LOCAL ARTIST DELIGHTS MARYLAND AUDIENCE

The vocal and piano recital given by Mr. Alvin Moore, Brevard's gifted musician, to a capacity audience in the Port Deposit, Maryland, Presbyterian church, on Friday evening of last week, proved a delightful and highly successful event.

Mr. Moore rendered a varied program which captivated his audience from the very beginning. Many expressions of surprise at Mr. Moore's marked musical ability and profound appreciation for his excellent recital were heard from the large audience, composed of music lovers from near and far.

This was Mr. Moore's second recital given in the Maryland city and the large attendance was a testimony to his increasing popularity. One world traveler who was in the audience was most enthusiastic in his praise of the Brevard artist and predicted an illustrious future for him.

Rev. Wayne A. Monroe, formerly of Brevard, is pastor of the Port Deposit church.

IN MEMORIAM OF JANE JONES

At the break of dawn on Monday morning, May 1, 1934, the death angel visited the home of my lovely grandmother, Mrs. Jane Jones, and left a vacant place which can never be replaced. She has always lived in Transylvania county and was an active member of the Blue Ridge Baptist church.

Mrs. Jones was a friend to all and loved everybody and was loved by everybody. Her sweet smiles as she soul went out to meet her Savior testified to the joy which was to be in his presence when she met him. Her work here on earth will always be remembered by the ones who loved her.

She was, before her marriage, Miss Jane Bishop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. "Pink" Bishop. At her death she was survived by six children, Joseph, Robert, Harlen, Emerson and Seldon Jones all of Cedar Mountain, and Mrs. Bunion Robinson of Cedar Mountain and also eleven grandchildren.

A GRANDDAUGHTER.
