MUSIC CLUB EVENT PLEASING TO MANY

"The Persian Princess," a one-act operetta presented by the Brevard Music Lovers club Tuesday evening at the high school auditorium, was a highly commendable musical performance, reflecting much credit upon those taking part and upon their directors. The entertainment was in observance of National Music Week.

The operetta, which was considered a difficult one to render, was generally pronounced a most excellent rendition for a strictly amateur performance. The singing parts, consisting of solos, duets and choruses, as well as the dialogue roles, all showed the result of persistent practice, ability and capable leadership. The costumes suggestive of oriental life and the appropriate stage setting all combined to make a success of the event.

Principal characters in the operetta were Mrs. Knox DeLong, as Princess Zobeide; Miss Janie Strickland, Mrs. J. M. Allison, Mrs. Charles Moore, Mrs. Harry Sellers, Miss Lillian Jenkins, Miss Bill Aiken, Mrs. Thomas Hampton, Misses Nell Duckworth, Christine Yongue and Virginia Justus.

Director and accompanist was Prof. Alvin Moore, with Miss Nancy Macfie directing the dances, the latter also being a delightful feature of the entertainment.

Mrs. Knox DeLong, president of the Brevard Music Lovers club, and members of the club wish to extend appreciation to the following:

The high school girls for their contribution of song and dance and for the beautiful spirit they exhibited throughout their practice;

To Miss Nancy Macfie for her faithful and efficient work in directing the dances; to Frank McIntosh for so beautifully decorating the stage and for his constant services as stage manager; to the many friends who lent their oriental rugs, embroideries and other treasures which contributed to the eastern atmosphere; to the two undertaking establishments, Mootie and Osborne and Kilpatrick, for lending the grass for the garden scene.

To the Farmers Supply company for the crocks for the flowers; to Camp Ilhaeo for the use of their benches; to Mrs. Charles McCrary for her excellent work in "making up" the cast; to the high school boys who shifted the scenery and prepared the stage for use.

The club wishes especially to thank Mrs. Frank Jenkins for her very helpful advice and criticism at the rehearsals. But for her help, the program could not have gone forward.
