

Local and Personal Items

Mrs. C. B. McFee returned Sunday to her home in Marion after spending a week as guest of her sister, Mrs. J. W. Smith, and other relatives here. She was accompanied home by Mr. McFee and their daughter, Mrs. Allen R. Poe, who spent the day here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry West and two children of Greenville were Sunday guests of Rev. J. H. West and family at the Methodist parsonage.

Mrs. L. B. Haynes has returned to Hendersonville to be with her sister, after spending several weeks at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Hawkins of Gastonia spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Whitmire on Route Mark Orr, of Mars Hill college, spent the week-end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Orr.

Jordan Masters was in Brevard Saturday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Allison and children, Mack and Elizabeth, and Patsy Grimshaw motored to Pickens, S. C., Sunday to spend the day with Mr. Allison's sister, Mrs. Kirksey.

Mrs. Gertrude Gaither of Okmulgee, Okla., is spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Henderson, recuperating from a recent illness.

Mrs. J. E. Loftis and daughter Betty were Asheville visitors Saturday.

C. O. Brantley, who has been connected with The Times office for some time, left last week for Greenwood, S. C., where he has accepted a position.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilson and Mrs. Tom Wood were Greenville visitors Tuesday.

Miss Gladys Gillespie of Calvert spent Thursday with Miss Rubenia Nicholson.

Mrs. Alvin Rockwood and little daughter Dorothy Gay left Monday for a two weeks' visit in Florence, S. C.

J. M. Allison and Ernest Webb were on a fishing trip in Jackson county Monday.

Miss Bertie Ballard of the Valley Springs school was the week-end guest of Miss Rubenia Nicholson.

Clyde McCrary was a visitor in Charlotte and Marion several days last week.

Miss Mary Holland of Spartanburg was the week-end guest of Miss Gladys English.

Mrs. John R. Hudson and two children of Washington, D. C., are visiting Mr. Hudson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brees.

Miss Dolly Masters was in Brevard shopping Saturday.

Little Melvin and Edna Ward spent the week-end with their aunt, Mrs. E. L. Hamilton.

Mrs. J. S. Nicholson, Miss Rubenia Nicholson and Mrs. J. F. Zachary motored to Asheville for the day Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gillespie and children James, Jesse and Frances visited L. D. and Mrs. Sam Gillespie at Cherryfield Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cuthrie Shipman and baby were guests Sunday of Mrs. Shipman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hamilton.

Misses Irene and Margaret Aiken had as their guests Sunday Misses Nola and Pauline Gillespie, Katherine Shipman, Viola Nelson and Ella Mae Scruggs.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Collins and family visited the latter's father at Hendersonville Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hogsed and family were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hogsed.

Mrs. M. D. Cantrell was guest Friday of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cantrell.

Mrs. B. F. Robinson, Mrs. M. L. McGaha and little Claud McDowell, who have been confined in Lyday Memorial hospital, were all able to return to their homes on Wednesday. Little Faye Wolfe, who has been in the hospital for some time, will be able to return home within a few days, it is reported.

Miss Bonnie Henderson of Pickens, S. C., visited her brother, Henry Henderson, on Tuesday.

Mrs. Roy Long is visiting her mother in Graham this week.

Mrs. J. T. Mills, who had her tonsils removed last week, is recovering nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Pendleton and daughter, Mrs. Walter Banks, attended the funeral services of Mrs. Pendleton's father, C. M. Furman, in Bishopville, S. C., last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John McLean have moved from the Philips apartment to a house just off East Main street.

Mrs. E. L. McKee of Sylva was guest last week of her niece, Mrs. A. H. Kizer, and family.

Harry Cleveland, of Cleveland, was guest last week of W. P. Masters.

Miss Katherine Griffin returned Tuesday from Norfolk, Va., where she spent the past several months with her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Kile were Asheville visitors Monday.

Mrs. Carl Frady and two sons have returned to Hendersonville after visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Frady.

Percy Verdery and Rush Whitmire of Charlotte were Sunday visitors in Brevard.

E. J. Bogen has returned from a business trip to Atlanta.

John and Mary Jane Walker spent last week with their grandmother Walker in Reidsville. Their mother, Mrs. Carl McCrary, and Mr. Mc-

PIANO RECITAL TO BE HELD MONDAY

Pupils of Prof. Alvin Moore of the Brevard schools will present the annual piano recital next Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the high school auditorium.

The following pupils will appear on the program:

George Simpson Jr., Fred Glazener, Dorothy Poole, Katherine Shuford, Lillian Zachary, Nina Lou Rustin, Mae Cunningham, Billy Crary, Lois Wilson, A. M. White Jr., Gwendolyn Morgan, Paul Jones, Ora Holt Long, Wilhelmina Hinton, Juanita and Virginia Ward, Edward Glazener, Sylva Lyday, Norma Hamilton, Junie McCall, Rheumma Beddingfield and Martha Kate Moore. Miss Eva Call will direct two songs on the program.

The following will serve as marshals: Sandy McLeod, chief, Ruth Fulton, Virginia Justus, Betty McLeod, Margaret Dickson, Mildred McIntosh, James Parsons, Clyde McCrary, Rogers Cansler.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend the recital.

Crary motored to Reidsville Sunday to bring the children back home.

Charles H. Rogers has returned to Raleigh after spending some time here at the Simmons Inn, connected with the TVA work.

John and Guthrie Kilpatrick, who are connected with the TVA work at Norris, Tenn., spent the week-end here with their families.

Mrs. Mamie Verdery of Hendersonville spent Sunday here with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Wood and Tommy Wood spent several days last week in Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Bishop were week-end guests of Mrs. Bishop's parents in Hendersonville.

Mrs. Walter Duckworth and two children of Marshall were guests last week of Mrs. Duckworth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Lookbill and children of Greer, S. C., were week-end guests of Mrs. Lookbill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson.

Misses Mattie Lewis and Jack Clayton were Asheville visitors Tuesday.

W. A. Robertson, formerly of Georgia, is now employed by The Times as Linotype operator and printer.

Air Companies to Carry Row To Court

WASHINGTON—Court action to force the government to carry out the terms of the airmail contracts annulled by Postmaster General Farley will be instituted Wednesday by four of the affected aviation companies.

Signs, any kind, made—painted—Mull's Old Store, below Postoffice.

WHIRL AT THE WORLD OF NEWS

Items of interest gleaned during the past week

18,000,000 On U. S. Aid Rolls

WASHINGTON—The number of families on relief rolls reached a record high April 1, despite employment gains, Relief Administrator Harry L. Hopkins said Saturday. A peak of 4,000,000 families, approximating 18,000,000 persons, was recorded as either employed under the new emergency works administration or receiving direct relief.

Wife May Join Insull on Trip

SMYRNA, Turkey—Samuel Insull, homeward bound in the custody of a United States official, was cheered today by the possibility he may be joined for most of the long journey by his wife. The Exilona is holding cabin accommodations open so that Mrs. Insull may embark at Catania, Sicily, if she can make arrangements. She is now in Athens.

Raleigh "Law" and Bootlegs Linked, Claim

RALEIGH, N. C.—Submitting a voluminous report on alleged collusion between law enforcement officers and bootleggers here, the Wake county grand jury Saturday recommended the outright dismissal of three deputy sheriffs and a shake-up

Gold Strike in Far Northwest

VICTORIA, B. C.—A "new Klondyke" gold strike, reported to average almost $12 a cubic yard for coarse gravel, sent prospectors rushing to the Squaw Creek area of British Columbia last week. Reports from the area said three men working for a few weeks on one claim had recovered more than $7,000 in gold, based only on the former United States price of $20.61 an ounce.

Crowd Mobs Prison

SHREVEPORT, La.—Urged on by two young women perched on a truck, a mob of 2,000 men stormed the Caddo parish courthouse Tuesday night in an effort to seize Fred Lockhart, who police said had confessed to the murder of 16-year-old Mae Giffin in a woods on the outskirts of Shreveport last Thursday.

Labor Calls Road Workers to Meeting

RALEIGH—Opposing the recently formed state employees association, the North Carolina Federation of Labor Thursday called upon highway workers to meet at Salisbury Sunday and be shown "the fallacy of the new movement."

Foreign Loans Bill is Signed

WASHINGTON—The nation Saturday had a law prohibiting banking houses or individuals from floating any more loans to defaulting debtor nations—but who was to administer the new law was a problem. President Roosevelt Saturday put his signature to the bill by Senator Johnson (R-Calif.).

Mae West Orders Armored Auto

HOLLYWOOD—A $7,000 armored automobile, designed to protect the life and looks of Mae West, motion picture actress, has been ordered by the star, her studio officials announced Friday. Miss West, according to studio attaches, has received many threats upon her life, and recently a note threatening to throw acid on her face.

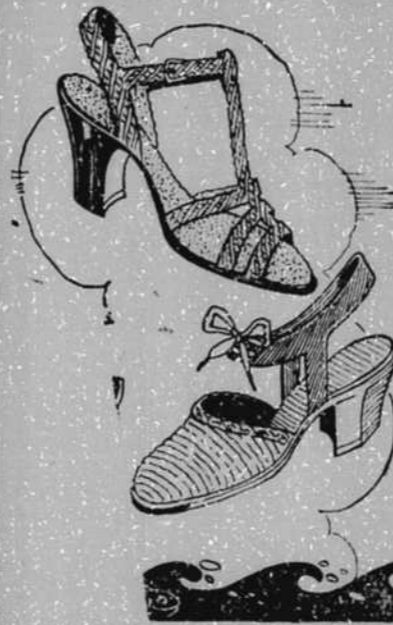

England Fails To Provide War Debt Settlement

LONDON—A "sunshine" budget granting all classes of Britons—government workers, motorists, income tax payers, and the unemployed—$145,000,000 in benefits but not providing for American debt payments was given parliament this afternoon by Chancellor of the Exchequer Neville Chamberlain.

Cabinet work: We'll build it. Mull's Old Store, below Postoffice.

A Shower of VALUES

1st APRIL

The Hit of the Season

Ladies' Barefoot SANDALS

Give your feet freedom and comfort during this warm weather. Colors, solid white, red and white, blue and white.

$1.19 pair

Creators of style seldom remember the men, but this once is an exception. Men's straw hats in colors—Greys and Browns in several shapes. The genuine Esamen Waterproof straw (Reg. U. S. Patent office). Not only waterproof but washable. Enjoy head freedom and comfort without attracting attention.

$2.95 each

Other straws from 97c up

At Last We Have It

Wool and Worsted YARNS

Products of American Thread Company. Clover Leaf, Shetland Floss—two fold one-ounce balls—14 beautiful colors.

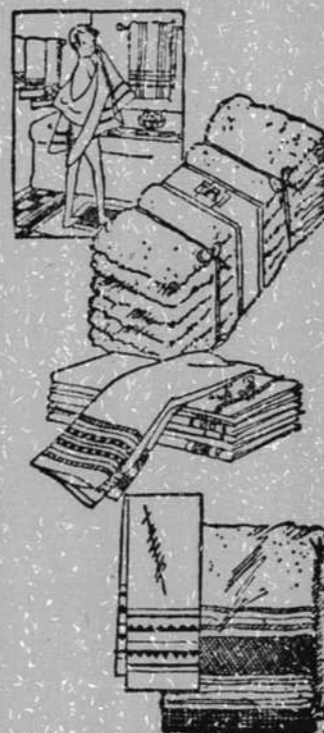

35 cents ball

Dawn, Knitting Worsted, four fold—one and seven-eighths ounce skeins, 10 shades—

29 cents skein

Clover Leaf, Saxony, three-fold, one ounce balls, three colors—

45 cents ball

Towels Towels

A scoop for the housewife. We were fortunate enough to buy with several other merchants the entire stock of towels from a bankrupt towel mill.

Giant Turkish towels

Size 48x26

29c each

Just Arrived Another shipment of lovely

SPRING DRESSES

Washable silk crepe in all the pastel shades. Jacket frocks, print dresses and sport frocks. So economical that you may select several for your summer wardrobe.

Sizes 14 to 42

$3.95 — $4.95

White—White

It's the color that is reigning now. White Hats, featuring the Mae West design with the shallow crown and the broad sweeping brims. All head-sizes.

$1.00 and $1.95

R. H. PLUMMER & CO.

Broadway

Brevard

Announcing

Effective Monday, April 23, the ice business of the J. S. Bromfield Ice Plant will be taken over by us . . . we having purchased the business and goodwill of that concern. . . and shall be pleased to serve all the people of the county with

Pure, Clear, Food-Saving Ice

The Safe Refrigeration for Food

We shall appreciate having the business of customers formerly served by Mr. Bromfield's plant, and shall strive to give all our customers such service that our relations will be pleasant.

Phone 241

FOR

ICE . . . the safe and sure refrigeration

PURITY PRODUCTS CO.

Brevard, N. C.