AT THE CLEMSON THEATRE

George Arliss in "The House of Rothschild," will be star actor at the Clemson Theatre Thursday and Friday of this week. Mr. Arliss is said to be decidedly at his best in this picture, which has the distinction of being the biggest hit in New York theatrical history.

"Charlie Chan's Courage" with Warner Oland will be shown Saturday of this week. This picture is said to be the most exciting of the Chan stories, the one and only Charlie Chan in this film story seeking new criminals, braving new dangers, in the greatest mystery of his super-leuthing career.

Monday and Tuesday of next week, July 23 and 24, will be filmed "Bulldog Drummond Strikes Back" with Ronald Colman, Loretta Young and Warner Oland. This is an old-fashioned melodrama that should make the picture-goers of the rank and file gasp for breath and those of the better classes laugh at the fantastic situations. Both children and adolescents should enjoy it. The plot is founded on the novel by H. C. McNeile.

On Wednesday, July 25, Leslie Howard starring with Betty Davis will appear in "Of Human Bondage." The love that lifted a man to paradise and hurled him back to earth again will be depicted in this great story of the 20th century.

Bees can be hatched from unfertilized eggs; these fatherless insects are always male.
