METHODIST SOCIETY IN REGULAR MEETING

Regular meeting of the Women's Missionary society of the Methodist church was held Thursday afternoon in the ladies' parlor, with the president, Mrs. Oliver Orr, in charge.

Miss Florence Kern and Mrs. L. B. Haynes were elected delegates to the annual missionary meeting to be held in Hendersonville April 24-26. Other members expressed their intention of attending the annual meeting during the three-day period.

Circle reports were given by the different chairmen and other matters of business were transacted. It was decided to conduct the mission study class three days this week, Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons at the home of Mrs. L. B. Haynes, who will also be the class leader. The study book under discussion will be "Eastern Women."

Mrs. J. F. Zachary led the devotionals, giving an interesting discussion based on the Easter theme.

FORMER BREVARD GIRL IS WED IN ASHEVILLE

Following is an account in Sunday's Asheville Citizen of the wedding of Miss Sara Barrett, formerly of Brevard, and Mr. J. D. Hoffer, of Asheville.

Beautiful in every detail was the wedding of Miss Sara Barrett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Barrett, of 65 Ridgeway avenue, West Asheville, to Mr. J. D. Hoffer, which took place at the home of the bride's parents Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

The vows were spoken before an improvised altar of ferns, with tall floor baskets of Easter lilies and white carnations interspersed with floor candelabra, whose white tapers shed a soft glow over the scene. The Rev. Carlock Hawk, pastor of the West Asheville Methodist church, performed the ceremony.

Prior to the ceremony Miss Katherine DeVault, aunt of the bride, sang "I Love You Truly," by Bond, and "At Dawning," by Cadman. Mrs. F. H. Gulley, of Statesville, cousin of the bride, who 26 years ago played the same program of music for the wedding of the bride's parents, accompanied Miss DeVault at the piano. During the ceremony she softly played MacDowell's "To a Wild Rose."

The bride and groom entered together to the strains of the wedding march from Wagner's "Lohengrin." The bride wore a blue suit with grey accessories, and a handsome silver fox scarf. Orchids and valley lilies fashioned her shoulder corsage.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Hoffer left for a motor trip through the Shenandoah valley to northern points. Upon their return they will make their home in Asheville.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS IN BUSINESS AND SOCIAL MEET

The regular business and social meeting of the Daughters of Wesley class of the Methodist Sunday school was held Tuesday evening in the ladies' parlor of the church.

Business matters pertaining to the class were transacted in charge of the class president, Mrs. E. S. English, after which a pleasant social hour was held. Refreshments were served by the joint hostesses, Mrs. E. S. English, Mrs. J. B. Pickens and Miss Alice Hayes.

PRESBYTERIAN CIRCLES HAVE JOINT MEETING

The four circles of the Presbyterian church met in joint session Thursday afternoon at the Hut, with the Auxiliary president, Miss Annie Jean Gash, in charge.

The program was in charge of the vice president, Mrs. J. L. Cobb, with the Bible lesson conducted by each of the four circle chairmen: Miss Mamie Lyday, Mrs. W. M. Cloud, Mrs. J. W. Smith, Miss Reba Kitchen. Opening devotionals were led by Mrs. M. E. Parsons.

Following the joint meeting, the four circles met separately for organization, this being the first meeting of the new church year.

REGULAR MEETING OF THE U. D. C.

The U. D. C. met in regular session Saturday afternoon at the library. The president, Mrs. O. L. Erwin, presided.

Several old Southern songs were sung, after which routine business was transacted. It was decided to give a benefit dance in the early summer. Miss Sherrill Bromfield was made chairman of a committee on arrangements for the affair.

D. A. R. HAS MEETING OF INTEREST

An interesting meeting of the Waightstill Avery chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution was held Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Coleman Galloway.

The meeting, in charge of the regent, Mrs. R. H. Ramsey, opened with the flag salute, Lord's prayer and part of the D. A. R. ritual. The treasurer reported a balance of $42.20 on hand. The correct use of the flag was discussed by Mrs. T. E. Patton Jr. A nominating committee for the annual election of officers in May was appointed as follows: Miss Florence Kern, Mrs. J. M. Tatum and Mrs. J. P. Deaver. Decision was made to observe Flag Day on June 14. Miss Kern and Mrs. T. E. Patton were named to arrange a program for this event. It was voted that the chapter buy a flag. Letters were read by Mrs. J. M. Allison asking endorsement of president generals from a New Jersey D.

BALSAM GROVE NEWS

(Mrs. Harry McCall)

Sheal Creek Sunday School met Sunday and re-organized, with officers and teachers being selected to serve for a period of three months. Mrs. DeWitt McCall was elected superintendent. Everyone is invited to attend each Sunday. Rev. Ernest McCall will preach at the Baptist church Sunday at eleven o'clock.

Friends of Mrs. Alonzo Galloway will be sorry to learn of her recent death. Mrs. Galloway was a former resident of Balsam Grove, but moved to Henderson county several years ago. She is survived by her husband and several sons and one daughter and hundreds of friends that will mourn their loss.

The Mothers' Prayer meeting will be held next Thursday at Louie McCall at 2:30 o'clock.

Boyd McCall is recovering nicely from a severe case of measles.

Harry McCall called on Cornelius McCall Monday of last week.

Mrs. Filmore Galloway and two sons, Dinsmore and Creod attended the funeral service of Mrs. Alonzo Galloway near Horse Shoe Tuesday.

Arvel Long visited Floyd Brown Sunday afternoon.

Oscar McCall of Pickens, S. C. is visiting friends here.

AT THE CLEMSON THEATRE

On Friday and Saturday of this week "Sagebrush Trail" will be shown featuring John Wayne with Lane Chandler, Nancy Shubert and Yaki-ima Canutt. Action! Thrills! For you followers of Western Melodrama who like ingredients mixed in the proper proportions. Drama and romance ride to the tune of thundering hoofs and blazing guns.

Zasu Pitts, Pert Kelton, Edward Horton, Nat Pendleton are featured Monday and Tuesday of next week in Sing and Like. Zasu Pitts sings with her quavering voice, while Pert Kelton vocalizes with sour notes emanating from an endlessly gum-chewing mouth. Even a hard-boiled gang chief has his hands more than full when he attempts to cope with two jealous women.

Coming next week: "Keep 'em Rolling" with Walter Huston and Frances Dee, also coming soon is "Wild Cargo with Frank Buckles who played in "Bringin' 'em Back Alive."

A. R. and a Georgia D. A. R.

A program of interest and information on Approved Schools was given by Mrs. T. G. Moody.

After a pleasant social hour, during which the hostess served refreshments, the chapter adjourned to meet in May with Miss Florence Kern.

Is This Too Good for Your Cough?

Cremulsion may be a better help than you need. It combines seven major helps in one—the best helps known to science. It is made for quick relief, for safety.

Mild coughs often yield to lesser helps. No one can tell. No one knows which factor will do most for any certain cough. So careful people, more and more, are using Cremulsion for any cough that starts.

The cost is a little more than a single help. But your druggist guarantees it, so it costs nothing if it fails to bring you quick relief. Coughs are danger signals. For safety's sake, deal with them in the best way known. (adv.)
