MISS ELIZA HENRY WEDS MR. VAUGHN OF GASTONIA

A pretty wedding was solemnized Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Brevard Baptist church, when Miss Eliza Henry, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Henry of Brevard, became the bride of Mr. Oscar A. Vaughn of Gastonia. The Rev. Paul Hartsell, pastor of the Brevard Baptist church, officiated. The ring ceremony was used.

The church was beautifully decorated with an artistic arrangement of evergreen, rhododendron and mountain ivy. Tall baskets of larkspur and delphinium effectively arranged added to the pretty scene of color combination.

Wagner's processional "Wedding March" and Mendelssohn's recessional were played by Alvin Moore, who was also accompanist in a program of nuptial music prior to the ceremony. Mrs. Carl McCrary sang "Because" by D'Hardelot, followed by "Oh Promise Me" by DeKoven sung by Mr. Moore. During the ceremony Mr. Moore played softly Schumann's "Traumerei." Jack Trantham and Donald Lee Moore acted as ushers.

The bride wore a becoming gown of ivory satin made in simple princess fashion, with high cowl neckline, long tight sleeves, a buckle of rhinestones and slight train. A close fitting turban of same material with short circular veil and other accessories in white completed the costume. She carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses and swansonias. The bride's mother wore green crepe with shoulder spray of rose buds.

Following the ceremony the couple left on a honeymoon motor trip to points of interest in the North and in Canada. The bride's traveling outfit was of blue crepe with matching accessories.

Mrs. Vaughn is a graduate of Brevard high school, of Mars Hill college, and of the North Carolina College for Women at Greensboro. For the past six years she has taught in the city school system of Gastonia. Mr. Vaughn, a native of Ila, Ga., where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. U. Vaughn live, is connected with the Coca Cola Bottling company of Gastonia, where the couple will make their home.

Out of town guests at the wedding included Miss Rockie Lou Fleetwood, of Jackson, N. C.; Miss Bessie Shannon and Mr. William Jordan of Gastonia; Mr. Roy Clayton and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Etheridge, of Atlanta; Mrs. V. E. Latham and daughters Ruth and Annie Latham, of Easley, S. C.; Miss Ruth Finley, of Spartanburg, S. C.; Miss Sarah Hall Gaither of Mocksville; Mrs. B. C. Taylor and daughter Elizabeth of Mt. Holly and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Quisenberry of Hendersonville.

MISS McLEAN WEDS MR. QUARLES

Miss Anna Louise McLean of Hendersonville, granddaughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. McLean of Brevard, and daughter of the late Dr. G. W. McLean and Mrs. McLean and Mr. Norment Quarles of Hendersonville were married Friday evening at 7 o'clock at the home of the bride's uncle, Mr. R. L. Whitmire in Hendersonville. The Rev. James P.

Burke, rector of St. James Episcopal church, officiated.

The west terrace of the Whitmire home formed the setting for the wedding, presenting a scene of unusual loveliness. The terrace where the ceremony was performed was banked with roses and snapdragons, flanked with candelabra holding tall white candles, the space marked off with a railing to resemble a room with a beautiful carpet of natural greenery. The music was furnished by the vested choir of the Hendersonville Methodist church, rendering the bridal chorus from Lohengrin as the processional.

The four bridesmaids were gowned in rainbow colors with picture hats and muffs with daisy chains. The matrons of honor wore net and lace dresses in delicate shades of pink with horsehair braid hats, and carrying bouquets of pink roses, ferns and delphinium. Mrs. Brown Carr, of New Orleans and Brevard, and Mrs. Guy Grant of Portsmouth, Va., both aunts of the bride, were among the matrons of honor.

The bride's bridal robe was of duchess satin and Alencon lace with long court train, wearing a veil caught with orange blossoms which fell to the floor. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, R. L. Whitmire.

Little Sarah Jane McLean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McLean of Brevard and first cousin of the bride, was flower girl, looking charming in long white net dress with pink sash and pink hair ribbon and carrying a basket filled with pink rose petals which she scattered along the wedding path. Little Boyce Whitmire Jr., another first cousin of the bride, assisted in carrying the basket and scattering the rose petals. R. L. Whitmire Jr. was train bearer.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Whitmire home, after which the couple left on a honeymoon trip to New York, Niagara Falls, Atlantic City and Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Quarles will be in Brevard this summer for several weeks since Mr. Quarles is to be connected with Camp Sapphire for boys on the councilor staff.
