SELICA NEWS

(By Ward Breedlove)

Farmers here are giving the finish to their crops, also sowing hay and cover crops.

The wind and hail storm did considerable damage to the crops here recently.

A season of two weeks' revival services at each church closed here Sunday and the people are now going to nearby churches to revival. Rev. Nathan Chapman and brother John Chapman of Tryon conducted the revival held at the Selica Methodist church which was pronounced a great success. Numbers were reclaimed and five were baptized last Sunday, with others to follow later.

Sheriff Wood has been visiting much in our community. We extend hearty welcome to him and his force and also thank him for his splendid services.

Misses Mabel Blake and Frances Bryson returned after an extended visit in Greensboro.

We are glad to welcome Mr. and Mrs. John Brown and family, who moved from Brevard to the Preston Galloway property here.

The electrical storm here Monday night is said by some of the older citizenry to have been the most continuous flash in their remembrance.

Jeter Barton left recently for Douglas, Wyo., after spending a leave of absence with his father, H. C. Barton, who has been very sick but is resting easier at this writing.

James Whitmire was in Brevard on business Monday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Claude Galloway, a son, Claude Dawson.

We appreciate the willingness of the boys from Middle Fork, Rev. F. A. Raines, Marvin and Roy Aiken with their string music, singing and other assistance which added much to the success of the revival. No church will make a mistake in having them in their revival.

We are glad to know that Miss Margaret Dickson, who has been very sick, is recovering.

Defies Ouster Order

New Orleans — New Orleans mayor, police chief and district attorney Saturday flatly defied Governor O. K. Allen to remove them from office.

Drouth Costs Millions

Kansas City, Mo.—Suffering acutely from the worst drouth in its history, the midwest and southwest Saturday counted its crop loss in the hundreds of millions of dollars.

Officials and semi-official sources, reporting the widespread damage, said each additional day of withering heat would add thousands of dollars to the tremendous toll already exacted and the weather forecast said the blazing, rainless spell would continue indefinitely.

Takes 6 Inches Off Hips and Bust

The SAFE Way to Reduce

"For 3 months I've used Kruschen Salts—I've lost 45 pounds—taken 6 inches off bust—3 bottles gave me splendid results." Mrs. Carl Wilson.

A half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water every morning is the secret how overweight folks can reduce SAFELY and at the same time gain physical attractiveness. One bottle lasts 4 weeks. You can get Kruschen Salts at any drug store in the world.
