NOTICE

I wish to call the attention of the citizens of Brevard to a town ordinance adopted in 1927 requiring the confinement of dogs. This ordinance was adopted to prevent any danger of rabies during the summer months. Therefore, in accordance with our usual custom this ordinance will be strictly enforced on and after the first of July. The following is a copy of the ordinance:

Section 1.
That all persons residing in the corporate limits of the Town of Brevard are required to keep or confine his or her dogs.

Section 2.
That no person or persons are permitted to allow his or her dog or dogs to run at large in the Town of Brevard, from the ratification of this ordinance.

Section 3.
That any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be fined not less than five dollars nor more than fifty dollars or imprisoned not less than five days nor more than thirty days.

J. C. WIKE, Mayor.

JOSEPH A. HENDERSON

GREER, S. C., July 2—Joseph Albert Henderson, 76, died at his home near Greer Sunday morning, July 21, at 6:30 after a short illness.

Mr. Henderson had made his home in Greer for a number of years and was well known. He was a devoted member of the Wesleyan Methodist church in Greer and took an active part in his church and its organization. Mr. Henderson was the son of the late B. W. Henderson and Jane Patton Henderson and was born and reared in North Carolina.

Surviving are his widow, who before marriage was Miss Maggie Searcy, and the following children: Eugene Henderson, Hendersonville; C. E. Henderson, of Grove; W. E. Henderson, of Spartanburg; W. D. Henderson, of Annapolis, Md.; J. Paul Henderson of Greer; Mrs. D. U. Black, of Greer; Mrs. J. R. Coker, of Laurens, and Mrs. Paul Powers, of Fairmont; 26 grandchildren, and one great-grandchild; four brothers, R. L. Henderson, of Pickens; F. Henderson of Brevard; Willie Henderson of Asheville, and W. B. Henderson of Gray Court; two sisters, Mrs. Emma Aiken of Brevard and Mrs. James Harkins of Pickens.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon, June 25, at 3 o'clock at the Wesleyan Methodist church in Greer, conducted by his pastor, the Rev. Lyman Lance, assisted by his former pastor, the Rev. R. C. Kendrick. The interment followed in the Washington cemetery north of Greer.

The following served as pallbearers: James Henderson, Leo Searcy, Clarence Smith, D. C. Smith, Span Searcy and Cap Henderson.

(By Ward Breedlove)

Some folks have been asking why we failed to report. Our answer is that news is scarce and we are busy fighting weeds and couldn't get out and hunt news.

Our community club met Monday night with a nice program. We had the Brevard string band which gave a splendid session of the best string music along with the rest of the program. We met again on July 16. All who are interested in truck farming, cooperative buying and selling and a number of other things are invited to attend.

The many friends of Rev. Nathan Chapman, former pastor here, will be glad to learn that he will start a revival at the Methodist church here next Sunday night, July 8, assisted by his brother John of Tryon. All are invited to attend.

Rev. C. C. Reece preached an interesting sermon here last Sunday.

We understand the sheriff was a visitor in our community last Sunday. We only hope he can visit us oftener.

The condition of Uncle Henry Barton's health is very unfavorable, but as good as could be expected considering his condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom McKinna visited the past week-end Mrs. McKinna's father, Pink Galloway, of Dacusville, S. C., who is recovering from an operation.

Misses Vera Hayes and sisters, Misses Inez, Ruby and Luster Morris, with a party from Brevard and Carr's Hill went to Pink Beds on a camping trip over the week-end.

We are very sorry to learn of the severe illness of Uncle Cling Galloway and hope he may soon recover.

At the 1851 exposition in London gas lighting effects which illuminated the buildings were one of the spectacular attractions.
