for coming weeks include Zasu Pitts in "Sing and Like It," Frances Dee in "Keep 'em Rolling," and John Wayne in "The Sagebrush Trail."

"Ronald looked so silly when he proposed." "No wonder, look at the silly thing he was doing."

NOTICE

TO PROPERTY OWNERS

E. Gaston Whitmire has been duly appointed County Supervisor of Taxation and will soon appoint the Tax Listers for the various townships in the County and he will advertise the place and time where the property owners in the several townships can list their property for taxation.

A great many property owners have failed to list their property in the past and it costs the County a large sum each year to search the records and make out accurate lists.

Under the provisions of law, the property owner is required to list his taxes with the tax lister during the period fixed by law for such listing and if the property owner fails, neglects or refuses to so list his property, he is liable to indictment.

Therefore, in order to have a true and correct tax list of all the property in the County, the County Appraiser of Taxation will have to proceed by law against each and every taxpayer who fails or neglects to list his property during the time provided for same.

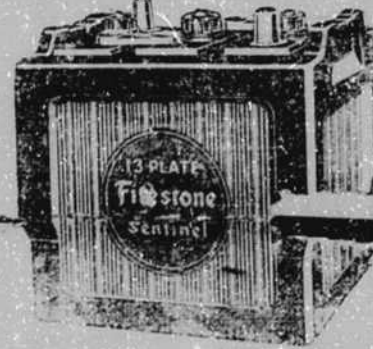

Notice will be given by advertisement in the Transylvania Times and also by notices posted at several places in each Township when and where the Tax Lister can be found by the property owner, and all citizens are now notified that they are expected to meet said Tax Lister and list their property and thereby save themselves from additional cost of legal action against them.

Respectfully,

Board of Commissioners, of Transylvania County
